In this section, the Highways, National Highways 8th to 9th in the series of the Central Government Grant for the year 1956-57, are discussed. The National Highways, after receiving Central Government Grant, have been allocated to the Provincial Governments. The Highways Department has been allocated funds for the construction of new roads and the repair of existing ones. M. H. 22 is mentioned as the amount allocated for the year. The Provincial Government, in turn, has been allocated funds for the construction of new roads and the repair of existing ones. Sugar Factory is also mentioned as receiving Central Government's cess.

In conclusion, it is important to note the role of the Central Government in providing financial support to the Provincial Governments for the construction and maintenance of Highways. This support is crucial for the development and growth of the country.

GENERAL DISCUSSION ON THE BUDGET FOR THE YEAR 1956-57—(cont).

7th March 1956

[Sri B. Ramakrishna Reddi]

The new Budget for the year 1956-57 is before us. The Budget features 10 items of development proposals which are aimed at improving agricultural production, industrial development, and economic growth. The Budget aims to achieve a balanced growth of the economy, ensuring that all sectors benefit from the development initiatives.

Among the key proposals, there is a focus on agriculture, with provisions for the establishment of new irrigation projects, modernization of existing infrastructure, and the introduction of new technologies to enhance productivity. The industrial sector is also given emphasis, with plans for the expansion of existing industries and the encouragement of new ones to diversify the economy.

In terms of economic growth, the Budget seeks to create a conducive environment for businesses to thrive, with measures to reduce taxation and improve the regulatory framework. The overall objective is to ensure that the benefits of development are enjoyed by all sections of society, promoting social justice and welfare.

I encourage all members to carefully consider the implications of these proposals and their potential impact on the economy. Let us work together to bring about meaningful and sustainable development that benefits every citizen of our country.

Yours sincerely,

Sri B. Ramakrishna Reddi

Sri AYYAPU REDDI:—The Budget is a fine and comprehensive document. It covers a total expenditure of Rs 8,98,500, which is only 8% of the official estimate. The Government has proposed a surcharge of 1% on Land Revenue, which is quite in order. However, I would like to draw the attention of the Government to the neglect of Rural areas. The Rural Water Supply Scheme has been sanctioned, but it has been allowed to lapse. The Technical Personnel scheme has also been allowed to lapse. The Budget Speech mentions 50% Grants lapse and 40% Budget lapse. I would like to draw the attention of the Government to the lapse of these schemes. National Rural Water Supply Scheme, which has been sanctioned, has been allowed to lapse. The Technical Personnel scheme has also been allowed to lapse. The Government should take steps to prevent the lapse of these schemes.

Sri P. Gopalakrishna Gupta :—

Mr. & Mr. Chairman, gentlemen, and my esteemed colleagues, including from my professional group, I think the theme of this discussion should be much more comprehensive, relating to the technical aspects of the budget proposals. It is with this view in mind that we have decided to extend the discussion to include the technical aspects of the budget proposals. The budget proposals are complex, and it is only after a thorough study of all the proposals that we can arrive at a conclusion as to whether they are feasible. The technical aspects of the proposals are also important, and it is only after a careful study of these aspects that we can arrive at a conclusion as to whether they are worth considering. Therefore, it is important that we discuss the technical aspects of the budget proposals in this meeting.

* Sri P. Gopalakrishna Gupta :—
P. W. D. have already approved Enemy No. 1 as a top priority. The Works Committee has already approved 10% of the estimated amount. It seems that the government will have to bear the entire cost, which will amount to about Rs. 100 million. The government may have to bear the entire cost, which will amount to about Rs. 100 million.

Block development areas are places where the development of infrastructure and facilities is focused. The Food Production division is responsible for the growth of food production. Water sources are also crucial, especially in flood-prone areas. The administration plays a significant role in these areas, ensuring effective management.

