State Minimum Wages Advisory Board

Shops and establishments have been represented in the State Minimum Wages Advisory Board.

Minimum Wages Act 12, 13 and 38 of 1959.

Hotel workers have been represented in the Advisory Board.
Labour Welfare Centres

Labour welfare centres are for labourers who are employed in different factories and industries. These centres provide various facilities for the welfare of the workers, such as education, health care, and recreation. The centres are managed by the government and are situated in different parts of the city.

The centres are open to all workers, regardless of their age, gender, or occupation. They offer a range of services, including educational programs, health check-ups, and recreational activities. The centres are an important source of support for workers, providing them with a place to relax and socialize after a long day at work.

Labour welfare centres not only improve the quality of life for workers but also contribute to the economic growth of the city. By providing a safe and healthy environment for workers, the centres help to increase productivity andreduce absenteeism.

In conclusion, labour welfare centres are an essential part of any city's infrastructure. They play a crucial role in improving the well-being of workers and contribute to the overall development of the city.

Budget for 1959-60 - Voting of Demands for Grants

9th March, 1959

The Hon'ble Minister for Planning and Finance.

Sir,

The question of demands for grants from this year's estimates of expenditure has been under discussion in the House. It is desired to point out that the demands for grants are intended to meet the ordinary expenditure of the Government and are not intended to meet the charges on extraordinary expenditure, which are covered by the loan proposals.

It is proposed to meet the demands for the sum of Rs. 3,42,000 as follows:

1. Rs. 1,20,000 for the maintenance of existing buildings.
2. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing machinery.
3. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing plant.
4. Rs. 1,00,000 for the maintenance of existing vehicles.
5. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing furniture.
6. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing library.
7. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing printing and stationery.
8. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing office.
9. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing communication.
10. Rs. 50,000 for the maintenance of existing housing.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient servant,

In the House of Commons, 19th March, 1959.

Mr. Speaker, to move that a sum, not exceeding £1,20,000, be granted to Her Majesty, to defray the Charge which will come in course of payment in the year ending with the 31st day of March, 1960, for Votes for Grants, including the cost of the investigation and settlement of claims which have been disallowed or reduced, and for defaulter and fraud cases which have been referred to court. Defaulted, fraud and dismiss cases have been involved in terms of Section 57 of the Act. This is the second year in which the amount has been reduced. The total amount of £1,20,000 is to be provided.

Speaker, Sir, before I take up the points which I want to discuss in relation to Local Administration, I want to invite the attention of the Government to a request which was made last year to separate the Demand and the Major Head in the budget of the Local Administration. This year, I find, Demands Nos. 34 and 35 have been clubbed together under Major Head 57. In fact, the Local Administration Demand consists only of four items, and particularly the third item, ‘Miscellaneous and Unforeseen charges’ also includes some of the items which could have been separately shown in the Local Administration. Because of this inter-mixing, these two Demands had to be clubbed under one Major Head, but the result of such clubbing naturally is that the importance of Local Administration is not allowed to be sustained, as it ought to be. We all know that Local Administration is one of the major social services.
and has a very important place of honour as far as social services are concerned. It is, therefore, natural that we should allot not only a separate Major Head, but a separate Demand, in order to bring out the total requirements of Local Administration in our social life. I would, therefore, request the Government to consider this request and try completely to separate this Local Administration, so that we will have an over-all picture of this subject and the various suggestions in the course of discussion could be effectively and profitably made.

Now, Sir, the first point which I would like to make is this. In the first Five-year Plan, the Local Administration or Local Bodies were very much neglected and then lot of criticism and suggestions followed that, being an important organization of the Government, it should be given a proper place, not only in drafting or preparing the blue-print of the Second Five-year Plan, but also for effectively participating in its implementation. In view of that demand, I find that in the Second Five-Year Plan, some of the schemes were drafted in which the Local Bodies were given some shares for its implementation, but even then, if we view the Second Five-year Plan as a whole, we cannot but come to the conclusion that the place of honour which ought to have been given to these Local Bodies as far as the preparation and implementation of the Second Five-year Plan was concerned was not to a very great extent satisfactory. As we are now in the wake of the Third Five-year Plan, we should emphasise again that a proper place should be given to the Local Bodies.

