6 7th December, 1959 The Andhra Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Bill, 1958

The opposition party is of the view that the ceiling on agricultural holdings should be extended to March 30th, 1960. The time for the enquiry report has already been extended to March 30th, 1960. The Select Committee has been asked to extend the time for the Select Committee's report.

The opposition party has requested the Government to extend the 30th March to 60th March. The opposition party is also requesting the Government to postpone the tour programme.

The situation is tense, and the Opposition Party has been raising issues regarding the tour. The Government has agreed to postpone the tour.
I am talking of members not as Mr. X or Mr. Y speaking to this or that party.

If the Opposition tries to throw stones on the Ministry, naturally AppaRao will have to protest and also do the same thing.

Sri Pillalamarri Venkateswarlu: It is not throwing stones. On a point of explanation, Sir...

Mr. Speaker: No further explanation can be allowed.

As the passing of orders of eviction in such cases is likely to result in great hardship to the tenants, it is proposed to amend section 11 so as to provide that in the case of any land or part thereof in respect of which the Tahsildar or the Revenue Divisional Officer, as the case may be, considers that the person in occupation of the land or part is prima facie entitled to a ryotwari patta under section 4 of the Inams Abolition Act, no order for his eviction from such land shall be passed under the Andhra Tenancy Act until it has been finally determined that he is not entitled to a ryotwari patta under section 4 aforesaid.”
Mr. Speaker: An inam village has been defined in Section 2 (d) of the Act as a village designated as such in the revenue accounts of the Government. Under Section 2 (k), ‘zamindari village’ means a village designated as such in the Revenue accounts of the Government.

The Inams Abolition Act, 1959, made the inam villages as defined in Section 2 (d) of the Act. Section XXVI of the Rent Reduction Act, 1948, extended this definition to many more villages. So it is an extension and includes many more villages. The Government has explained this. So far as it goes, it is not a loss.

You may bring it to the notice of the Government or you yourself may put in an amendment.

Executive side expedite it immediately. If it is acceptable possessions as well as the extension of certain rights and privileges.
