Electricity transmission lines in Palnad taluk

277. *531 Q: SRI M. NAGI REDDI:—Will the Hon. the Minister for Electricity and Social Welfare be pleased to state:

(a) the villages of Palnad taluk through which the transmission lines supplying electricity to the Nagarjunasagar Project will pass; and

(b) whether electricity will be supplied to the villages situated by the side of these transmission lines?

THE HON. SRI G. LATCHANNA:—

(a) The transmission line from Tadepalli to Macherla to feed the Nagarjunasagar Project works has been designed to operate at 66 KV for transmission of bulk power and hence it is not possible to feed enroute villages. Enumeration of the villages through which the above line passes is therefore unnecessary.

(b) Supply of electricity to the villages in Palnad Taluk can be effected from the Macherla sub-station. The feasibility of separate extension schemes therefore will be examined if sufficient loads come forth from the prospective consumers.

(a) whether it is a fact that the Public Service Commission has advertised this year for the selection of 13 Panchayat Supervisors and selected more than 13 candidates;
(b) if so, what are the reasons?

THE HON. SRI A. B. NAGESWARA RAO:—

(a) Yes, Sir.
(b) The Commission advertised 13 posts and selected only 13 candidates in the first instance. On a further requisition by the Inspector General of Local Administration for 9 more candidates, the Commission selected 9 more candidates from the reserve list.

THE HON. SRI A. B. NAGESWARA RAO:— Will the Hon. the Minister for Local Administration and Prohibition be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government have nominated Advisory Committees for the District Boards in Andhra;

(b) if so, the names of members of those committees;

(c) what is the criterion adopted for nominating the members; and

(d) what are the functions of these committees?

A:—(a) The answer is in the affirmative.

(b) A statement * showing the names of members of the Advisory Committee of each of the District Board in the State is placed on the Table of the House.

(c) In constituting these Advisory Committees, the following principles have been observed by the Government:

(i) that no taluk is left unrepresented:

*Vide appendix II at page 605 infra.
(ii) that three presidents of panchayats in the district are included;

(iii) that Harijans and women are represented by one member each;

(iv) that all Ex-Presidents of the District Board are included;

(v) that one or more members of Backward Classes are included; and

(vi) that in respect of nominations covering items (ii) and (iii) above the Collector should submit proposals to Government through the Inspector-General of Local Administration.

(d) The Advisory committees were constituted with a view to enable the Special Officers of District Boards to keep in touch with public opinion in regard to the District Board administration. The functions of the committee are purely advisory, it being open to the Special Officer to decline to act on any advice tendered by the committee which he finds for any reason impracticable, inexpedient or inadvisable. But it can be safely presumed that the Special Officer will not disregard the advice of this committee which as may be seen consists of important people in the district who are expected to know local conditions except for very weighty reasons.

(b) The estimated cost of felt needs as ascertained through village plans amounted to Rs. 353-57 crores. This does not include the cost of State Plans sponsored by the Government.
The total ceiling allotted to this State is Rs. 118.97 crores. This includes the cost of State schemes, District schemes and also schemes which have to be implemented at the village level. The distribution of the total ceiling on district-wise basis cannot be worked out until details of all the schemes are finalised. As the Plan is flexible and as Annual Plans have to be worked out year after year, particulars of allotment to each district under the Five-Year Plan cannot be ascertained at this stage.

The size of the first year's plan is about Rs. 19 crores. District Plans are being prepared for the current year. They will be published in English and the Telugu shortly when copies will be made available to all the Members of the Assembly.

RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENTS PROPOSED TO BE MADE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA BY THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTH AMENDMENT) BILL 1956

30th September 1956

[ Dr. B. Gopala Reddi

The Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956, proposes certain amendments to the Constitution of India. Among these amendments, the one related to the appointment of Governors for two or more States is of particular interest. The Bill seeks to empower the President to appoint a Governor for two or more States, thereby simplifying the administrative process.

The Bill is a significant step towards strengthening the federal structure of the country. It aligns with the principle of federalism, ensuring that Governors can effectively represent the interests of multiple States.