I would also invite the attention of the House to the fact that during the preparation of the Second Five-year Plan, all the Local Bodies were asked to submit their proposals as far as the urban areas were concerned. It is a fact, Sir, that in comparison with the rural area, urban area was to some extent neglected as far as the First and Second Five-year plans were concerned. This aspect of our economy has got to be emphasised as far as the Third Plan is concerned. In the case of Second Five-year Plan, various materials were collected from these Local Bodies in order to find out what their felt needs were and it is only on the basis of that the States had prepared their blue-print for inclusion in the Second Five-year Plan, but unfortunately, as I said earlier, even in the Second Five-year Plan, all their felt needs or, a majority of them, could not be included for obvious reasons. This is, therefore, time when we should ask all the Local Bodies again to revise the proposals which they had sent for inclusion in the Second Five-year Plan and, after having collected this material, opportunity should be given to the Presidents of various Local Bodies to come together, discuss and draw out or prepare a blueprint of their own to be included in the Third Plan, because if we fail to emphasise this aspect much in advance, our case as far as Local Bodies are concerned, is likely to go by default.

The second point which I would like to place before the House for its consideration is that we find that in our State some of the Local Bodies were elected as far back as 1951 or 1952. It is more than 6 or 7 years that these bodies have been in office and are not asked to go to polls again in order to find out whether the voters still continue to have confidence in them.
Now, Sir, for effectively running the democracy, it is absolutely necessary that these Local Bodies go to poll at every fixed periods in order to see that these bodies are kept active and energised, because their activity or energy practically reflects in the activity and energy of this august body. I would, therefore, suggest that in order to give firmer roots as far as Local Bodies are concerned, election should be held, so that not only the areas concerned will get new blood, new energy and new vigour, but it would also naturally be reflected as far as democratic bodies in the form of Parliaments and Assemblies are concerned. With reference to this,
I would like to invite the attention of the House to a resolution very recently passed by the Congress Committee in Andhra wherein they have decided not to participate as a political party in the coming elections to the village panchayts.” We all remember that Panditji has been insistently telling that if we want to build up democracy, it is wrong to think of building it up from the top, and that it must be built up from below, and that in order to effectively do it, it is very dangerous to allow the political parties to actively participate in the elections, particularly in village panchayts. I may mention that as early as in 1954, it was decided, not only by the Local Bodies Conference, but also by the Local Bodies Ministers’ Conference to issue a joint appeal in the name of the nation that those who are concerned with village panchayat elections not to organise elections in village panchayats on the basis of parties. I was glad to find that PSP had readily responded to that request and had also come out with an open statement saying that as far as that political party was concerned they would not participate as a political party in elections of village panchayats. It is, therefore, time again as we are going to have shortly elections in village panchayats to reiterate our faith in this basic principle that, as far as village panchayats are concerned or village politics are concerned, it should be completely kept aloof from party strifes. It has its own evil consequences on the over-all social, political and economic life of the villages, and if we want democracy to be developed properly, it is very much advisable to see that no political party participates on the basis of party as far as village panchayats are concerned.

The next point which I would like to place before the House for its consideration is with regard to the Corporations of Hyderabad and Secunderabad. You know, Sir, that during the course of last few years, Hyderabad Corporation has been getting over Rs. 10 lakhs as grant. This year, that grant has not been included in the Budget. After the formation of Vishala Andhra, the cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad have assumed greater importance. With the formation of Hyderabad as the capital, these two Corporations are naturally faced with varied and complex problems, and it is for the State Government to go to their succour and help and see that those difficulties are removed. The Hyderabad and Secunderabad Corporations had to bring some new undeveloped areas within the ambit of their operation which naturally means that they have to give various types of civic amenities to these areas. Apart from that, various new localities within the area of the Corporation of Hyderabad and Secunderabad are also newly developing because of the inflow of population. Therefore, it is necessary to continue these grants for the coming few years in order to see that our capital develops on proper lines.
I am glad to find that the Master Plan for the city of Hyderabad has been prepared and it was inaugurated a few months before by our Governor, but I have been emphasising the necessity of merging these two Corporations in order to form a Greater Hyderabad and the Master Plan ought to have been prepared keeping in view the growing needs of the enlarged areas. It is only when we prepare a Master Plan for Greater Hyderabad, the scientific growth of the two cities, which are, in fact, part and parcel of one city, will have been properly ensured. Under Section 181 of the Corporations Act, it is obligatory on these two Corporations to place on the table of the House annually their audit reports and annual reports. In every April, the Commissioners of the two Corporations are expected under the Statute to prepare their audit report and through the Secretariat place them on the table of the House. This provision was included in the Corporation Act with a view to having some kind of check or control by this august body over the working of the Corporation. It provides us an opportunity to consider how the administration of these two very important Corporations in our State is being carried on. I would, therefore, request the Government to place these audit reports on the table of the House in order to provide us an opportunity to go through them, find out what progress these two Corporations have made, examine their felt needs and provide them greater amenities so that their growth is assured.

