ANNOUNCEMENT

re: EXPUNGING OF CERTAIN PORTIONS FROM THE ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Speaker:—Under Rule 251 of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly Rules, I have to announce to the House the following:

There has been an ugly controversy with regard to the motive of the Governor who is the Chancellor of the Andhra University in rejecting a panel of names sent by the Committee and in requiring a fresh panel from them, in which the Vice-President of India and his son have been involved.

I give a ruling that the President of India or Vice-President of India should not be dragged into any controversy unless there is irrefutable and admitted proof like a document or speech or statement. Mere allegations or insinuations without basis or proof should not be allowed.

Of course, Mr. Sundarayya, the leader of the Opposition did not say anything directly against the Vice-President, but the insinuations and other things involve him also directly or indirectly and also they lower the dignity and prestige of the Governor and a Justice of the Supreme Court of India, the latter being a member of the Committee. Therefore I have decided to expunge from the proceedings and records all references to the Vice-President and his son and also the allegations on one side and the replies given by the Ministers as well as the Governor in his letter. This I have done at the request of the Chief Minister, the Leader of the House.

The question is, whether I can do so, after the session is closed. I can do so. I have done already in two cases. In the case of Vysas, when one hon. member used some defamatory language on their petition I have ordered expunging of those portions from the records after Expunging of certain portions from the Assembly Proceedings,

some years. Those speeches were made in Kurnool and I ordered expunging of all those portions after we came here, i.e., after the Andhra Pradesh Assembly was formed. In another case also, after the Assembly was closed, I have ordered expunging of the defamatory words regarding ‘Vaddars’ used by another hon. member. Also I find a case in Lok Sabha in which the Minister for Finance made rather undignified references about the Comptroller and Auditor-General. After the Parliament was closed, there was a representation made to the hon. Speaker of the Lok Sabha by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, and the offending words were all expunged. Therefore, there are precedents and under those precedents I have ordered expunging of all references in our proceedings and records to the Vice-President of India and his son.

I had to do this without informing the House beforehand, because the proceedings were going to the Press and then they would become permanent record. Of course, there is no obligation on me either to inform the House beforehand. The Rule only says,

“If the Speaker is of opinion that a word or words has or have been used in debate which is or are defamatory or indecent, or unparliamentary or undignified,”.

At any rate, I found them as ‘undignified’, if not ‘defamatory’

“he may in his discretion, order that such word or words be expunged from the official report of the proceedings of the Assembly and all consequential alterations made in such report.”

So, that I can do at any time—

“. . .and make an announcement in the Assembly of the fact of his having made such order.”

So the Speaker has to announce to the House the fact of his having made such order of expunging, and it is not necessary that I should do so before making such an order. So I have made the necessary order and I am now announcing to the Assembly the fact of having made such order.

It is very unfortunate that the “Deccan Chronicle” should have published a false report of Sri Sundarayya’s speech. It is very unfortunate, very regrettable. Mr. Sundarayya did not refer to the Vice-President at all. That is what he said and also he wanted to contradict the “Deccan Chronicle’s” version. It is the “Deccan Chronicle’s” version that is the cause of all subsequent troubles. Really it is very bad. I give a warning to the “Deccan Chronicle” that they should be careful.

One thing:—The “Deccan Chronicle” expressed regret. I hope the House will accept the regret.

Expunging of certain portions from the Assembly Proceedings.

The Deputy Speaker will be the Chairman of the Committee.

Assembly Proceedings.

House of Commons publish convention.

Publish proceedings.

Correct reporting is essential. Incorrect and false reporting is a serious offence. Using this speech for defaming some body is a scandalous misrepresentation of what had been said in the debate of the Assembly.

It has been brought to my notice that the 'Current', a weekly from Bombay, which has also circulation in the Andhra Pradesh State, has, in the course of publishing a series of articles under the title of 'Andhra-ki Baaten' published in its issue dated 31st May, 1961 an article from its special Correspondent entitled 'Pressure Politics reign supreme in University affairs', meaning thereby the Andhra University.

It contains certain passages which constitute a false report of Sri P. Sundarayya's speech.

It is an absolutely false report and a wilful misrepresentation of the speech made by Sri Sundarayya on 18-3-1961 on the floor of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly. Sri Sundarayya did not use in his speech any of the words attributed to him in the passage underlined above. His tape recorded speech, which is a part of the proceedings of the Assembly, does not contain any such words and it is a conclusive proof of the contents of the said passage being absolutely false. The publication of the said passage is a scandalous misrepresentation of what had been said in the debate of the Assembly.