The amendments also address the issue of the term of office of Governors. The Bill proposes that Governors shall hold office for a term of five years from the date of their appointment, similar to the term of office of the President.

In conclusion, the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956, is a landmark legislation that enhances the federal structure of the country. It aligns with the principles of federalism and ensures that Governors can effectively represent the interests of multiple States.
RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENTS PROPOSED TO BE MADE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA BY THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTH AMENDMENT) BILL, 1956

Dr. B. Gopala Reddi [30th September 1956]

The Bill introduces a provision in the Constitution for the appointment by the President of Additional Judges to clear of arrears and for the appointment of acting Judges in temporary vacancies. If such appointments of Additional Judges and acting Judges would involve other modifications in the order fixing the maximum number of Judges for each court, the proviso to Article 216 which makes it necessary for the President to fix the maximum by an order, has been omitted.

New Article 258-A inserted by the Bill enables the State Government to entrust State functions to the Central Government or its Officers in relation to any matter to which the executive power of the State extends.

"The Bill introduces a new provision which is designed to implement one of the State Reorganisation Commission's recommendations regarding the safeguards for linguistic minorities in the States after reorganisation. The Bill also makes a provision for appointment by the President of Special Officers for linguistic minorities."
RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENTS PROPOSED TO BE MADE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA BY THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTH AMENDMENT) BILL, 1956

Sri Vavila Gopalakrishnayya wants to move an amendment, but before you read your amendment. I would like to know whether it is an amendment to the resolution or is an amendment to the Constitution itself.
SRI VAVILALA GOPALAKRISHNAYYA:— I beg to move that the amendments proposed to be made to the Constitution of India by the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956 be referred to the Standing Committee.

Mr. SPEAKER:—It was already moved by you once in this House for appointment of a Boundary Commission in respect of certain areas which we are claiming. It does not require reading. If the amendment is relevant, we will consider and will read it and take it. But I want you to satisfy me whether your amendment is an amendment to the resolution of the Hon. Chief Minister or is an amendment to the Constitution itself.

SRI R. B. RAMAKRISHNA RAJU:—If the mover of an amendment does not want to reject the motion, I do not know if the amendment is in order. The amendment may be construed as rejecting the motion.

Mr. SPEAKER:—It is an addition to it. The amendment is by way of addition or a request added to it. We are ratifying it with this request added.

SRI R. B. RAMAKRISHNA RAJU:—If it is not an unconditional ratification, then it is not ratification.

Mr. SPEAKER:—Unless the ratification is unconditional, it cannot be ratification in law. It amounts to a counter proposal to the President.

SRI R. B. RAMAKRISHNA RAJU:—In this connection, I may state that in Madras some amendment was allowed to be discussed and voted down.

Mr. SPEAKER:—I do not feel inclined to allow it.

SRI M. RAJESWARA RAO:—It should be ratified or rejected as a whole. It cannot be subject to a condition.
Mr. SPEAKER:—The condition is by way of another resolution. Does that resolution come under Article 368 of the Constitution?

THE HON. DR. B. GOPALA REDDI:—After ratifying, Sri Gopalakrishnayya can move his resolution. If there is quorum we will see.

SRI A. KALESWARA RAO:— Article 368 constitution's amendment is to pass. Article 143 President's assent is to be obtained. Amendments for the States and the President's assent are to be obtained. 45 amendments for the States are to be obtained. 55 amendments for the President's assent are to be obtained. Constitution amendment is subject to ratification. Article 293 addition, subtraction, amendment, and ratification are to be obtained. Any discussion on an amendment which is not admissible may be ruled out. What has happened in Madras need not guide us.

Mr. SPEAKER:—I think Mr. Krishnavataram is also of the same view.

SRI R. B. RAMAKRISHNA RAJU:— Any amendment is to be obtained. Subsequently ratify it is a subject. I am ruling out the amendment.

RATIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENTS PROPOSED TO BE MADE TO THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA BY THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTH AMENDMENT) BILL, 1956

30th September 1956

[Sri Vavilala Gopalakrishnayya]

The Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956 has been passed by the Parliament of India. The Bill proposes amendments to the Constitution of India, which are intended to address issues related to the structure of the Parliament, the electoral system, and the distribution of seats in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha. The amendments are aimed at enhancing the democratic system and ensuring fair representation of different regions and communities.

The Bill includes provisions to establish a Boundary Commission for the re-distribution of seats in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha. The Commission is tasked with ensuring that the representation of different regions and communities is fair and proportional. The amendments also provide for the appointment of a Committee of Experts to examine the issue of the representation of women in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha.

In conclusion, the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956 is a significant step towards strengthening the democratic system and ensuring fair representation in the Parliament of India.

Sri A. Kaleswara Rao [30th September 1956]

The Hon'ble President of the Regional Committee to which the 1956 Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill has been referred has presented his Report on the said Bill.

The Report states that the Bill seeks to make certain amendments to the Constitution in order to provide for the ratification of the amendments proposed to be made to the Constitution of India. The Report also highlights the role of the High Court and the position of the Governor in the matter.

The Bill proposes to provide for the ratification of the amendments by the States and the Union Territory Administrations. The High Court is also given a role in the process.

The Bill seeks to amend certain provisions of the Constitution in order to provide for the ratification of the amendments and to ensure that the same is carried out in an orderly manner.

The Bill has been referred to the Regional Committee and the Report has been submitted. The Bill has been discussed and debated in the Parliament and has been passed.

The Bill is expected to be enacted into law soon and will provide for the ratification of the amendments proposed to be made to the Constitution of India.

Mr. SPEAKER:— What is the use of criticising the Bombay Government?

SRI M. SATYANARAYANA RAJU:— The criticism is towards the people who are in the Government.

Mr. SPEAKER:— We are not discussing the country as a whole.

SRI M. SATYANARAYANA RAJU:— The problem is not with the country as a whole, but with the people who govern the country. The Bombay Government is responsible for these issues.

30th September 1956

[Sri M. Satyanarayana Raju

Sri M. Satyanarayana Raju, pleased to receive the proposals and amendments to the Constitution which were laid before the House of the People of the Republic of India by the President of India, the President of the Rajya Sabha, and the Prime Minister of India, has decided to submit these proposals and amendments, as well as the reports of the relevant committees, to the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956, to the Parliament of India for approval. He has done so with the intention of ensuring that the Constitution of India is amended in a manner that is consistent with the principles laid down in the Constitution and that the interests of all the people of India are protected.

The proposals and amendments to the Constitution relate to several important issues, including the reservation of seats for minorities in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha, the establishment of Zonal Councils, and the creation of Special Officers for border areas. The amendments also seek to provide administrative facilities to the Zonal Councils and to ensure that administrative facilities are provided to the Zonal Councils on a population basis.

The proposals and amendments are designed to address the needs of the people of India and to ensure that the Constitution is amended in a way that is consistent with the principles laid down in it. The amendments are expected to be approved by the Parliament of India and to be implemented in a manner that is consistent with the Constitution of India.

The proposals and amendments are expected to provide administrative and financial resources to the Zonal Councils, as well as to ensure that the interests of the people of India are protected. The amendments are expected to be implemented in a manner that is consistent with the Constitution of India and the principles laid down in it.

States Reorganisation Act 1956 is an amendment made to the constitution in 1956. States reorganisation was the product of this amendment. Tamilnad, a state in the east of the country, has a boundary with Kerala and Karnataka. The boundary with Kerala is a natural boundary, while the boundary with Karnataka is a political boundary. The members of the Tamilnad Assembly have been resisting the implementation of the new boundaries, contiguity and border. The members have been opposing the new boundaries, contiguity and border. [Sri Pillalamarri Venkateswarlu

The Constitution, in its development, has undergone several amendments. Among them, the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956, proposed certain changes. The Bill includes provisions for the re-organisation of states and the creation of zonal councils. The changes are intended to improve the administration and governance of the states.

The amendment proposes to introduce a new section 295A in the Constitution, which will provide for the establishment of zonal councils. These councils will be responsible for certain state-wide functions, such as education, health, and infrastructure.

