(3rd) Ejection of Speaker

(1962 July 7th)
Election of Speaker
20th March, 1962

Sri Mohd. Ismail (Samalkot) — Mr. Speaker, Sir: I rise to congratulate you on your unanimous election as the Speaker of this august Assembly. I am very happy that our hon. Leader of the House, Sri N. Sanjiva Reddy, while congratulating you, said that you would give up affiliations to the party as soon as you have been elected Speaker to this great Assembly. The hon. Leader of the Opposition, Sri P. Sundarayya, while congratulating you said that opposition members should be given more opportunities of expression of opinion. We feel that the opposition now in this Assembly is so strong that they are almost equal to the members of the party in power. So, if the rule that the opposition members should be given more opportunities is implemented, perhaps, the members belonging to the party in power would be deprived of opportunities of expression; and there will be many occasions here in this Assembly where every hon. Member of this House would like to speak and express his opinion. Therefore, Mr. Speaker: you as the guardian of this House should lend both your ears and eyes to both sides — to the opposition and to the party in power. Sometimes there is a controversy that the Speaker always lends his ears and eyes to the opposition. Here, you must divide your ears and eyes to both sides equally so that the members of this side also may speak and express their opinion. I hope that the controversy between the ears and eyes will not be there and you will be able to lend us your ears and the opposition your eyes. So you may divide your ears and eyes equally. Both the sides should be equally treated and I hope that you will give equal opportunities to every member of this House.

With these few words, Sir, I express my hearty congratulations on your election as Speaker, of this August Assembly.

Nothing gives me more pleasure than to be able to congratulate you upon your unanimous election as Speaker of this House and I must also congratulate the Leader of the Opposition Party who is equally responsible for this decision. As Speaker, if I may be permitted to say so, you have no politics and it is equally true that the only privilege that a Speaker can claim is that he is not privileged to speak because we speak through your experience at the bar and your equipment in the field of Law and as an able advocate. I hope and trust that all these things will stand you in good stead in the discharge of your duties as Speaker. As a matter of fact, I know several issues may arise in this House and as an able advocate you would be able to appreciate the viewpoints of all sections and your decisions will be in keeping with the dignity of this House. To you I would like to appeal that you will be the custodian of the rights and privileges of this House and you will be alert and zealous in protecting our rights. With these few words I take my seat.

* Mrs. Roda Mistry:—Mr. Speaker, Sir, while congratulating you I also take this opportunity to say a few words. You may think I have overstepped the limit a little in expressing them. Collectively, Sir, we women all over the world demand equality of right. But individually, we all realise that there are certain privileges we require to come up and to take our place with the men in the world. Especially the women of India because of our cultural heritage and of the domination of men over us for all these decades, want a little encouragement and as Srimathi Rukmani D:vi said, we were thoroughly spoilt by late Sri Kaleshwara Rao, as such we appeal to you, Sir, to give us a few privileges such as allowing us to read out as we are not well-versed in speaking extempore and a little more time and consideration. We welcome you most heartily as Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Election of Speaker 20th March, 1962

Mr. Speaker Sir, I am extremely happy on this mellow occasion to congratulate you on your unanimous election as Speaker of this Assembly. As a Speaker, you know, Sir, very well, that you have to maintain neutrality and be impartial to all the members and to protect their rights and privileges. The members are also quite aware that they have got a reciprocal duty to co-operate with the Chair and carry out the functions of this House smoothly. So if both the Members, especially the Opposition Members co-operate with the Chair, the functions of this House will be carried on smoothly and there will be no friction, and everything will go on peacefully. I wish that everybody will co-operate with the Chair. At the same time, I have to say that the Speaker may encourage the members who have newly come to the Assembly, whenever they participate in the deliberations of this House. I also hope that the Speaker will make best use of his wide knowledge as a legislator and as a lawyer and may God bless him with wisdom and long life to discharge his duties ably and efficiently. Thank you, Sir.

Election of Speaker

Mr. Speaker: Hon. Leader of the House, Hon. Leaders of the Opposition Parties and Hon. Members of the House:

You will all kindly pardon me if I address you in a foreign language and not in our own mother tongue. I would certainly try to forget English language as far as possible during the course of the debates in this House and try to carry on in Telugu itself. But, for the time being, I am not prepared to speak in Telugu, and, with your permission, I proceed to speak in English.
Various hon. members of this House have spoken various things, complimenting me in a number of ways. I do not know how far I deserve these compliments. It is true that in my own humble way I did service to our country, and I will continue to do so in future also. However, whether I deserve these compliments or not, I will certainly strive hard to enhance the reputation of this House and keep up the dignity of this House and try to fulfil the expectations expressed by various hon. members.

