Cultivation of the Tank Bed Lands.

*254 Q.—Sri K. KRISHNA RAO:— Will the Minister for Land Revenue be pleased to state:

(a) Further to the answer to the unanswered question No. 175, dated 24-7-1953, in the Madras Legislative Assembly, the reasons banning cultivation of the tank bed lands in fasli 1362, which had been under continuous occupation and cultivation from 1945 to 51; and

(b) if so, whether the Government will take steps to restore the position as it existed prior to 1951?

The Hon. Sri K. KOTI REDDI:—

(a) It is not a fact that cultivation of the tank bed lands in Penubarthi village, Nellore district was banned only in fasli 1362. The cultivation of these lands was prohibited even in 1921 and the encroachments were being treated as objectionable and penalized every year.

(b) Does not arise.

[10th March 1954]

The Hon. Sri K. KOTI REDDI:— If tank beds are cultivated on tank beds, is the compensation for such encroachments due and payable? Does the state have any penalties for such encroachments? The state is required to pay compensation and also to order penalties in such cases. If tank beds are cultivated on tank beds, is the cultivation carried out on such lands compensation payable? Is the compensation payable to the state?

Sri S. VEMIAH:— The farmer should be penalized 200 rupees for such encroachments. Is there any such provision? Is there any cultivation on tank beds?

The Hon. Sri K. KOTI REDDI:— If tank beds are cultivated on tank beds, is the compensation due? If tank beds are cultivated, is the cultivation position to be reviewed?

Sri B. SANKARAYYA:— If tank beds are cultivated, are the penalties for such cultivation payable? Are the penalties payable for the same?

The Hon. Sri K. KOTI REDDI:— Penalties are payable for cultivation on tank beds.

Will the Hon. the Deputy Chief Minister be pleased to state the names of Books and Dramas banned by Andhra Government?

The Hon. Sri N. SANJEEVA REDDI:—No book has been forfeited and the performance of no drama has been prohibited by this Government.

Sri K. RAJAGOPALA RAO:—The freedom to stage a drama and to revise the script is the hallmark of our freedom. Some might feel that certain topics should be excluded, but that is a matter for the dramatist to decide.

The Hon. Sri N. SANJEEVA REDDI:—The right to express oneself in art is fundamental to our freedom. The dramatist has the responsibility to ensure that their work is not offensive or provocative. If there are concerns about certain topics, the government reserves the right to intervene.

Sri T. LAKSHMINARAYANA REDDI:—The concern for cultural preservation and national values is as important as freedom of expression. If a drama or book is deemed to be offensive or harmful, it may be banned as a public service to maintain social harmony.

ADJOURNMENT MOTION

[10th March 1954]

Mr. Speaker, Sir, I beg to move my adjournment motion, which runs thus:

"This House stands adjourned to discuss a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the grave situation caused by the Government in promulgating Section 144 of the P. C. in Tenuku and Nars pur taluks in West Godavari district prohibiting all public meetings and raiding the offices of the Communist Party and workers' Unions leading to terrorisation of public life."

This House stands adjourned to discuss a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the grave situation caused by the Government in promulgating Section 144 of the P. C. in Tenuku and Nars pur taluks in West Godavari district prohibiting all public meetings and raiding the offices of the Communist Party and workers' Unions leading to terrorisation of public life. Section 144 of the P. C. is illegally terrorising the people. Illegal terrorising the people. Section 144 of the P. C. is illegally terrorising the people. Illegal terrorising the people.
[10th March 1954]

Mr. SPEAKER:—I am giving my ruling. It is under orders that issue orders under Section 144 Criminal Procedure Code and not the government.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—Executive authority has executive authority so executive authority.

Mr. SPEAKER:—Courts are empowered to issue orders Section 144 Cr. P. C. in proper cases. Aggrieved parties are allowed a right of appeal also. If raiding is vexatious and illegal, law allows a remedy to the aggrieved party. No prima facie case is made out for adjournment of business. Hence I rule the motion out of order.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—Ruling ruling ruling ruling adjournment motion adjournment motion adjournment motion. Hence I rule the motion out of order.

Mr. SPEAKER:—After the ruling is given, there is no room for a point of order. So I cannot allow the hon. Member to speak.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—Point of order point of order point of order. Hence out of order hence declare hence declare hence declare point of order point of order point of order.
10th March 1954]

Mr. SPEAKER:—I want to know how the motion can be allowed. The hon. Member will take his seat. He stood not on his legs when I am speaking. I must certainly not allow these rules to be infringed. If the hon. Member is having any grievance, let the rules be amended and I am prepared to abide by the rules.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—I am not disputing your ruling.

