“We have been saying that the issue was whether the people wanted the Congress to come again to power and whether they should continue in office. There were independent candidates, communist candidates and there were other parties which fought the elections and stood against the Congress candidates and in all these cases what was the thing that was put before the electorate? Come to my constituency or any neighbouring one or take out any constituency at random. What was the issue that was placed before them? Ask the peasant, ask the worker, ask the clerk and ask the liberal-minded man. To every one of them the issue was dear and that was whether the Congress should continue in office or not, and there was no denying it, and the result showed beyond doubt that Congress rule was not wanted. Take the results in my own Telugu districts;”

“Out of 143 seats only about 40 people were returned on Congress ticket. The issue was there and the answer is there for all to see, but the Hon. Chief Minister wants to give us tests of his mathematical knowledge and says that no party has got an absolute majority, in fact other parties got fewer votes than the Congress and therefore, the people wanted the Congress to continue in power and run the government of the State. Sir, we can also create some problems in mathematical jugglery, but I wish to submit that politics are not decided by mere arithmetical jugglery.”

“And therefore, constitutionally and politically, we were right in assuming that in the General Elections in the State, the people gave the verdict that they did not want the Congress Party to continue in office.”

“The electorate understood that all who were returned on the non-Congress ticket either as a single party or in combination with others should take over the administration of the State from the hands of the Congress. That was the simple verdict given and we had to meet together and we met on February 12th, a day after the election programme was completed.”

“Who is an opportunist? They are opportunists who have no leanings towards the creed of the party in power, who had fought it in elections, but who at the same time have joined it when it came to power, on a request sent round by the Chief Minister to get people somehow to join his party as associate members.” (Applause)

DISCUSSION ON THE GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS

26th November 1953] [Sri K. Govinda Rao]

The recent address of the Governor has generated a lot of interest and response. The Governor, in his address, highlighted the importance of education and the need for its expansion. He also emphasized the role of local self-governments in the development of the state.

In his response, Sri K. Govinda Rao, a prominent local M.L.A., echoed the Governor's sentiments and emphasized the need for local self-governments to be more responsive to the needs of the people. He also highlighted the need for a more inclusive approach to development, which should not only benefit the urban areas but also the rural regions.

Rao further advocated for the need to focus on rural development, emphasizing the importance of education and health in rural areas. He also called for a stronger role for local self-governments in the implementation of government policies.

The Governor's address was well-received, and the response from Sri K. Govinda Rao and other members of the Assembly was positive. The discussion highlighted the need for a more collaborative approach to development, where the state and the local self-governments work together for the betterment of the people.
SRI G. NAGABHUSHANAM:—Mr. Deputy Speaker, Sir, I thank you very much for giving me an opportunity to speak on this occasion. I support the motion of thanks moved by Sri Audinarayana Reddi. Sir, I must thank the Andhra Government for the benefit conferred by them in my constituency, the Rayadrug taluk, which was formerly in Bellary district but now transferred and brought within the jurisdiction of Anantapur district. The Andhra State Government have ordered extension of electricity to several villages in my constituency. That has proved very useful in helping the villagers to raise food and improving their economic condition. Japan has made considerable progress in this direction on account of extension of electricity. It has been borne out by the experts who went to Japan and recently returned from there. They have made mention of it in their report submitted to Government; and they have declared that Japan has attained a high degree of progress on account of extension of electricity to rural areas. In the same manner the Andhra State Government have done with regard to the Rayadrug taluk.

With reference to the weavers of Rayadrug taluk, they have been carrying on sari production for several generations. The saris are partly made of cotton yarn, silk yarn and lace yarn; and they are costly ones. For the last more than one year there is severe unemployment, as the saris manufactured are not sold and the stocks have been increasing daily. I may also state that the weaving industry prevails in other parts of this State and the same unemployment is persisting, which is not a thing peculiar to Rayadrug taluk alone. As silk saris manufactured by weavers are not being sold, a large stock of goods is stocked in every house with the result that there is severe unemployment and suffering. I submitted a memorandum to the Andhra State Government very recently, and I am very glad to say that the Anantapur district authorities have undertaken investigation into the matter. I am glad to note that they are trying to do what is possible under the circumstances. It is not possible to take immediate steps to remove unemployment and afford complete relief but I am glad to note that steps are being taken in that direction to improve the miserable lot of the weavers.

