Reference regarding the sudden death of Shri M. Sreenivasa Rao, Assistant Secretary, Legislative Assembly.

Mr. Speaker: I am extremely sorry to inform the House that Shri M. Sreenivasa Rao, Assistant Secretary of the Legislative Assembly expired suddenly this morning. He had gone to his friend's house in the morning as that friend had lost his father. While reading a newspaper there, he suddenly collapsed in the chair. He was immediately removed to the hospital and there the Doctors after examining came to the conclusion that his death was due to heart failure. He was very hardworking, very intelligent, very efficient and always willing to work. He also helped a great deal in connection with the questions raised in the Assembly. I greatly appreciate his work.

Shri V. D. Deshpande: On behalf of the M. L. As., permit me, Sir, to express my condolences at the sudden demise of Shri Srinivasa Rao. We were all in contact with him and his nature was so amiable and so friendly that we remember him very much now. It was a shock to us to hear the sad news this morning and with heavy heart we have come to the House and we very much feel his absence. I offer my condolences to the members of the bereaved family.

Mr. Speaker: The next item on the agenda is discussion on the motion moved by Shri Sripadrao Nivasekar.
Dr. Chenna Reddy: Yesterday, you wanted to decide the timings of the House.

Mr. Speaker: Shri Deshpande, I think you will agree that the House should meet from 8-30 to 1-30 p.m.

Discussion on the Motion of Thanks, to the Address of Rajpramukh.

4th March, 1953.

Mr. Mills

I wish to make some comments on the Address of Rajpramukh. To begin with, the Address is well received and the proposals made in it are worth consideration.

The Address speaks of the importance of constructive work, cottage industries, leather works, weaving, and spinning. These are all areas where substantial progress can be made.

Moreover, the Address mentions the need for industrial centres, Pottery, Handicraft Boards, Detenus, and Welfare. These areas require special attention.

In conclusion, the Address is a great achievement and I believe it will have a positive impact on the country.

Thank you.
