The Andhra Pradesh Sugarcane (Regulation of Supply and Purchase) Bill, 1960

36 28th November, 1960

The Madras Sugar cane Act of 1949 and Hyderabad Sugar cane Cess Act of 1958 have already regulated the price of sugar cane at the regular procedure. The regular procedure in 1956 was changed under the Madras Sugar cane Act of 1949 to regulate the price of sugar cane. The regular procedure in 1958 was changed under the Hyderabad Sugar cane Cess Act of 1958 to regulate the price of sugar cane.

State level and Advisory Committees are already working in the factory where the cane is registered. The Advisory Committee and the Cane Development Council are working in the factory where the cane is registered. A register of the cane factories is maintained, which is registered in the factory. The cane factories are already regulated under the Madras Sugar cane Control Act of 1957. The factory is regulated under the Industrial Development and Regulation Act of 1967. The cane factories are already licensed, and the cane is registered in the factory. The cane factories are already regulated.
The Andhra Pradesh Sugarcane (Regulation of Supply and Purchase) Bill, 1960

28th November, 1960

Factories where crushing capacity of 10,000 tons or more have been established, a reserved area of 6 acres is reserved for the factories and it is provided in the Madras Act of 1949 and the Hyderabad Sugarcane Cess Act of 1953, 60 acres is reserved for factories where crushing capacity is 5,000 tons or more. There are 15 factories with crushing capacity of over 10,000 tons and 7 factories with crushing capacity between 5,000 to 10,000 tons. The crushing period is from September 15th to February 15th.

I therefore request the House to pass the Bill unanimously.
Select Committee on the Cane Growers and Sugar Factories

38 28th November, 1960 The Andhra Pradesh Sugarcane (Regulation of Supply and Purchase) Bill, 1960

The decision to request this legislation arises from the need to protect the interests of both cane growers and sugar factories. The Select Committee on the Cane Growers and Sugar Factories has recommended measures to ensure fair and equitable treatment of all parties involved.

The Committee has discussed the historical and current status of sugar production and the challenges faced by both cane growers and factories. It has emphasized the importance of protecting the interests of cane growers, particularly in light of the recent economic downturn.

The Committee has recommended the establishment of a Composite Madras State, which would include the current Madras Province. This would provide a more unified approach to the management of sugar production and would better address the needs of both cane growers and factories.

The Committee has also recommended the creation of Cane Development Councils to oversee the management of sugarcane production. These councils would be responsible for the allocation of sugarcane to factories and the distribution of sugar to consumers.

The Committee believes that this legislation will provide a more stable environment for the sugar industry and will help to ensure the long-term sustainability of sugarcane production in the region.

The Andhra Pradesh Sugarcane (Regulation of Supply and Purchase) Bill, 1960

Fixation of price is essentially a question of statutory provision. Let us have a look at the statutory provision.

Extra price, if any, has to be charged by the supplier to the consumer. Sigma formula has been held by the court to be statutory. It is cumbersome, and the price linking formula is easy to apply. Price linking formula has been found to be easy to apply. Sigma formula was found to be cumbersome.
