Sir, hon. Members have before them the Report of the Joint Select Committee on the Andhra University (Andhra Pradesh Amendment) Bill, 1958, presented by me just now. According to the procedure laid down in clause 4 of the Bill, there will be no election by the Senate for the post of Vice-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor will be appointed by the Chancellor from a panel of not less than 3 persons selected by a Committee as constituted under that Clause, provided the Bill passes through.

The Registrar of the Andhra University has brought to the notice of the Government that the term of office of the present Vice-Chancellor would expire on 7th December, 1958 and that the election for the post of Vice-Chancellor has to be held at the next ordinary meeting of the Senate which has been provisionally fixed for the 5th December, 1958. If the Andhra University (Andhra Pradesh Amendment) Bill, 1958, as amended by the Joint Select Committee, is passed in this Session of the Legislature, the Chancellor will take early steps to appoint a Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the new procedure referred to above, and with reference to Clause 14 of the Bill. If an election is now held for the post of Vice-Chancellor, the person elected will hold office for some time. It is therefore considered unnecessary to have an election of Vice-Chancellor at this juncture, and expedient to extend the term of office for the present Vice-Chancellor for a period of 4 months from 8th December, 1958 or such earlier date as the State Government may notify so as to give sufficient time for the Chancellor for making appointment of Vice-Chancellor under the new Act.

The Bill before you is intended to give effect to the above proposal. I now request the House to pass the motion that the Bill be read a first time.

Mr. Speaker: Motion moved.
Sri B. Sreeramamurthi: Sir, I have a privilege motion on this to the House. Sir, I would like to refer to the first sentence of the paragraph in the Statement of Objects and Reasons, "It is expected that the Bill will be passed in the Session of the Legislature when..." That is, in November, 1958, and that the Chancellor will appoint a Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the provisions referred to above ...

Mr. Speaker: 'It is expected ...' What is wrong?

Sri B. Sreeramamurthi: The whole notion is this. The whole premise of this Bill is not before the House--the actual subsequent acceptance or otherwise of the House to a Bill which may be placed before it in future. So, it is a presumption and it is a hypothesis. And this presumption is the life-spring of the present Bill. In fact, the Government has further presumed the decision of this House. This House is an independent, free and autonomous body, and it can arrive at any decision or any conclusion it likes in future. Therefore, the very decision of the Government, the very basis on which the Government has started in presenting this Bill before the House, is violating the very right of this House and therefore it undermines the prestige and respect of this House.

Sri N. Sanjeeva Reddy: Sir, this is so simple; if the House rejects the Bill--after all the possibility is there, it is a different matter and election will be held under the normal course. Suppose the Act is not amended, naturally the status quo will remain and the Vice-Chancellor will be elected as in the normal way. There is nothing wrong in this, Sir.

It does not offend any rule of procedure, or rights of members. Therefore, there is no question of privilege.

Mr. Speaker: Are you raising a point that the Bill introduced by the hon. Minister for Education is ultra vires and is beyond the jurisdiction of this Legislative Assembly? What is your point?
Mr. Speaker, Sir, it is so simple. The Legislative Assembly is the supreme body. The Assembly makes the laws and the Governor can only assent or withhold assent to them. The Governor cannot make laws. The Governor acts on the advice of the Council of Ministers. That is the basic difference between the Legislative Assembly and the Governor.
Sri B. Sivaramakrishna: It is a principle and in practice it speaks of dictatorial attitude. It is to put a stamp on the decision. The point is whether the Legislature approves and absolute right to shape the policy and accordingly position is reduced to okay a decision already taken.

Sri N. Sanjeera Reddy: The approval comes from the Government and unless it gets the approval of the Legislature, it does not become legislation; it is only a scrap of paper and has absolutely no value unless it is okayed by the Legislature. The hon. Member should not say dictatorial power and all that.

Sri S. B. P. Pattabhirama Rao: On this point, Sir, I would like to state that I had already observed in my speech that the election will be postponed provided this Bill is passed.