The third point which I would like to place before the House is with regard to certain items so far as local bodies are concerned. The local bodies in our State have been functioning under different classifications. There are two enactments so far as these two areas are concerned. I was told last year that the question of integration of these two legislative measures is under the active consideration of the Government. I do not know how far the process of integration of these two enactments has gone ahead; but I would certainly wish that the question of integration of these two laws should not stand in the way of periodically holding the elections in both the areas in order to keep those bodies running on strong democratic foundations.
The other suggestion which I would like to place before the House so far as local administration is concerned, is that at the moment I find the Ministry of Local Administration has been shorn off of various items which essentially form part of Local Administration Ministry. If we trace the history of local administration, we find that originally it had started with health and local administration. Subsequently, it was bifurcated and local administration was clubbed with housing, drainage, water works and several other schemes which naturally form part of local administration. But here, the Ministry of Local Administration has been shorn off of various other items which naturally form part of Local Administration Ministry. It is therefore worth while to consider the question of bringing back those items which have been removed from the purview of Local Administration Ministry so that we can get a very useful, profitable and overall ministry which will in an integrated manner look to the several needs of the people.

The last point which I would like to bring to the notice of the House is the necessity of bestowing more attention to certain schemes which form part of local administration, and those schemes are the removal of slums in the two cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad. So far as Hyderabad is concerned, I might invite your attention, Sir, that there are more than 32 slums, and the schemes have been continuously and persistently sent to the Government of India to be included in the Plan. We are now in the second Five-Year Plan. Government has allowed about 20 crores for the removal of these slums in bigger cities. After the formation of this City as the Capital of the State, the condition of these slums has got worsened. It is therefore necessary that Government should give early and careful consideration for the removal of these slums in certain areas of the Hyderabad City. I was told that some schemes have been sent by the Government of Andhra Pradesh to the Central Government. I do not know what has become of them. If the schemes have not been included, it must be impressed upon the Government of India that these slums in the city of Hyderabad particularly, have got to be removed. Similarly the question of supplying water and of drainage schemes to the newly developed areas of Hyderabad should also receive consideration, because it is no good to have two kinds of discriminatory treatment. I would therefore request the Local Government Minister to go to the assistance of the Corporations of Hyderabad and Secunderabad and see that waterworks, electricity, drainage and other schemes are extended to the newly developed areas where those schemes have not been extended so far.

Thank you, Sir.

9th March, 1959

Dear Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the main items in the Estimates for 1959-60 have been referred to various committees for consideration. It is therefore necessary that the demands for Grants for the financial year 1959-60 be discussed on the lines indicated. The Committee on Finance, which was appointed for the purpose, has submitted its report and I have the pleasure of forwarding the same to you for your consideration.

The Committee has recommended that the demands for Grants be discussed in the following manner:
1. Education
2. Health
3. Social Welfare
4. Housing
5. Agriculture
6. Industries
7. Transport
8. Agriculture
9. Rural Development
10. Other Items

The Committee has also recommended that the demands for Grants be discussed in detail and that the necessary amendments be made to enable the Estimates to be brought into line with the demands for Grants.

I am confident that the above recommendations will be acceptable to you and that the Estimates for 1959-60 will be discussed in the manner indicated.

Yours faithfully,

Sir,

We refer to your letter dated the 19th of January, 1959, and to the consolidated demands of the various Departments, including the Department of Coordination. We have examined the demands carefully and have found them to be in order. We are pleased to note that the demands have been made in a rational and economical manner.

The Department of Coordination has been given a budget of Rs. 10,000. We have increased the budget for this Department to Rs. 20,000 as we feel that it is necessary to improve the efficiency of this Department.

The Department of Public Health has been given a budget of Rs. 50,000. We have reduced the budget for this Department to Rs. 40,000 as we feel that the current expenditure is sufficient for the work to be done.

The Department of Education has been given a budget of Rs. 100,000. We have increased the budget for this Department to Rs. 120,000 as we feel that it is necessary to improve the quality of education in the State.

The Department of Agriculture has been given a budget of Rs. 300,000. We have reduced the budget for this Department to Rs. 250,000 as we feel that the current expenditure is sufficient for the work to be done.

We have also increased the budget for the Department of Public Works to Rs. 50,000 from Rs. 30,000 as we feel that it is necessary to improve the infrastructure of the State.

We hope that the above demands will be accepted and we look forward to working with you to implement them.

Yours faithfully,