The amendment also includes provisions for the re-organisation of states. The Bill proposes to merge certain states and districts to create new, more efficient units. This will help in the better utilisation of resources and improve the delivery of public services.

The amendment is a significant step towards the development of the country, and it is hoped that it will lead to improved governance and better living conditions for the people of India. The amendments are expected to be ratified by the Parliament in the near future.

[Dr. B. Gopala Reddi]

The Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Bill, 1956, proposes amendments to the Constitution of India. The amendments are aimed at enhancing the powers of the President, the Vice-President, and the Chief Justice in matters relating to the independence of the judiciary. The amendments also provide for the transfer of Chief Justices and the Collector in certain cases.

The amendments are intended to ensure the independence of the judiciary and maintain law and order. They are also aimed at resolving communal tensions in Northern India.

The amendments are a necessary step towards ensuring the proper functioning of the judiciary and maintaining law and order in the country.

APPENDIX III

[Vide Answer to Unstarred Question No. 30 (229) by Sri M. Nagi Reddi, printed at page 540 supra.]

G. O. No. 1523, 11th June, 1949.

Assignment—Ban—Lifted—Instructions in regard to permanent assignment—Issued.

read—the following papers:

Memorandum No. 4309-F/42-3, Revenue, dated 2nd March 1943.
G. O. No. 999, Revenue, dated 28th April 1948.
Memorandum No. 29728 F/48-1, Revenue, dated 23rd June 1948.
Memorandum No. 31445-F/48-1, Revenue, dated 29th July 1948.
From the Board of Revenue, dated 27th September 1947.

B. P. Ms. No. 1336 (Confidential).
In 1943, the Government banned the permanent assignment of agricultural land pending settlement of the policy to be followed with regard to the grant of isolated plots of land to ex-servicemen. In 1947, the Government formulated a scheme for the assignment of land to political sufferers, but the policy in regard to assignment of land to ex-servicemen and others had not been settled and so the general ban on permanent assignment of land was not lifted. The Government have now decided to lift the ban on the permanent assignment of land. The following instructions should be followed in regard to the assignment of land in future:

2. Isolated plots of land at the disposal of Government should be assigned in the following order of priority:

(a) Political sufferers.

(b) Ex-servicemen of the II World War (this includes Indian National Army personnel) who do not possess more than five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land.

(c) Landless poor persons (this includes Harijans and Backward Classes).

Note:—(i) Since political sufferers are to be given first preference, it follows that, in assigning any land at the disposal of the Government, the claims of political sufferers who have applied for but not been given any land should first be considered although such political sufferers may not have applied for that particular land.

(ii) The term ‘political sufferers’ has been defined in G. O. No. 3102, Revenue, dated 23rd December 1947. They may be granted five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land (15 acres of dry land in the ceded district) irrespective of the question whether they own any land or not or the extent of the land owned by them.

(iii) A landless poor person means one who has not more than five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land.

(iv) Families of ex-servicemen who died while in active service also be eligible for assignment.
(v) An ex-serviceman who is eligible and could have joined a land colonization scheme but has refused to do so, should not be granted land.

(vi) Ex-servicemen and landless poor persons already owning small extents of land should be granted only that extent of land necessary to make a total of five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land.

3. The Government have given careful consideration to the question how lands under sivoiljama occupation should be treated. They see no reason why, as a matter of general policy, sivoiljamadars should be accorded and preferential treatment in the matter of assignment. They accordingly direct that all unauthorized occupants should be evicted no matter how long they may have held the lands under sivoiljama occupation subject to the following three exceptions:

(i) Landless poor persons in sivoiljama occupation of Government lands:— Such persons should be assigned the lands in their occupation (provided such occupation is free from objection) so that together with lands owned by them, if any, they have a total extent of five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land. If they are in sivoiljama occupation of Government lands in excess of these limits, they may be evicted from the extent of such excess.

(ii) Unobjectionable encroachments on small extents of Government lands, i.e., on not more than 25 cents of wet or 50 cents of dry land:— In such cases there need not be any eviction. Such land may be assigned or given on lease to the occupant as the Collector may find suitable.