It is true that on occupying this Chair I cease to be a member of the party to which I have the great privilege of belonging. But I assure you all that I will not forsake the cardinal principles for which that party stands, namely, truth and justice. I will try, so long as I occupy this Chair, to uphold all those principles. The role I have undertaken is a very responsible and onerous one, I realise. I do not know how far I will be able to acquit myself so as to enhance the reputation of this House. But if all the hon. members of this House extend to me their hearty co-operation and good will, I am confident that I will be able to discharge my duties successfully and efficiently.

The various predecessors who occupied this Chair were really eminent men, capable men. They had set up very good traditions; and, for my part, I will certainly keep up all those traditions and, if possible, improve on them and try also to establish new traditions for future generations to follow.

Here I will be failing in my duty if I do not refer to the services rendered by the late Sri A. Kaleswara Rao who was my immediate predecessor. As you all know, he was a great and good man, with a cool head and a warm and large heart. He was one of the architects of this State and the first to occupy this Chair after the State of Andhra Pradesh was formed. He was a very good scholar in Telugu and an eminent lawyer during the days when he practised at the Bar, who could unravel any intricate points with clarity of thought. He had a noble bearing of his own. At times, by his witty statements he would make everybody laugh in the House; and, as most of you who were members of the previous Assembly were aware, he would wind up a heated and stormy debate with a cript statement and with a loud and hearty laughter,—a laughter which opened his lips as also his heart. There was not a single unpleasant occasion as far as I know; and I must say that he had discharged his duties very conscientiously and very efficiently. He had the good fortune to have the hearty co-operation and good will of all the hon. Members of the House. It is very unfortunate that this venerable old gentleman passed away. It is certainly a great loss to us; but one consolation is that he died full of honours and glory.

I would only appeal to you to extend to me the same kind and hearty co-operation and good will and make my task less difficult in discharging my duties.

So far as the composition of this House is concerned, it is not much different from that of the previous one except that the number of the ruling party has gone down and the number of the Opposition Parties has gone up. With the addition in the Opposition parties, not only they are vying in strength, but I must observe that they have also gone up in quality, particularly with the addition of Turimela and Tenenti—please excuse me if I do not mention their names. As I look round from one side to another of the House, I find a number of young men with bright and blooming faces with sprinkle of a few old and experienced people also. Only let me hope that these young men will not prove to be very boisterous and uncontrollable.

So far as the Congress Party is concerned, with an eminent and stalwart statesman and able administrator Sri Sanjiva Reddy as its leader who contributed not a little for the development of the State, I am sure the Congress Party will effectively face and tackle the Opposition and make headway for all-round improvement of the State. I expect very lively and interesting debates in this house in future. I hate dullness and monotony in any form anywhere. I expect every hon. Member of this House to be alert and put life and spirit in the debates and deliberations of this House, for, otherwise, the proceedings would be very dull and drab. I expect to witness scenes such as those between Lord Sri Krishna and the Hero Arjuna in Gayaopakhyanam. I know that often Sri Sundarayya, an experienced and able debater and parliamentarian, will raise many interesting points for decision, and in his own inimitable cool, calculated and indefatigable way, try to convince us. He is a gentleman, who is perhaps doing more for his party than any body else. So far as Mr. T. Viswanatham is concerned, he is a leader follower, a giant who needs no followers to fight his battle. Perhaps, in my opinion, it's better to fight single-handed than fight with an indisciplined army. So far as the Swatantra party is concerned Sri Latchanana, the leader of the party, is a very capable and experienced politician and debater. The members of this party attach great importance to moral values and in the performance of Dharma. I am sure they will acquit themselves very honourably and successfully. So far as the Independent members are concerned, they will kindly excuse me if I observe that I consider them as an assortment of odd elements and it would be better if they can so fuse themselves together as to form a compact and well-knit group. So far as Vavilal is concerned, I do not know at present to which party he belongs, but I know that with his fund of information and knowledge he will not certainly give me any respite, and give me and also the Ruling party any amount of trouble; but I consider him not only as a valuable asset to this House but to any House that he may be asked to be present. Many hon. Members are strangers to me and I am also a stranger to many of them. But let us all try to acquaint ourselves with one another, and more than that, let us try to understand each other, for I consider that the root cause for the many calamities in this world has been the failure to understand each other.

I should certainly be polite and courteous to every hon. Member of this House and try to earn their goodwill and esteem; but at the same time I must tell you that I will be firm and stern in discharging my duties. All the hon. members will certainly have freedom of speech consistent with the code of conduct and discipline. It would be better for them so far as freedom of action is concerned, to restrict it to the minimum extent possible. I should certainly very zealously and scrupulously try to safeguard the rights and privileges of the hon. Members.