Show cause why action should not be taken against him for close May 31st, speech expunge cheap notoriety. His correspondent and the Correspondent also has sent a letter of apology. They also published an apology in the Current of the 12th July 1961.

In the third article of our series entitled ‘Andhra-ki-Baaten’ published in our issue of May 31, 1961, written by a Special Correspondent, entitled ‘Pressure Politics reign supreme in University affairs’, our correspondent made reference to a debate on the floor of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly on University affairs in that State.

By his letter dated June 19, 1961, the Secretary of the State Legislature, has forwarded to us a copy of the proceedings of Shri A. Kakswara Rao, Speaker of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly of the same date.

The Honorable Speaker states that Shri P. Sundarayya did not use the words attributed to him by our correspondent. He further states that a tape record of the speech, which forms part of the proceedings of the Assembly, does not contain the words objected to. The Speaker has asked us to show cause why we should not be proceeded against for breach of privilege and contempt of the House.

We have checked this matter with this special correspondent, Mr. P. C. Jain of Hyderabad. Our correspondent admits having made an unintentional mistake, which is perhaps understandable in view of the fact that the ‘Deccan Chronicle’ also appears to have made a similar mistake with regard to the same speech. The ‘Deccan Chronicle’ expressed its regret for having published an incorrect version of this speech. This correction escaped our attention.
Adjournment Motions ré:
Closure of Colleges and Schools in the Twin Cities.

We have already written to the Hon’ble Speaker admitting our mistakes for which we unhesitatingly express our unconditional regret.—Editor. I hope the House will accept this.

The House unanimously accepted the apology of the Editor of the ‘Current’.

ADJOURNMENT MOTIONS RE:—CLOSURE OF COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS IN THE TWIN CITIES.

The adjournment motion given notice of by Sri Ravi Narayana Reddy, Sri CH. Rajeswara Rao and Sri B. Dharmabiksham reads as follows:—

“Under the rules of procedure of our Legislature, we move the following motion of adjournment:—

‘This House stands adjourned to discuss the following matter of urgent public importance:

‘The University authorities and the State Government have closed down all the educational institutions in Hyderabad and Secunderabad consequent on the college students’ agitation against the fee increase by the University. The demand of the College students of the Osmania University area to bring their fees to the old level is quite a genuine and legitimate demand. The University authorities could and should have solved the problem in favour of the students. The situation arising out of the closure of the colleges and schools is extraordinary and is causing immense alarm and agitation to the people and parents of the State.’”

Sri Vavilala Gopalakrishnayya’s adjournment motion reads thus:—

“I hereby give notice of my intention to ask for leave to move a motion for the adjournment of the business of the Assembly under Rule 63 of the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly Rules for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely:—

‘The closure of the Colleges and Schools in the Twin Cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad, by the Government and the Osmania University.’”
Similarly, Sri Rajagopal Naidu's adjournment motion says:

"I beg to move for an adjournment of the business of the Assembly for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the grave situation arising out of the indefinite closure of Colleges and Schools in the twin cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad."

Mr. V. Rajagopal Naidu:—

Similarly, Mr. V. Rajagopal Naidu's adjournment motion says:

"I beg to move for an adjournment of the House for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance, namely, the grave situation arising out of the indefinite closure of Colleges and Schools in the twin cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad."

Sri S. B. P. Pattabhi Rama Rao:— Sir, I shall explain the matter. The Vice-Chancellor of the University is away from the City. He is expected to return tomorrow evening. If you can take up the matter day after tomorrow, it would be better. I shall get all the latest information by then.

Sri V. Rajagopal Naidu:—

Mr. Speaker, the Law Commission has submitted a report containing recommendations for legal reforms. The report emphasizes the need for organic unity in the legal system. The Law Commission has suggested that legal terminology should be simplified and made more accessible. The report also recommends the introduction of up-to-date legal concepts, such as legal point of view, organic unity, etc. These recommendations are intended to enhance the effectiveness of the legal system and promote justice.
The Deputy Speaker:—Sri Lakshman Das will second it.

On a point of order, Sir, can the Member propose a motion to second the second of the Order of the Day? In my view, the second is in order.

Last time a point of order was raised. I shall give him as much time as he wants.