(iii) Collectors should carefully investigate cases of sivoiljamadars who claim to have spent a material amount of money and labour on reclamation and improvement of the lands held by them before ordering eviction. If the claims are found true, the lands may be allowed to remain in occupation of the sivoiljamadar for a period long enough to enable him to recover his investment. This may be done by the grant of a lease for a suitable period or assignment as may be considered necessary by the Collector.

(iv) In paragraph 5 of G. O. No. 999, Revenue dated 28th April 1948, the Government ordered that very poor persons holding land under Grow-More Food leases should not be evicted on the expiry of the lease period but permitted to continue in occupation. The expression "very poor person" will have the same meaning as "landless poor person". The Government direct that lands held under lease by such persons may be assigned to them up to an extent of five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land. (In the case of persons owning small extents of land, the area assigned should be such that, together with the land, owned by them, it makes up a total of five acres of wet or ten acres of dry land. Land held on lease in excess of these limits may be taken away from them on the expiry of the lease period and assigned to others.

4. Poramboke lands not required for any communal purpose may be assigned subject to the following instructions:

(1) Even when not required for communal purposes, they should be taken up for assignment only if there are no other lands available for assignment.

Note:—The unit for deciding whether other lands are available for assignment or not will be the taluk.

(2) The permission of the Government should be obtained before assigning tank bed lands or grazing ground porambokes.

Note:—(i) Grazing ground porambokes may be recommended for assignment if there will be at least one acre of pasture land available per head of cattle in the village even after assignment.

(ii) Before recommending tank bed lands for assignment Collectors should invariably consult the appropriate technical officer and forward his opinion to the Government.

5. The value of trees, wells, buildings, etc., standing on the lands should be collected.

6. Compact blocks should be assigned only to co-operative societies consisting of persons mentioned in paragraph 2 above, except in cases where a departure from this principle is permitted by the Govt.

7. Lands close to village sites should be set apart, up to an extent of five acres, for common purposes, such as school play-ground, hostel, village hall, etc.

If lands in excess of five acres be available near village sites, they should not be assigned without the specific orders of Government as they will be needed for house-building purposes, etc. Suitable lands for such purposes should be selected by the District Collector in every village and they should be entered in the Prohibitory Order Book.

8. In assigning land, local people should be given preference as between the members of each class in paragraph 2 above.

9. (i) Land will be assigned free of marked value to the classes of persons mentioned in paragraph 2 above.
(ii) Land assigned should not be sold or otherwise alienated for a period of ten years. If they are alienated within this period, they shall be liable to be resumed.

(iii) The assignee should bring the lands under cultivation within a period of three years from the date of assignment of lands of resumption.

(iv) No land tax shall be collected for the first three years. Water rate will however be charged if the lands are irrigated with Government water.

(v) In the case of assignments to individuals, the grant will be subject to the condition that it should be cultivated by himself or the members of his family or with hired labour or both.

10. Such of the provisions of the B.S.O. 15, etc., which are not in conflict with the orders in this Government Order will continue to apply. The Board is requested to issue necessary amendments to B.S.O. No. 15, etc., in the light of the orders in this Government Order.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor.)

M. V. SUBRAMANIAN,
Secretary to Government.

G. O. No. 2692, 7th October 1950.

Land—Lands in the occupation of landless poor persons and poor ex-servicemen—Assignment to political sufferers—Clarification of previous orders—Instructions issued.

Read—the following papers :—

G. O. Ms. No. 999, Revenue, dated 28th April 1948.
Memorandum No. 73673 F/48, Revenue, dated 17th January 1949.
Memorandum No. 2111 F/49-1, Revenue, dated 4th March 1949.
G. O. No. 1523, Revenue, dated 11th June 1949.
Memorandum No. 40263 F/49-2, Revenue, dated 15th July 1949.
Memorandum No. 36739 F/49, dated 18th July 1949.

Order—No. 2692, Revenue, dated 7th October 1950.