So far as hon. Lady Members are concerned, I will be failing in my duty if I do not say a few words about them. They, by their presence, not only add to the beauty and colour and dignity of the House, but I am sure that by their wise counsels and their practical suggestions they would contribute towards the development of the State. I will certainly be very chivalrous to them and I expect other hon. Members of the House to be chivalrous to them. I for my part would try to discover and recognise worth wherever it is;—not only discover it but value it, and see that it shines. There is nobody here who is not inspired by zeal to contribute something towards the development of this State. I would only appeal to all the hon. Members to so conduct themselves as to enhance the prestige and dignity of this House.

Let those who watch the proceedings of this House go away with the impression that the proceedings of the House are carried on in a high and dignified manner. It shall give me supreme satisfaction, if, at the end of the term, we go away with the feeling that every one of us has discharged his duties honestly and sincerely. I appeal to every hon. Member to act his part well and add to the glory and dignity and reputation of the House.

Various hon. Members of this House have put forward various suggestions. I will certainly bear them in mind and try to see that justice is done. I will be fair and just in all my dealings with the hon. Members of this House.

Thank you all, gentlemen.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. Speaker—I have to inform the hon. Members that we meet again at 8.30 a.m. day after tomorrow (22nd March 1962) as tomorrow (21st) happens to be a holiday on account of Holi.

Hon. Members may be aware that the Governor's address is scheduled at 4.00 p.m. to-day in the Jubilee Hall. I request all the hon. Members to attend the function.

Thank you very much.

The House then adjourned to meet again at Half Past Eight of the Clock on Thursday, the 22nd March, 1962.

Mr. Speaker, Sir, it is with a heavy heart that I say these few words. We, the women members of the House knew unbound sympathy from Sri Kaleswara Rao. There was not a problem, big or small, that we did not rush to him with and he always dealt with them with the utmost sympathy. His vision, and thinking endeared him to all of us. I don’t think more words could be found to show my feelings for his loss. It will always be felt in our hearts.

*Sri T. V. Raghavulu (Gopalapuram):—Mr. Speaker, Sir, I rise to an institution than an individual. He was considered to be one of the with his feelings of patriotism, he endeared himself to one and all and he was the champion of the weaker sections in the society. But for his kind patronage and financial help, Mr. Kurmayya, the eldest of our leaders would not have been what he is and as a Harijan, I feel it my duty to acknowledge that he has placed us under a heavy debt of gratitude to him. We used to refer to him as the good Samaritan of Vijayawada. To talk to him is both an education and pleasure. To know him is a privilege. I had the good fortune of coming in contact with him personally, when he was Speaker. Once or twice I met him in his office room, not in connection with the work as legislator, but as a humble student of law I wanted to take his help and assistance. You know in those days the controversial case regarding the reservation of seats for Harijans and Giri’s appeal in the Supreme Court and all that was there and I wanted to take his help and study the case and really he was a genius. I thought he had no touch with law, but he had given so many cases, he had cited so many cases and when I referred to those cases, I could understand that he was more than genius even in the matter of law. He was a zealous fighter for the rights of women: you know he was primarily responsible for the legislation on anti-bigamous marriages: he was also responsible for the legislative measure on prohibition of Dowry and all that. So he endeared himself to one and all and he had dedicated his life in the cause of the country. May his soul rest in peace. With this I take my seat.

Mr. Temporary Speaker: I associate myself with the sentiments expressed by the Leaders as well as the Members of the Assembly. We lost a very great leader and no doubt, his services cannot but be remembered because he sacrificed so much for the country in various directions. One outstanding thing I know is that he fought for Visalandhra and I know he was also in Madras in connection with that. Apart from these things, few members knew the association I had with him or rather we worked together in 1926 when the Andhra University Bill was on the anvil and my association with him was from 1926 and we worked together in the Legislative Assembly. I need not elaborate much because already Members have expressed their feelings. The only thing we have to do is that we should commemorate his memory in a very fitting manner as considered by the Leader of the House and other Members of this House. We mortals will have to leave sometime or other. What remains is just what we have done, but nothing else. Gentlemen, with these few words I fully support the Resolution moved by the Hon’ble Leader of the House.

Now by way of passing the Resolution, I request the Hon’ble Members to stand for two minutes.

The question is:

“That this House places on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of Sri A. Kaleswara Rao, former Speaker, Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly and conveys its deep sense of sympathy to the members of the bereaved family.”

The Resolution was carried nem con. all the Members of the Assembly standing.

Mr. Temporary Speaker—I adjourn the House to meet at 8-30 A.M. tomorrow 4-45 P.M. the 20th March, 1962.

The House then adjourned.