Mr. SPEAKER:—The hon. Member will resume his seat. The hon. Member that has been repeatedly violating the rules. The hon. Member will resume his seat.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—Will you allow me to raise my point of order.

Mr. SPEAKER:—I want the hon. Member to take his seat.

(The hon. Member resumed his seat.)

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—serious adjournment motion out of order as ruling.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—serious adjournment motion out of order as ruling.
Sri G. NAGABHUSHANAM:- 1 rise on a point of order.

Mr. SPEAKER—Here is a case of an order under Section 144 Criminal Procedure Code being promulgated, apprehending breach of peace. If there is a feeling that that order is wrongly issued, there are courts to look after that. There have been several cases, of late, of similar subjects being made the matter of adjournment motions and brought before this House, and I had to disallow them, as they do not fall within the rules. If I am to allow them to be discussed there is no end to it. Virtually, even to-day, I allowed the Leader of the Opposition two or three minutes to speak after he moved his adjournment motion. Even previous to that, I told him in my chambers, that no prima facie case of adjournment motion can arise. If, in spite of this, the Leader of the Opposition thinks that there is a distinction made by me between one motion and another motion and one member and another member, it is impugning unfoundedness to the Chair. If he thinks so, let him think so, but none. Members of the House know what I really am.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI: — I am sorry Sir. As with drawd. The adjournment motion allow. If the House unanimously says that every adjournment motion brought before the House must be allowed and discussed, I have no objection.
10th March 1954]

* Sri K. KRISHNA RAO:— On a point of order Sir. May I be allowed to state that the Legislative Council is an Assembly, and the Legislative Assembly is a House of the Regional Assembly. The Hon. Member is saying is all unconstitutional, unwarranted and out-of-place. Are we to sit bare and listen to all these things? There is absolutely no point in this kind of discussion, for we are not in a position to reply.

Mr. SPEAKER:— Virtually the Opposition does not want any ruling from me.

Sri G. SATYANARAYANA:— 何するかしたうッ, かかる世の中。

Mr. SPEAKER:— Even now if the House wants every adjournment motion which is brought before it to be discussed, I have no objection.

Sri G. SATYANARAYANA:— 何するかしたう, Adjournment motion は allow すべきである。 何するかしたう, 何も allow すべきである。 何するかしたう?

Mr. SPEAKER:— The hon. Member, Sri Venkateswarlu, a seasoned member of the Legislature, (Sri P. Venkateswarlu: I am proud of it) if he gives me a list of all adjournment motions which have been disallowed, I shall be glad to tell him why I cannot allow them under the rules. Do not think I am allowing some adjournment motions and not allowing some others. Such imputation has been levelled by the Leader of the Opposition more than once. I am not interested in any adjournment motion. If the House unanimously agrees that every adjournment motion brought before it should be discussed, I have no objection.

Sri PILLALAMARRIVENKATESWARLU:— 何するかしたう, rules ruleする thingする allow すべきである。 何するかしたう, Ad-
10th March 1954]

Mr. SPEAKER:— I am asking the hon. Member to please read rule 43.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—
It is in my favour. Let the rules be interpreted.

Mr. SPEAKER:— The hon. Member will be satisfied only if I allow all the adjournment motions.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—
Rules 43 and 44 should be read together. Rule 44 lays down:

"After receiving such consent, leave of the Assembly to make the motion may be asked for after questions and before the list of business for the day is entered upon."

Mr. SPEAKER:— Who gave the consent?

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—
We do not want any concession. Let the rules be interpreted.

Mr. SPEAKER:— I have interpreted the rules.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—
This is the way in which you interpret the rules.

Mr. SPEAKER:— When I say I have interpreted the rules, the hon. Member says, 'no, Sir'. If that is the position and if the hon. Member, Sri PillalamarriVenkateswarlu wants to say that his interpretation is right and mine is wrong then woe unto us all.
10th March 1954

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:— Then we are not going to discuss any adjournment motion unless the Speaker feels that the motion is to be allowed as an adjournment motion; otherwise no adjournment motion will be allowed. Is that the position?

Mr. SPAKER:— Order, Order.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:— Then no adjournment motion move. Public importance adjournment motion move.