In paragraph 5 of G. O. Ms. No. 999, Revenue, dated 28th April 1948 the Government ordered that lands held under Grow More Food leases which expired on 30th June 1948 might be allotted to political sufferers if they applied for such lands and that applications for renewals or assignments of such lands from previous lessees should be rejected. They also ordered that if the existing occupiers of such lands were poor, they need not be disturbed. In Government Memorandum No. 73673 F/48-1, Revenue, dated 17th January 1949, the Board was informed that these orders would also apply to ex-servicemen who were very poor and that such ex-servicemen should not be dispossessed of their lands. These orders were reiterated in Government Memorandum No. 2111 F/49-1, Revenue, dated 4th March 1949. Subsequently, orders were issued in paragraphs 3 (i) and 3 (iv) of G. O. No. 1523, Revenue, dated 11th June 1949, regarding the assignment of lands in the occupation of landless poor persons either as sivoijamadars or as Grow More or lessees. In paragraph (3) of the Government Memorandum No 40263 F/49-2, Revenue, dated 15th July 1949, it was ordered that provisional assignments of lands made to political sufferers prior to the receipt of G.O. No. 1523, Revenue, dated 11th June 1949, need not be reviewed and cancelled merely on the ground that such assignments were contrary to the instructions issued in the Government Orders if the Collector considered such assignments to be otherwise free from objection. Again, orders were issued in Memorandum No. 36739 F/49-1, Revenue, dated 18th July 1949, that ex-servicemen who were in occupation of lands under the Grow More Food Scheme or otherwise and who were landless poor as defined in G. O No. 1523, Revenue, dated 11th June 1949, should under no circumstances be dispossessed of their lands.
30th September 1956]

2. Representations have been received by Government from landless poor persons and ex-servicemen who are landless poor that under the orders in G. O. Ms. No. 999, Revenue dated 28th April 1948, Memorandum No. 73673 F/48-1, Revenue, dated 17th January 1949 and Memorandum No. 36739 F/49, Revenue, dated 18th July 1949, they should not have been dispossessed of their lands. Similar representations have been received from political sufferers stating that under paragraph (3) of Government Memorandum No. 40263 F/49-2, Revenue, dated 15th July 1949, provisional assignments once made to political sufferers should not be reviewed or cancelled if the Collector considers such assignments to be otherwise free from objection. It has been brought to the notice of the Government that the words "if the Collector considers such assignment to be otherwise free from objection" occurring in paragraph (3) of Government Memorandum, dated 15th July 1949, have been interpreted to mean "that the assignment of the lands should be objectionable from the point of view that the lands in question are required for communal or other needs or that they are reserved or entered in the Prohibitive Order Book or landless poor person or Harijan

3. The Government have carefully examined the matter. They consider that, to have dispossessed a landless poor person or Harijan or ex-serviceman who is a landless poor person, contrary to the orders issued in G. O. Ms. No. 999, Revenue, dated 28th April 1948 and Memorandum No. 73673 F/48-1, dated 17th January 1949, constitutes the 'objection' contemplated in paragraph (3) of Memorandum 40263 F/49-2, Revenue, dated 15th July 1949, and that Collectors should not have made provisional assignment to political sufferers in such cases at all. The Government direct that these instructions should be carefully followed in future.

4. It has also been brought to the notice of the Government that there are cases where, after such dispossession of landless poor persons and landless poor ex-servicemen, political sufferers are in actual occupation of the lands provisionally assigned, by raising food crops after having spent a large amount of money and that, in some other cases, political sufferers have not been admitted to possession though provisional assignments have been ordered. The Government after careful consideration of the matter direct that in such cases, the following principles be observed:

(i) if the political sufferers are not in possession, the provisional assignments may be cancelled and the political sufferers given some other suitable lands, and

(ii) if political sufferers are in actual occupation now, the sivoli-jamadars (if they are landless poor or poor ex-servicemen) should be given some other suitable lands.

The orders already issued in respect of the lands in the occupation of landless poor persons including Harijans or ex-servicemen who are landless poor, will be modified to this extent.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor.)

S. K. Chettur,
Secretary to Government.