GENERAL DISCUSSION ON THE BUDGET

Sri A. Bhagavanta Rao] [7th March 1956

Sri A. Bhagavanta Rao welcomes the budget as a whole. He expresses mixed feelings towards the budget. He welcomes some parts of the budget, particularly the Revenue Treasury Department. He feels that there should be a heavy overhaul of the administrative system. He suggests that the Social Welfare State should be set up. District Boards should be set up, and Development Boards should be introduced. He supports the introduction of Land Reforms to stabilize the food grains market. He also supports the stabilization of prices and the uniformity of water rates. He concludes by asking for democratic institutions to be abolished.

Water rate uniformity should be strictly enforced.

Stabilization of prices should be strictly enforced.
The problem is not merely one of raising the statistical average as per capita income which could easily be a will-o’-the-wisp. Thus it is one of raising the lowest incomes and of opening out to the younger generation avenues of growth and advancement that will bring out the best in them.

It is one of raising the lowest incomes and of opening out to the younger generation avenues of growth.

Additional taxation is inseparable from a bolder plan of economic development.

Elementary needs and Socialistic State require fulfilling of these needs. As in 1954 we have undertaken to construct certain number of schools, it is necessary that we have to continue to maintain the existing schools.

1954 has been a difficult year since certain amount of grants have been deferred and, therefore, it has been a year of hardship. But in 1955, we have to work even harder to get things going again, because the whole future of the country depends on this year.

Black Market as of 1956-57 was considerable, and in some areas, it was reported that people were paying a premium on government goods. In contrast to previous years, the government had taken measures to control the black market. For instance, the government had imposed strict regulations on the sale and purchase of essential commodities.

Sri G. SURYARAYANA: The socialist agenda in 1954, which focused on the socialist party's policies and programs, was significant. The party aimed to promote social justice and equality. These policies were in line with the socialist principles and ideals.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I Adjourn the House to meet again at 8.30 a.m. to-morrow. (The House then adjourned.)
APPENDIX.

(Vide answer to Legislative Assembly Question No. 264 (Starred) By Sri V. Visveswara Rao, M.L.A. at Page 1 supra.

Copy of the Rule 4 of the rules relating to Assessment of grant by Schools.

4. Assessment of Grants:—(1) No grant shall be calculated for any teacher in a School with an average total attendance of less than twenty pupils.

(2) Grant shall be allowed at the rate of one teacher for every twenty pupils in average attendance and where the average attendance exceeds twenty or multiples of twenty, one more teacher may be allowed provided that the excess is ten or more only.

(3) (a) Grant shall in no case, be calculated under sub-rule (2) for more teachers than there are standards or sections in the School or than are actually employed in the school, whichever is less. No standard or section shall, unless the average attendance therein exceeds 35, be divided into two sections. In the case of an aided elementary school having ten sections or more grant may be assessed with effect from 1st January 1946 for an additional teacher.

(b) In the case of schools which work in two shifts adopting the shift system the provisions of sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) (a) above shall not apply. The number of teachers for whom grants should be assessed should be fixed by the Deputy Inspector who shall fix the number with reference to the average strength and attendance as shown in the monthly returns of the school. This shall be done in the first week of January and July of each year with reference to the returns for the preceding six months, and the number so fixed shall be communicated to the managers. Appointment of additional teachers over this number, if necessary, should be made only with the approval of the Deputy Inspector and reductions in the staff as fixed by the Inspecting Officers should also be reported by the managements to the Inspecting Officers within ten days of such changes. While one teacher may be allowed for every 30 pupils in attendance, the inspecting officer may fix the number of teachers admissible for grants at a slightly lower or higher rate for valid reasons to be recorded. An appeal shall lie to the District Educational Officer against the orders of the Deputy Inspector shall be in whole numbers only.

Note:—This and the previous sub-rule will not apply to Prevocational Instructors employed in aided Higher Elementary Schools, who shall be considered as additional teachers over and above the number of teachers admissible for the schools for purposes of assessment of grants for the schools.

(4) If the number of teachers employed in a School is greater than the number of standards or sections in the School or than the number for whom grant may be calculated under sub-rule (2) the teacher or teachers most junior shall be excluded from the calculation of the grant in whole or in part.