So far as the weavers' problem is concerned, it is a thing which has been before the country for the last two years. I respectfully ask what the members of the Opposition have done to alleviate the sufferings of the weavers or what practical steps they have suggested to the Government. I submit that so far they have not submitted any practical suggestions to solve that problem except what has been suggested by Sri C. Rajagopalachari. Sri Rajagopalachari's suggestion has come to stay; and no one else till this day has come forward with any practical solution. He, with his wonderful imagination, (Opposition laughter) has come forward with the suggestion that coloured saris and dhotis must be reserved for the weavers. My friends on the other side laugh. I do not think any of my friends on the other side have made any practical suggestion either in public or in the Press to solve this problem of weavers. On the other hand, the Bombay Government, after Sri Rajagopalachari has made his suggestion, passed a resolution ratifying his suggestion. Sri J. C. Kumarappa, the great authority on rural economics has also supported this suggestion. Therefore, I say to my friends it is all easy to attack Government and say that this thing was not done, or that thing was not done. My friends are very fond of attacking others without realising their weakness. Let me take this opportunity of bringing home to them the basic principle of Hindu Dharma, "Know thyself before you point out the weakness in others. If you are only perfect, then point out the weakness in others." The Opposition want freedom of speech for themselves but they are not willing to give that freedom of speech to others. I am now reading from the Constitution of India. It has been framed four years ago by our great thinkers, politicians and statesmen. This Constitution of India has been accepted by great jurists in the world, as well as by others, as one of the great achievements after attainment of freedom. The aim of the Government is to secure to all its citizens:

"JUSTICE, Social, economic and political;

LIBERTY of thought, expression, belief, faith and worship;

EQUALITY of status and of opportunity; and to promote among them all FRATERNITY assuring the dignity of the individual and the unity of the Nation."

This is the aim of our Government in India. May I ask my friends who are sitting on the opposite side what the Constitution of Soviet Russia is? I sent a requisition to the Legislature Library here in Kurnool but I am told no book on that subject is available. I may tell my friends that in Russia there is only one party that carries on the Government, and no other party has got any voice to state the needs of the Russian people. I ask, Sir, where is freedom of speech in Russia? I ask my friends to consider carefully what kind of State is that. I submit, Sir, it is a totalitarian State, in which there is no freedom of thought, or freedom of expression or freedom of worship. But here, in India, we stand for freedom of thought, expression and worship, and it is also a secular State.

Sri K. RAJAGOPALA RAO:—On a point of order, Sir,

Sri G. NAGABHUSHANAM:—I submit to my esteemed friends that if they think that I am talking of the constitutions of other countries without understanding them, then it is a mistaken idea, for which I cannot be held responsible. (Opposition cries of Oh!) I cannot understand why my friends are very sensitive when anything is said about Soviet Russia. If they believe in freedom of speech let them not interrupt me; but, on the other hand, allow me to have the same freedom of speech which they enjoy. I appeal to them to have patience, to allow other members to have their say. Let them practise patience and show tolerance to others. Let them not think that we are all a set of bad people to exploit this country. It is because there is liberty and freedom of expression in this country that my friends are here. Sir, I know my friends will heckle me and will not allow me to speak. If they do so, they are misusing their right of freedom of expression given to them under the Constitution.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—Sir, on a point of order. Freedom of expression as misuse నిలుసరం కే అసలువు, Speaker కే భారత కే మిస్యూ కే అల్లె నిలుసరం కే అసలువు లాంటి చట్టానికి కంపు సమాధానం నిలుసరం కే అసలువు. మాత్రం నిలుసరం కే అసలువు వచ్చే తరువాత వైపు వచ్చే తరువాత వచ్చే తరువాత. స్రీ పిల్లామార్రి వెంకటేశేవరు పతం కే అసలు కే అసలు బిలిండ్ వచ్చే తరువాత వచ్చే తరువాత.

Sri G. NAGABHUSHANAM:— Mr. Deputy Speaker, Sir, the fact that a large number of Members from the Opposition side are raising points of order and preventing me, if I may be permitted to say so, from speaking, is itself proof positive that I should not speak anything about Communism. While they are permitted to speak anything they like about the Congress, they will not allow other members to speak about Communism in Russia. I shall say here what the Congress has achieved, within a short time of six years. It has achieved great unity in India. Mr. Lincoln took 13 years to bring about unity in America after big wars; Mr. Bismark took 18 years to effect unity in Germany; our Sardar Patel took only one year and eleven months to create a united India by non-violent methods. He has liquidated 520 Native Princes in such a short time. We have now a united India under one flag, one railway and with one post office and currency. I say this, because it seems there is a mistaken impression that Congress has not achieved anything for India. Further, the Congress Government has taken up the Damodar Valley Project and several other projects and most of them are about to be completed. In its greatness, Damodar Valley Project stands next to the Tennessee Valley Scheme. We have spent 36 crores for Tungabhadra and completed the Bhawani Reservoir Scheme and the Malampuzha Project; and we have several such projects on hand. So, we have not misused money; on the other hand, every effort has been made to promote the welfare of India.

Coming to our Andhra State, the Government could not do much due to several adverse circumstances, and particularly because of the short time at their disposal. No Government can carry out any scheme in a short time, unless they have the material ready on hand. No Government can carry on without proper records and other conveniences. Naturally it is these impediments that are obstructing progress. Thank you, Sir.

The right of nominating candidates belongs to the Communist party organisations, to the Trade Unions, to the co-operatives, to organisations of youth and to other legally registered organisations of the workers, i.e., to organisations under strict party control. The nomination of candidates takes place in open meetings. Each nominee has to pass an electoral commission before becoming a candidate. For each constituency one candidate is appointed. The nomination of an alternative candidate is not forbidden, but it is not practised. Thus the election turns entirely upon the right of nomination."