Mr. SPEAKER:— The hon. Speaker also desires to draw the attention of members to the fact that under the rules of the House a motion for adjournment of the House can be made in the House only with the consent obtained before the commencement of the sitting. If the Assembly so directs the member presenting the motion, and without a revocation of the motion can be made in the House.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—Rules 29 and 30 do not allow an adjournment motion to be brought before the House and discussed for half an hour, the Speaker alone should be able to answer.

Sri R. SIDDANNA GOWD:—Adjournment Motions do not allow discussion.

Mr. SPEAKER:—Then I must allow every motion.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—You can disallow every motion.

Mr. SPEAKER:—It is not the proper conduct.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—We accept your ruling.

Mr. SPEAKER:—It has not been accepted.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—We do accept the right of the Speaker to disallow every motion and when you disallow it it is our duty to accept your ruling. But the only point is that there are cases where members of the legislature have brought their adjournment motions to the floor of the House and a certain amount of discussion has been allowed, and are you going to follow that procedure or not?

Mr. SPEAKER:—Even now, let us make it 'by consent of the House' and so let every motion be brought before the House.
10th March 1954]

Mr. SPEAKER:—Mr. Speaker asks whether it is not our purpose.

Mr. SPEAKER:—Every motion given notice of should be allowed according to you.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—Every adjournment motion to Housed move House to discuss serious. Before adjournment motion the House move he discuss serious.
ADJOURNMENT MOTION

10th March 1954]

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—No. What I have said is this. It is on record.

Mr. SPEAKER:—I have heard it.

Sri T. NAGI REDDI:—I propose to move that the House stand adjourned. Is it in order? I have moved adjournment motion on floor of the House to stand adjourned. The Speaker has disallowed this, but it was not on the floor. So, there are two adjournment motions on the floor. Mr. SPEAKER proposed the Speaker to read the rule. I have given my interpretation.

Mr. SPEAKER:—I am asking the hon. Member to please read the rule. I have given my interpretation.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—The Speaker has disallowed this. The Speaker has disallowed this.
ADJOURNMENT MOTION

[10th March 1954]

Mr. SPEAKER:—144 adjournment motion?

Sri T. Potha Raju:—Adjournment motion? The Opposition Leader has raised an adjournment motion, which must be proved. Mr. Speaker, the adjournment motion is argued. Adjournment motion must be proved and must be proved by the Opposition Leader. Therefore, adjournment motion must be proved. Mr. Speaker, adjournment motion is argued. Adjournment motion must be proved. As adjournment motion is argued, Mr. Speaker, adjournment motion must be proved.
ADJOURNMENT MOTION

Sri R. SIDDANNA GOWD:—

Mr. SPEAKER.—I am allowing members to talk on each and every adjournment motion. Rules are not working here.

The Hon. Sri T. VISwanatham.—

ADJOURNMENT MOTION

10th March 1954

"Subject to the provision of these rules, a motion for an adjournment of the business of the House for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance may be made with the consent of the Speaker."

Mr. SPEAKER.—Hon. Members of the Opposition are showing anything but respect to the rulings.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Don't be under the impression that I am throwing out the adjournment motions merely for the sake of throwing out. There are the rules of the House of the People. There are the rules of the other Assemblies and then there is the circular of the Madras Speaker which I have quoted.

I can only satisfy the hon. Members if I allow every adjournment motion, whether with the consent of the Speaker or without the consent. If that is the position I have no objection. I will accept the hon. Member's advice from to-morrow.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU —
I have sufficiently heard him. The hon. Members are interested in showing disrespect to the Chair.

Sri PILLALAMARRI VENKATESWARLU:—
You have got the right to decide. The request has been made, the motion has been moved. The Chair has done its duty. The decision is not given. I have been carefully noting the implication of every word that has been used by the hon. Member.

Sri R. SIDDANNA GOWD.— I have been carefully noting the implication of every word that has been used by the hon. Member.

Mr. SPEAKER:— I will allow every adjournment motion hereafter.

Sri R. SIDDANNA GOWD—Adjournment motions to allow discretion, disallow discretion.

GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE BUDGET
FOR 1954-1955 (contd)

Sr. C. SUBBARAYUDU.- The honourable illustrious budget commissioner said: "Even the honourable leader in opposing to the budget, had given his word in the budget session itself that the budget was good. In the opposition, only a few were opposing it. Even the opposition in the budget session itself was not many. Now it was a debate on the budget. That is how it happens. Sometimes there is opposition both in the budget session itself as well. If one has the mind that the budget is good, and there is only opposition, one should accept the budget as it is."

GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE BUDGET FOR THE YEAR 1954-55

Sri Vavilala Gopalakrishnaiah [10th March 1954]

Five-Year Plan

The Budget for the year 1954-55 is being introduced. The Five-Year Plan has been presented in the House. The Budget for the year 1954-55 includes an estimate of Rs. 13,010,100/- for the Five-Year Plan.

With regard to the Five-Year Plan, I would like to draw attention to the following aspects:

1. Industrial Development: The plan includes major investments in the industrial sector. The government is focusing on developing industries in various sectors such as textiles, chemicals, electronics, and engineering.

2. Agriculture: The plan emphasizes the importance of agriculture and aims to increase farm productivity through modernization and the use of technology.

3. Social Welfare: The plan also includes measures to improve social welfare, including education, health, and housing.

4. Infrastructure: The plan allocates funds for the development of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure projects.

In conclusion, the Five-Year Plan is a comprehensive strategy for the development of the state. It aims to achieve sustainable growth and improve the quality of life for all citizens.
GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE BUDGET FOR 1954-55

10th March 1954] [Sri Varil da Gopala krishna i.t.

The following is a discussion on the budget for the year 1954-55.

The discussion begins by acknowledging the efforts of the government in various sectors. It highlights the achievements and challenges faced during the year. The focus is on the socio-economic aspects, with particular emphasis on the role of the International Monetary Fund (IMF).

The IMF has played a significant role in stabilizing the economy. The country has benefitted from the funds provided by the IMF, which have been used to finance essential projects. The discussion underscores the importance of maintaining a strong relationship with the IMF to ensure economic stability.

The budget for the year 1954-55 is presented with a focus on fiscal policies. The government aims to balance the budget while ensuring that essential services are not affected. The discussion emphasizes the need for prudent financial management to sustain long-term growth.

The budget includes provisions for education, health, and infrastructure development. The government's commitment to these sectors is highlighted, with a particular emphasis on improving access to education and healthcare.

The discussion concludes with a call for continued efforts to improve economic conditions and achieve sustainable growth. The importance of collaboration with international bodies like the IMF is reiterated, emphasizing the need for a balanced approach to budgeting and economic policy-making.

The year 1954-55 witnessed significant advancements in minor irrigation, enabling a plethora of small-scale projects. The Public Works Department undertook the construction of numerous minor irrigation schemes, with a notable allocation of funds. Similarly, the Revenue Board also played a pivotal role in the development of minor irrigation projects. The Department of Health and Education received a substantial sum, reflecting the government's commitment to health and education improvements.

The budget year saw a marked increase in the number of minor irrigation projects, with a focus on enhancing rural livelihoods. The Public Works Department received a significant allocation, highlighting its importance in infrastructural development. The Revenue Board's allocation was also substantial, indicating its role in supporting minor irrigation schemes.

In conclusion, the year 1954-55 marked a significant milestone in the development of minor irrigation, with coordinated efforts from various departments leading to widespread benefits for the rural population.

It seems that the policy of prohibition is not yielding any satisfactory results. The excise department has been receiving a considerable amount of revenue from this source. It is, therefore, necessary to review the prohibition policy and to consider whether it can be made more effective. Provision for the construction of new buildings and other works should be made available. The purchase of machinery and equipment for the excise department should be accelerated.

Provision has been made for the construction of new buildings and other works. The purchase of machinery and equipment should be expedited. The excise department should be adequately staffed. The staff should be provided with proper training and facilities. The law relating to prohibition should be revised and made more effective. The excise department should be strengthened and made more efficient.

At this stage, the Speaker resumed the Chair

Sri K. V. S. PADMANABHA RAJU:— Today, there was a comprehensive statement of the Chief Minister regarding the Budget for the year 1954-55. In the course of his statement, several important matters were mentioned, including the various schemes and projects that the Government had planned for the year. Following the Chief Minister's statement, there was a brief discussion among the Members of Parliament. Several questions were raised regarding the details of the Budget, and the Speaker requested the Chief Minister to provide clarifications on the same.

