I want to go on record.

First day is allocated only for taking oath and affirmation. I just want to bring it to the notice of the House and to the Hon'ble Speaker.
There was no clear information or content that can be extracted from the text in the image.
You have to contribute not only to the debate. Although, you have declared that you do not belong to any party so far as conducting business is concerned, yes, it is the concept.
I once again extend my hearty congratulations to you for getting elected as Speaker of the XII Legislative Assembly. Lastly, I would like to conclude by saying that we look upon you with a lot of hope and expectation. I would say that you are the hope and aspiration for the young politicians. You are the aspiration for young legislators. We come to the House with a lot of hope and expectation that we will get ample chances very differently and we also look upon you as a bridge between the young and the senior leaders. I hope that you give us all the support and guidance and also at times be lenient if we commit any mistake. I thank you very much for giving me this opportunity.

My only request to all of you is kindly be brief.

I once again would like to congratulate and compliment the Leader of the House, the Leader of the Opposition and Members of all Political Parties for electing the most efficient, educated, unbiased and impartial Member as the Speaker of this august House.

MR. SPEAKER : I would like to appeal to the Hon'ble Members to be brief in their addresses in response to Governor's Address. Now, I will ask Sri Gade Venktata Reddy Garu to show the way as to how one should be brief in his remarks.

He is sportive not only in sports but also in real life. That is the greatest qualification of Suresh Reddy garu. I really appreciate him and congratulate him wholeheartedly to acquire great success in his new post.

I had the opportunity to be a Member of that House. Then the Telangana movement was at its peak.
It is left to the discretion of the Speaker to resign to the Party and set an example that Speaker is above Parties.

SRI D. SRIDHAR BABU (Mantheni): Sir, it is a great honour to congratulate you on the occasion of your unanimous election as Hon’ble Speaker of this Legislative Assembly. This is a great privilege to address on this occasion, basically because this chair was also occupied by my father Late Sri D. Sripada Rao.

At the outset, I would like to congratulate our Leader of the House, Dr. Y.S. Rajasekhara Reddy, who proposed a young leader and also I would like to thank the Leader of the Opposition and other leaders of other political parties, who have proposed your name. On behalf of our young M.L.A., brigade we thank all the leaders who have chosen you and hope that definitely you will use this opportunity and prove yourself as a Speaker of a new millennium.

I had a great privilege of working and associating myself with you. In the year 1999 you acted as Whip of Congress Legislature Party and as a young M.L.A. I used to request you for a chance to address in this Assembly and every time I used to get an opportunity because your goodself was magnanimous enough to provide me an opportunity at least during passing of Government Bills.

Secondly, I associated myself with your goodself during the study tour to six nations. In that tour, you as a team leader was so enthusiastic and provided all the leadership required during the visit to six nations. As a District Congress President when you have been appointed as a Coordinator from P.C.C., you have given all the morale and support to us, which has proven good to our party too. On these occasions, I had a great opportunity to work with your goodself. On behalf of all young M.L.A.s, we have total confidence in you. The Leader of the House, while proposing your name said that you are a good cricket player. I feel that definitely you will be a good umpire and I hope that no third umpire will never be required. Thank you.
I would like to compliment you on your election as the Speaker of the 12th Legislative Assembly. I would like to associate myself with the sentiments expressed by all these speakers from both sides of the House. What prompted me to speak today was a remark made by a Journalist yesterday - a T.V. Journalist who said that with Sri Suresh Reddy becoming the Speaker, we will miss all his good speeches. To address you as 'Speaker Sir' - younger to me in age - I feel proud because you have proved yourself to be a good legislator.
We are now entering into new millennium. You are a young man. The whole House supported you irrespective of the party affiliations.

Respected Chief Minister and Leader of the House Dr. Y.S.Rajasekhara Reddy garu, distinguished Opposition Leader Sri Nara Chandrababu Naidu garu, leader of TRS Dr. G. Vijayarama Rao garu, leader of CPM Sri Nomula Narasimhaiah garu, leader of CPI Sri Venkata Reddy garu, leader of MIM Sri Akbaruddin Owaisi garu, BJP Leader Sri G.Kishan Reddy garu, CPI ML Member Sri Gummadi Narasaiah garu, BSP Leader Sri N. Raja Rao garu, SP Member Smt. D. Aruna, Janata Member Sri K.Ramulu garu and Hon’ble Members, let me first place on record my deep sense of gratitude to all of you for electing me unanimously to the highest office of the Speaker. I am very much grateful to each and every Member of this august House for entrusting me the honour of responsibility of Speaker-ship with great trust and tremendous confidence on me. I am really overwhelmed with joy for the love and affection bestowed upon me by every section of the House. I swear to keep up the trust and confidence shown on me by the entire House both by word and the spirit. I strongly feel that electing a Member as Speaker is the highest honour that a House can confer on any Member. I am delighted to have been selected for this honour by all of you unitedly. Till a few minutes back, I belonged to a particular political party. But now I belong to the entire House.

