Mr Speaker Pattas have not been given—?

Smt Masooma Begum It is a different thing in every case, Sir. For instance, in Pedamajjipalem, the report as to the taking of land is awaited. So, like this, the delays are due to different causes. In Payakaraopeta, the lay-out plan is pending approval by the Director of Town Planning. In Manyapuratla, the lay-out was approved but it is pending with the Special Deputy Surveyor for demarcating the sites with owners and with the Special Revenue Officer for taking applications for assignment of the sites.

Mr Speaker You did not take back the lands owing to any circumstances?

Smt Masooma Begum There are certain formalities. For following the procedure laid down in the Land Acquisition Act, for assigning house-sites to Harijans, time is being taken and the land acquired cannot be assigned to Harijans immediately after possession, because so may formalities have to be performed.

Mr Speaker So, as early as possible, formalities will be completed.

Smt Masooma Begum Time taken in dealing with the land acquisition usually is from 8½ to 9 months.

So, the Government is acting against all principles of taxation. What is the examination of this Supreme Court judgment? What is the position? If that is the way, it is really bad.

Sri P Sundarayya Are we to conclude that the Law Department is superior to the Supreme Court or the Speaker of the House and the Government will persist in that attitude in future?

Sri N Ramachandra Reddy There is no question of persistence, Sir. We will implicitly obey the orders of the Supreme Court or any Court. We have to get it examined and we will have to consult the Department. Is it not? Then afterwards, it will be implicitly obeyed, there is no question of postponing or disobeying.

Mr Speaker I do not know why the Department has kept this matter for four months. Why should it be done so, when there was so much of discussion and it was settled that it is a separate fund, separately taxed and separately collected for a specific purpose. Why the Law Department keeps it without caring for the discussion in the Assembly and the ruling of the Speaker: It amounts to the contempt of the Speaker. Therefore, the Government has to do it immediately.

Sri N Ramachandra Reddy: It will be taken note of.