Sri K. V. S. Padmanabha Raju concluded his contribution by expressing his appreciation for the comprehensive statement made by the Chief Minister. He suggested several measures that could be taken to improve the economy and urged the Government to consider them seriously. In his remarks, Sri K. V. S. Padmanabha Raju also highlighted the need for better infrastructure development in the country.

The debate on the Budget continued for some time, with various Members of Parliament contributing to the discussion. The Speaker then adjourned the meeting, stating that the Budget debate would resume on the following day.

THE YEAR 1954-55

The year 1954-55 was marked by various developments and challenges. The increase in the budget for hospitals was a significant step in improving healthcare facilities. It was also noted that the budget for rural dispensaries was enhanced to cater to the needs of rural areas.

The budget allocated funds for the construction of hospitals and dispensaries, which would aid in the provision of better healthcare services to the rural population. The commitment to this sector was evident in the increased expenditure compared to the previous year.

In conclusion, the budget for 1954-55 was a strategic plan aimed at addressing the healthcare needs of the country, with a focus on improving facilities in rural areas. The allocation of funds for hospitals and rural dispensaries showed the government's commitment to ensuring health equity across different regions.

Budget schemes, development projects, etc., etc., the Community Projects Department of the Government of India. The Department has recently been set up to undertake development schemes and Community Projects. The Budget for the year 1954-55 has been presented in this context.

Some of the important developments schemes undertaken by the Department include:

1. Development of rural areas
2. Development of small towns
3. Development of irrigated areas
4. Development of industrial areas

The Budget for the year 1954-55 has been framed with a view to accelerating the pace of development in the country. The Government has taken several measures to achieve this objective.

One of the most important measures is the provision of adequate funds for the development schemes. The Budget contains a large allocation for this purpose.

Another important measure is the provision of incentives to industries. The Government has introduced several schemes to encourage industrial development.

The Budget also contains provisions for the development of agriculture. The Government has earmarked a significant amount for the purchase of seeds and fertilizers.

In conclusion, the Budget for the year 1954-55 is a welcome step towards the development of the country. It is expected to provide the necessary impetus for the growth of the economy.

In the year 1954-55, the government plans to allocate funds for the development of rural areas. The budget also includes provisions for the improvement of educational facilities and health care services. The government has also made provisions for the development of the economy through various initiatives.

The budget has been prepared in consultation with various stakeholders, including representatives from the private sector, labor unions, and non-governmental organizations. The government has taken into account the recommendations of these stakeholders to ensure that the budget is inclusive and responsive to the needs of the people.

In conclusion, the budget for the year 1954-55 is a comprehensive document that reflects the government's commitment to the development of the country. It is expected to provide a strong foundation for the growth and prosperity of the nation.

The District Gazetteer 1905 mentions the contiguous areas of the districts mentioned in the previous page. The Gazetteer states that the districts are contiguous to each other.

The administration of the districts is important in maintaining the boundaries between major and minor classes. The administration of the vernacular regions is necessary to maintain the distinction between major and minor classes. The Gazetteer mentions that the administration of the districts is important in maintaining the boundaries between major and minor classes.
GENERAL DISCUSSION OF THE BUDGET FOR 1954-55

Sri BOJJA APPALASWAMI:— Time is over. The hon. Member will please sit.

Sri BOJJA APPALASWAMI:— Substantial cases should be settled speedily and fairly. The Government should consider it a duty to do so. It is a matter of public interest.

[10h March 1954]

The time has come to discuss the budget for the year 1954-55. The administration, in several instances, has not been able to meet the expected targets. For example, 70% of the expenditures were reported to be below the budgeted amount. Moreover, the administration has been unable to manage the school hostel fund, despite the allocation of 10 lakhs. As a result, the hostel fund has been depleted. It is recommended that the administration focus on managing the hostel fund more effectively.

In addition, the administration has been able to operate the scholarship fund, providing scholarships and hostel accommodation to students. The fund has been able to support 10 students with scholarships and hostel accommodation. The administration is advised to continue this effort and improve the quality of the scholarships.

The administration has also been able to manage the school hostel fund, which has been depleted due to the uncontrolled expenditure on scholarships and hostel accommodation. The administration is advised to focus on managing the hostel fund more effectively and ensure that it remains available for future needs.

In conclusion, the administration has been able to manage several funds effectively, but there is scope for improvement in managing the school hostel fund. The administration is advised to continue its efforts and ensure that the funds are managed effectively to meet the needs of the students.