My friends:—The Governor of this State, M. Viswanath, has taken this opportunity to address the State legislature. He has outlined his proposals for the development of the state. The Governor has recommended certain policies to improve the standard of living of the people. He has also suggested measures to improve the education and health facilities in the state.

You are a gentleman. I thank you. Information is correct. You contradict it as follows:

Mr. Speaker:—The whole point is that.

Mr. Speaker:—On a point of order, Sir. The Vice-Chancellor deny this whole thing.

Mr. Speaker:—Point of order.

Any criticism against the Government is relevant, not against the Vice-Chancellor. I must tell you, Mr. Leader of the opposition, any jurisdiction in spite of the advice of the Government. What have we to do with the Andhra University?
Mr. Speaker:—I must only give a ruling that we have no jurisdiction with regard to actions of the Chancellor in appointing a Vice-Chancellor. Therefore, let us go to the next point. You can only accuse the Government that what they have done is wrong. You have sufficiently said that and they are going to reply. That is all.

Mr. Speaker:—I doubt it.

You can only accuse the Government that what they have done is wrong. You have sufficiently said that and they are going to reply. That is all.
persons were appointed by the Syndicate, one person by the Chancellor. The first was a Supreme Court judge; another is the Vice-Chancellor of a sister University. The third was a person appointed by the Chancellor. Such influence cannot be avoided; and so the question arose. Can we accept this panel advice or reject it? There were suspicions, rumours. The main question was, What have we to do now? Must we reject it?

The Chancellor was not a good person. The case was rejected. Let us go to the next point.

The main question was, How do we proceed. The main problem is to ensure that the panel advice is accepted.

Motion on Address by the Governor

(Translation)

The Governor, addressing the Assembly on 25th July, 1961, laid before the House a Motion on various matters. The Governor outlined the salient features of the programmes for the year and emphasized the need for a realistic approach to education. He mentioned the importance of autonomy in the field of education and stressed the need for a clear definition of its boundaries. The Governor also spoke about the need for better coordination between the Government and the elected representatives.

The Governor highlighted the importance of passing a new Education Bill, which would provide autonomy to educational institutions. He said that the Bill would enable institutions to manage their own affairs more effectively. The Governor also spoke about the need for a strong curriculum and the importance of quality education.

The Governor concluded his address by reaffirming the commitment of the Government to improve the educational system and to ensure that the needs of the students are met. He urged the representatives to support the Motion and work towards a better future for the education system.
Mr. Speaker:—So long as lakhs of rupees are paid by the Assembly to the University, the Vice-Chancellor ought to, with great respect and consideration, understand what the opinion of this House is: The Vice-Chancellor has also a great duty and responsibility to understand what the opinion of this Supreme Democratic institution of the State is, because it is sanctioning lakhs of rupees to him and to his institution. Therefore, it is wrong....

In the present context, it is noteworthy that the current policy of compulsory languages, as well as the current policy of school examinations, should be reviewed and revised. The current policy of compulsory languages is not working as intended, and it is causing significant problems for students and teachers alike. It is essential to have a balanced approach to language education, and the current policy should be revised to ensure that it is working effectively.

In the case of school examinations, the current system is not effective in assessing the true abilities of students. The current system of standardized tests does not provide a true measure of a student's abilities, and it is time to consider alternative approaches to assessing student performance.

In conclusion, it is important to review the current policies of compulsory languages and school examinations. A balanced approach to language education is essential, and the current system of standardized testing is not effective in assessing student abilities. It is time to consider alternative approaches to these policies to ensure that they are working effectively.

Motion on Address by the Governor. 25th July, 1961.

The Governor moved the Address in Council.

Mr. Speaker, I have the honour to move the Address in Council for the year 1961. It is a great privilege and honour to address this august assembly, and I am grateful to the Members for the opportunity of doing so.

Our country is a land of diverse cultures and languages, and it is important that we work towards a united and harmonious society.

In this context, I would like to highlight the importance of education in our society. Education is the key to unlocking the potential of our people and ensuring a brighter future for our nation.

We need to invest in education and provide opportunities for all our children to receive a quality education. This will not only benefit the individuals concerned but also contribute to the growth and development of the nation as a whole.

I would like to express my appreciation to all those who have contributed to the development of our country in the past.

We must continue to work towards a brighter future for our nation, and I am confident that with the collective efforts of all of us, we will achieve our goal.

Thank you.
