Oral Answers to Questions
31st July, 1961

Sir, as regards the demand for grazing fees, the Government has been extending facilities for grazing during the non-grazing season, normally the winter season. Grazing fees are charged only in the grazing season. In the case of plantations, the Forest Department maintains certain areas as ‘grazing reserves’ and grazing is permitted by permit holders. The question of extending such facilities in other areas is under consideration.

Sir, in reply to the second part of the question, the Malayalam text seems to be unclear and incomplete. It appears to be a continuation of a discussion on grazing. The text may refer to forced labour or similar matters, but it is not entirely clear without further context.

Sir, as regards the second part of the question, the demand by the farmers for the extension of grazing facilities has been acknowledged. The Government is considering the matter and will take appropriate action in due course.

Sir, as regards the third part of the question, the demand by the farmers is being taken seriously. The Government will continue to explore ways to enhance the facilities for grazing, particularly in the non-grazing season, to meet the demands of the farmers.

Factors connected with the costs of living are those which affect the general level of prices in the economy. If there is an increase in the cost of living, it is likely that this will be reflected in higher wages and salaries, leading to an increase in the cost of living. Conversely, if the cost of living decreases, it is likely that wages and salaries will decrease as well, leading to a decrease in the cost of living.

Eradication of Malaria

207—

*184 (2114) Q — Sri P Mahendranath [Put by Sri E Chinnappa] — Will the hon Minister for Health and Medical be pleased to state

(a) the steps taken by the State Government for the eradication of Malaria, and

(b) the amount spent by the Government towards this programme so far?

Sri P V G Raju — (a) A note is placed on the Table the House is placed.

(b) During the first Five Year Plan a sum of Rs 46.88 lakhs was spent on anti-Malarial operations in the entire Andhra Pradesh. During the Second Five Year Plan Rs 79.331 lakhs was spent and an expenditure of Rs 325.85 lakhs is envisaged during the Third Five Year Plan period.

Paper placed on the Table of the House

Before participating in National Malaria Eradication programme, anti-malarial operations were taken up on a large scale with the start of National Malaria Control Programme units in Andhra Pradesh. Subsequently with the change in the concept from Control to Eradication, the National Malaria Control programme in Andhra Pradesh was switched over to National Malaria Eradication programme in the year 1958.

In the National Malaria Central Programme in Andhra Pradesh 9 units were operating and each unit was expected to cover protection to one million population, exposed to the risk of malaria. Subsequently, in 1959-60 the remaining 24.5 million population was also protected with the establishment of 24.5 Hypo-endemic units.

In the year 1958-59 the initial step was to augment the existing National Malaria Control Programme units of which there were 9 in Andhra Pradesh, 3 in Telengana, and 6 in Andhra region. This phase-attack phase which is expected to last for 3 years, 1958-59, 1959-60, 1960-61 is in progress in the State and as expected the primary object is to obtain a totality of coverage. It is expected that every roofed structure in the entire Andhra Pradesh will be sprayed with DDT during this attack phase. Hereby the entire population of 31.5 million of Andhra Pradesh (population figures taken according to 1951 census) is protected under the National Malaria Eradication Programme.

From April 1960, the surveillance phase has begun and a surveillance organisation has been started in all the 31.5 units functioning in the State except in the 2 units which are functioning in the Agency area where a surveillance programme is to begin later. In this surveillance phase, each unit officer has an additional staff consisting of 26 surveillance inspectors and 100 surveillance workers. It is expected that each inspector will have 40,000 population and each worker will have 10,000 population under his care. Thus each inspector will have 4 workers under him. It is estimated that each surveillance worker will have to visit 2000 houses every fortnight regularly. The Surveillance worker has to make a house to house visit and record all cases of fever either at the time of his visit or during his previous visit. If he detects any such case, he administers antimalarial drugs to the person concerned and simultaneously obtains blood smears from the patient. If this smear which is later examined in the laboratory is found to contain malaria parasite, the patient is again contacted and treated with other special drugs so as to give him a radical cure.

788 surveillance Inspectors and 3,150 surveillance workers are attending to the surveillance organisation in addition to Health Officers and Zonal Officers.

Sri P Rajagopala Naidu: Is it a fact that mosquitoes are becoming resistant to DDT?

Sri P V Ryu: That is what the scientists say, Sir. I do not know.
Mr Speaker On the one side, you are allowing mosquitoes to grow by not providing drainage schemes, and on the other side you want to eradicate malaria. Are these two consistent?

Sri P V G Raju The Minister for Municipal Administration Mr M Narasinga Rao can tell you about it. I am sorry, I cannot tell Sri P V G Raju — I do not know from where the hon Member got the information. D.D.T. kills all insects.