Irrespective of political affiliations each and every Member of the House is very dear and near to me. Rules and conventions will be followed judiciously in a non-partisan manner. Manners of decorum and decency shall be our priority. I will endeavour to render justice to all the Members with equal treatment and balance on merits.

Prior to me this House was presided over by men of wisdom, character and dynamism like Sri Ayyadevara Kaleshwar Rao garu and Sri B.V.Subba Reddy garu and so on. I will uphold all the healthy democratic traditions and the conventions established by my predecessors for which I need your fullest co-operation and good-will at every moment for successful conduct of the business in an orderly disciplined manner.

We all must remember that we have been elected to this august House at a crucial moment in the history of our State. Thousands of small and marginal farmers and millions of common-men are looking at us with tears in their eyes and lot of hopes in their hearts. We all must keep in our mind that it is our fundamental responsibility to strive to wipe out those tears by all possible means. Whatever be the political affiliations and ideological commitments, we all must strive together to echo their problems with meaningful dialogue followed by reasonable solutions. Otherwise, history will never forgive us. Whether we are in Opposition or in Treasury Benches we should stand united for any genuine public cause and reflect the aspirations of common people in a decent and desired manner.

I expect that this House will witness some historical and eventful discussions as we are having a large number of well experienced members and veteran legislators with us. Fortunately our present Leader of the House Dr. Y.S.Rajasekhar Reddy garu was the Leader of Opposition in the previous House. He can understand better the demands of Opposition and the pulse of the public and anyone else can respond with right perspective. Similarly, the present Opposition Leader Sri N. Chandrababu Naidu garu was having the longest serving record as Chief Minister. He knows his limitations of the Government and the Treasury Benches. I hope this combination will serve the State better and enhance the decorum of the House, a meaningful discussion and purposeful debate. The present composition of the House is also evenly balanced with more than half of the legislators being experienced and 138 members new to the Legislative Body. The blood of old and new will definitely make the proceedings of the House most pleasant and lively.

We must not debate just for the cause of a debate. It must be fruitful for the public cause. I am confident that every Member of the House will make the fullest efforts to enrich prestige of the House by debating and discussing the public issues in an orderly manner like the true disciplined solidiers of democracy. I promise that as stated by Ananthasayanam Ayyangar, one of the greatest figures of the Lok Sabha, I will not let down the prestige of this House or that of any Member. I will stand by all the privileges that are legitimately due to the Members. I will try to maintain the decorum of the House and I hope that I will be able to do so with your co-operation. But to err is human. If I commit any mistake in conducting the House, I kindly request you to take it in a broader way and bring it to my notice so that I could correct myself. I never agitate to approach the seniors for conducting House with decency and decorum and to enhance the prestige of the House. I am really fortunate to have the senior-most Members like Sri P. Shambasiva Raju garu, Sri Gade Venkata Reddy garu and Sri Ch. Rajeshwara Rao garu. The men of enviable knowledge of Parliamentary Procedures and Practices and uprightness are available to me for guidance and consultation.
During the course of felicitation, the Hon'ble Chief Minister observed that I am a very young Speaker. I can only say that I may look young, but I am not really young as I am in mid-forties. Probably it is my mother who gave birth to such a wonderful child. Regarding the Umpire, he has also mentioned that I am a very good Umpire. I assure the House that definitely there would not be any need for the third Umpire. The House will definitely run in the way it should run. The Opposition Leader Sri Nara Chandrababu Naidu garu definitely I will look towards you. My profile when I look towards the left will be better. Sri Vijayarama Rao garu definitely they will get opportunity as and when need comes.

Let us incorporate what is needed to make this Legislature more effective to meet the needs of the people. I would like to see more walk-ins than more walk-outs. I expect good attendance also from all the Members and finally I trust and hope that all the Hon'ble Members will extend their fullest co-operation in true spirit of democracy for effective functioning of the House.

I once again express my sincere thanks for all the Hon'ble Members of this august House for electing me as Speaker unanimously.

Thank you all.
