Transport facilities for poultry keepers in the Kolleru area

* 552 Q SRI M NAGI REDDI — Will the Hon the Minister for Agriculture be pleased to state

(a) whether the Government are aware of the fact that the poultry keepers in the Kolleru area are put to much loss for want of transport facilities for the eggs produced by them,

(b) if so, the steps taken by the Government for providing transport facilities needed by them?

THE HON SRI K OBULA REDDI —

(a) Yes, Sir. The Government are aware that poultry keepers in the Kolleru area are put to some loss for want of transport facilities for the eggs produced by them.

(b) Though the villages in the area are not connected directly by roads and are water logged throughout the year except from March to July there are transport facilities like boats and rafts. Railway transport facilities are also available from Kaikalur and Fluru, nearby towns. Hence no special arrangements are made by Government.

Sanskrit College at Tirupati

* 696 Q SRI P GOPALU REDDI — Will the Hon the Chief Minister be pleased to state
15th October 1956]

(a) whether it is a fact that the strength in the Sanskrit College at Tirupati under Tirumalai Tirupati Devasthanam has fallen so low as that in some classes there are no pupils at all and

(b) what is the action taken by the Government to remedy the situation?

THE HON Dr B GOPALA REDDI —

(a) The Sanskrit College at Tirupati is under the administrative control of the Tirumalai Tirupati Devasthanam

In some classes of the College there is a decrease this year over the strength of 1955-56 and in some classes there is also an increase. In total there is a decrease of 5 students in Sanskrit sections during 1956-57 and a decrease of 7 students in other Oriental language sections. A comparative statement is placed on the table of the House.

(b) The College is under the administrative control of the Tirumalai Tirupati Board. Whatever be the steps that should be taken to improve the strength, it should be done by the Tirumalai Tirupati Devasthanam. However the fall in strength is not so alarming as to warrant taking special steps.

SRI VAVILALA GOPALAKRISHNAYYA — the administration

All Caste Society in Nagullanka

325

* 886 Q. SRI A VENKATARAMA RAJU — Will the Hon. the Minister for Co-operation and Commercial Taxes be pleased to state

(a) whether it is a fact that an All Caste Society with 17 members out of which 12 members are landlords has been registered in the Financial year 1955-56 in Nagullanka hamlet of Manepalli, Razole Taluk East Godavari District and

(b) if so whether the Government propose to cancel the registration of the said society and to lease out the lands now in their possession to the Harijan Society?

THE HON. SRI D SANJIVAYYA —

(a) A Field Labourers Co-operative Society for the landless people of Nagullanka village Hamlet of Manepalli Razole Taluk East Godavari District was organised with 17 members during 1955-56. Subsequent enquiries revealed that, that 5 of the members own more than 5 acres of landed property each and that another member took on lease 8 acres of Government lanka lands for 5 years from Fasli 1361 to 3165.

(b) No Sir. Instructions have been issued by the Registrar to the Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies Rajahmundry to eliminate all members having landed properties in excess of 2½ acres wet or 5 acres dry and continue only such of the members as are either landless poor or whose landed properties together with the land assigned as members of the society, do not exceed 2½ acres wet or 5 acres dry.

THE HON' Dr B GOPALAREDDI — I think a close meeting of the Legislators will be held later.

SRI P NARASIMHAPPA RAO — T A Question is whether it is a formal meeting of the Legislative or not. Formal meeting is the Governor of Andhra is not the Governor of Hyderabad now and on you will be members of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly on 1st November. Anyway, this has to be considered deeply. The Andhra Government as such will cease to function from 31st October 1956. Who should issue summons is also a point. Government is another legal point. THE MADRAS GENERAL SALES TAX
(ANDHRA SECOND AMENDMENT) BILL, 1956

15th October 1956

[Sri Vavilala Gopalakrishnayya

Sir,

The Madras General Sales Tax, 1936 (Andhra Second Amendment) Bill, 1956

The Madras General Sales Tax, 1936 (Andhra Second Amendment) Bill, 1956, is a legislative act that aimed to amend the existing sales tax law in the Andhra region. The bill was introduced to address certain issues and to make necessary amendments in the existing law to ensure its effective implementation.

The directive to officials to ensure sincerity, accountability, and proper use of power was also highlighted. The directive emphasized the importance of officials in maintaining honesty and transparency in the implementation of the tax system, thereby reducing the scope of evasion.

SRI P RAMACHARLU — The purchase tax, sales tax, and single point tax have been separately mentioned in the act. However, the exemption for certain items such as millers was mentioned. The act also emphasized the need for proper implementation of the tax system to prevent evasion.

Evasion of taxes was a significant issue that needed to be addressed. The act aimed to reduce evasion by ensuring that the tax system was implemented effectively, with proper checks and balances.

In conclusion, the Madras General Sales Tax, 1936 (Andhra Second Amendment) Bill, 1956, was an attempt to make necessary amendments to the existing law to ensure its effective implementation. The act emphasized the importance of officials in maintaining honesty and transparency in the implementation of the tax system, thereby reducing the scope of evasion.
Mr. Speaker—Is not Central Government fixing the price for sugar?

The Hon. SRI D Sanjivayya—Yes Sir

Sri P Ramacharlu] [15th October 1956

Sri Pillalamarr Venukateswarlu—Multi point tax as single point tax, as far as sugar is concerned, as the control of the Central Government, sugar is being fixed at 1-4-080. The proviso to the sugar purchase tax is applicable to sugar mill owners. It is for the assessment year

Mr SPEAKER — The question is

"That the Madras General Sales Tax (Andhra Second Amendment) Bill, 1956 be taken into consideration at once"

The motion was carried

Mr SPEAKER — There are no amendments to any of the clauses of the Bill. So I shall put the clauses to the vote of the House.

Clauses 2, 3, 4, 5, 1, the Preamble were put to vote and carried

THE HON SRI D SANJIVAYYA — I move, sir, that—

The Madras General Sales Tax (Andhra Second Amendment) Bill, 1956, be passed into law

SRI VAVILALA GOPALAKRISHNAYYA — Hotels say turnover 100% has to be raise 10% of 10%. What consider increase of 10% or...
THE HON SRI D SANJIVAYYA — 3. There is one more thing. Should the rebate of groundnut oil be extended to hotels? It is desirable to include groundnut oil rebate to hotels. What about including onions and potatoes in the list for single point tax? There is a desire to pass the amendment regarding groundnut oil rebate to hotels. It is important to extend this rebate to hotels. The limit is 40. It is a limit.

Mr SPEAKER — The question is

"The Madras General Sales Tax (Andhra Second Amendment)
Bill, 1956, be passed into law”

The motion was carried and the Bill was passed into law

THE HON Dr B GOPALA REDDI — “Standardisation of Land Revenue Bill” has been cleared by the Committee. It is desirable that the Committee meet again to finish the Bill.

Mr SPEAKER — No meeting in the afternoon. The House will now adjourn and meet again to-morrow at 9 A.M.

The House then adjourned