"It is not necessary to take action under the Statutes for the election of a Vice-Chancellor."
Sec. 12 states:

"(1) (a) The Vice-Chancellor shall be a whole-time Officer of the University and shall be elected by the Senate.

(b) He shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-election and may be paid such salary as shall be prescribed."

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Andhra University Act, 1925 (Madras Act II of 1926), the term of office of the Vice-Chancellor, which under the said Act, extends upto the 8th December, 1958, shall extend instead upto the 8th April, 1959...

The provision in the Act itself should be amended to read: "He shall hold office for a period of three years four months" instead of "He shall hold office for a period of three years......".

The term 8 वर्ष is replaced by 8 वर्ष 4 महीने. तथा the 3 वर्ष 4 महीने is also replaced by 3 वर्ष 4 महीने.
If the Assembly says that we are to extend the term of the Vice-Chancellor by four more months, he will do so. We are extending the term of office of the Vice-Chancellor to make the term of office of the Vice-Chancellor from three years to three years and four months. In this particular case we are extending the period of tenure of the Vice-Chancellor by four months to enable him to continue in office until the election is held. It is not a normal amendment in that particular section.

Only in this particular case we are doing it.

Sri S. B. P Pattabhihuma Rau: I may state here that it was only very recently that under similar circumstances in the case of the Osmania University we have given permission for the extension of the term of the Syndicate and the Senate for six months. Similarly, a situation has arisen where the Vice-Chancellor’s term of office of the Andhra University expires before we decide on the Bills before us and we want the present incumbent to continue in office for four more months.

Amendment to Sections 12(1)(b) of Andhra University Act to extend the term of the Vice-Chancellor. It is a Charter and regulations extend it. bill order for “Extension of term of Vice-Chancellor” is prescribed. It must be in a definite form. Amending Bill § Clause amend Sri N. Sanjeeva Reddy: Don’t call it an amendment, if you feel like it; but call it extension of a period.

Sri P. Sundarayya: Point of order comes only on technical points and rules of procedure.

Sri N. Sanjeeva Reddy: This is a specific provision which we are going to add and it becomes an Act.

Sri S. B. P. Pattabhi Rama Rao: As I said, it is a special situation. We are amending the Section to make it from three years to three years four months. We are amending it to provide only for the present Vice-Chancellor and in the meantime we may decide about the Bill before us.
Act and rules of procedure to observe. The Law Department had submitted a report on the technical defects and recommended amendment to correct them. The Speaker, Mr. Pillalamarri Venkateswarlu, moved a separate notice to this effect. He stated that the technical defects had to be corrected before proceeding with the bill. So, we cannot proceed with this defective bill now.

(Sri Pillalamarri Venkateswarlu was seen standing in his seat)

Mr. Speaker: I cannot allow any member to talk more than once. I want Sri Narasimha Rao to speak.
Mr. Speaker: I request the hon. Minister for Education to speak.
He does not question your right.

It is a new clause. Even then it becomes something like an amendment. My argument is adding or deleting a few sentences or words also constitute an amendment.

Sri N. Sanjeeva Reddy: This Legislature has power to extend the term of office of the Vice-Chancellor.

Sri P. Sundarayya: If in this Bill circulated to us, if the word is added to Clause 2 at any place then it is perfectly valid.

Sri R. Lakshminarasimham Dora: This can be added as a proviso to Section 12. After all, this is only a temporary measure. It is not a permanent measure. It is only to cover a certain contingency which is going to arise that this has come. It does not require a place to be put in. This provision will spend itself by April and so it can be provided as a proviso which will read “Provided that the term of the office of the Vice-Chancellor shall extend up to... “. This is how it shall be read and understood.

Mr. Speaker: I am going to allow an amendment if you want to make it more technically correct.

Sri S. B. P. Pattabhi Rama Rao: I accept your decision, Sir.
