Government Resolution

re Chinese aggression

[6th December, 1963,]

Crop loans issue is a matter of concern. The Agriculture Department has been receiving complaints from farmers about the delays in sanctioning loans. It is the responsibility of the District Agricultural Officers to issue Zinc Sheets and District Agricultural Officer Permit to ensure that the loans are sanctioned on time. The decision to allocate sanctioning powers to the Junior Agricultural Officers is a step in the right direction.

The Irrigation Department is responsible for the distribution of water to farmers. The sanctioning powers of minor irrigation tanks are to be decided by the Irrigation Department itself. The Central Co-operative Banks have their own capital and reserve money. Share Capital contributes to the season's needs. DAOs, District Agricultural Officers, are responsible for ensuring that the loans are sanctioned on time.
The 3rd Five Year Plan includes officers of the department and industries. Agriculture includes industries, forestry, and related industries. The American Constitution is changed in this map of the 3rd Five Year Plan. The American Constitution is included in this survey. The Agricultural Survey includes the Third Five Year Plan and includes the American Constitution. The Third Five Year Plan includes the American Constitution.

Dr T V S. Chalapati Rao (Vijayawada-South) Sir;

I thank you very much at the outset for giving me an opportunity.

It is really very gratifying that every section of the House is unanimously supporting the all-comprehensive resolution sponsored by the Leader of the House, Dr. N. Sanjiva Reddy.

While doing so, it is really regrettable that some of the Opposition parties, as pointed out by Sri K L Nara-simha Rao, are trying to convert this into a platform He is under the impression that it is being converted as an anti-communist platform. But I am afraid that he is forgetting that he is also trying to convert it into an anti-right reactionary platform. The need of the hour is to sink all differences as we are asserting that we have been doing since these two months and to fight and rise as one man to meet the menace of aggression on the borders.

The bone of contention appears to be about the question of non-alignment. The communist friends seem to be under the impression that the so-called right reactionary elements in the country are trying to dilute if not altogether give up the policy of non-alignment, while the so-called right reactionary elements seem to be under the impression that the communists are trying to make a lot of things and that Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru is yielding to the pressure of the communist elements. In fact, none of the two are correct, because, today, the question of alignment or non-alignment does not arise.

As you know, Mr. Speaker, Sir, some nations were aligned to fight the communists, and other nations were aligned themselves to fight the so-called capitalists. But we have chosen a path rightly under the dynamic leadership of our Prime Minister not to belong to any of these groups, not to align with any of these already aligned groups of some pre-conceived ideas and idealisms. We want to steer clear both of these blocks. But what has happened? Unfortunately, China, claiming to be a very progressive nation, a nation fighting for the underdog, has attacked a country which is trying to peacefully work for the benefit of the underdog. Thereby China itself has chosen to blow off the policy of non-alignment. Today, the fact that a non-aligned nation has been attacked by a country belonging to the Communist block shows that they are trying to drive us into the so-called imperialist
But luckily for us, our Prime Minister is there and he says we still stick up to the non-alignment policy, even though a so-called Communist country has chosen to attack us. Therefore, I am afraid that this is not the time for us to divert our attention and time on these things which are rightly taken care of by the leader of the country.

Anyhow, I am inclined to say, —rather I am reluctantly constrained to remark, why some of the people—I do not belong either to the right reactionary element or to communists, I belong, I need not say, to the Congress party— are doubting the genuineness or sincerity of the Communist party. It is not without any reason or sufficient ground, because, while addressing a public meeting at Vijayawada, the Editor of Vishalandhra saith that since sometime consultations and parleys have been going on between the Indian Communists and the Chinese Communists. The Chinese Communists believe that the policies of the Indian Government are influenced by the imperialist investments in this country for the execution of our five-year plans. Our Indian communist friends want us to believe that they have been trying in vain to convince the Chinese communists that our policies are not at all influenced by the imperialist investments in our country. Whatever may be the fact or the truth about it, the fact remains that there are some consultations and parleys going on between the Indian and Chinese communists across the borders before the aggression was launched on the frontiers. What does it show? It shows that there is a sort of kinship established either consciously or unconsciously between the two wings of communism in this part of the country. Further, as you know, Mr Speaker, the communists believe that ends justify means Therefore, persons like me, though, as I said already that I do not belong either to the right reactionary element or the communist, are inclined to believe that because ends justify the means, is one of the dicta of the Communist party, perhaps they are adopting this resolution also as a shelter or means.
But whatever it is, we are happy that the communist party has adopted a very good resolution aligning them­selves with the fighting forces of this country. Therefore let us not waste any of our energies either outside the House or inside the House, but concentrate only on one question, namely, the question of driving the enemy at the earliest.

Thank you very much.

What is the purpose of these actions?
With all the other papers in the State, RTM also joined hands. I hope “Vishalandhra” paper also will fall in line with all the other papers in the State. Maps are ready for showing the situation. The Middle Kingdom’s aggression has come as an unwelcome guest. The government is fully prepared to face the challenge.

implementation or to be put in place. It is out of place. It is a matter of concern to the press to focus on this issue. I do not know whether we will be able to do it, as the Chinese aggression has created differences of opinion and press. It is a matter of concern to focus on this issue. I do not know whether we will be able to implement or to put it in place. It is out of place.
Mr Speaker — Now, in view of the Hon’ble Chief Minister’s Speech, may I know whether Messrs G. Latchana and Vavlala Gopalakrishnayya are pressing their amendments.
Sri Vavilala Gopalakrishnaiyah I beg leave of the House to withdraw my amendment. The amendment was by leave of the House, withdrawn.

Sri G. Latchanna I beg leave of the House to withdraw my amendment.

The amendment was by leave of the House withdrawn.

Mr Speaker Before I put the Resolution to the vote of the House, I would like to say a few words.

Something of the fervour and eloquence which you showed in your speeches have enamoured me and I am very much tempted myself to make a speech. But consistent with my responsibilities, I will content myself saying only a few words. It is really a matter of pride and pleasure for me to observe that during the discussion which has taken place during these three days not a single dissenting voice was heard or a discordant note struck on the main theme of the resolution before the House. We all know that many have played a great part in the country's struggle for freedom and I expect every one in this country to play an equally great part for its preservation. I for my part refuse to believe that there is anybody born in this country, whatever his political philosophy or creed may be, will descend to the level of quisling in this hour of country's crisis. Next to God, if I am asked to choose between my country and everything else that is dear and sacred to me, I will choose my country and consider no sacrifice too great for maintaining its freedom, integrity and honour.

Lastly while appealing to you to translate into action all your fiery, fervent and eloquent expressions of love and zeal for the country, I would request you all to stand for a minute and pass this Resolution and, while doing so take a solemn pledge each with himself that he will honour this Resolution by implementing it in word deed and spirit.

Mr. Speaker The question is

1. “This House condemns the Chinese Government’s betrayal of the goodwill and friendship that our country has been uniformly and consistently extending to them and their open violation of our borders and massive invasion of our territory throwing to the winds not only the principles of Panch Sheel, that had been agreed to between the two countries as the basis of sound international relations, but every other standard of civilized international behaviour”

2. “This House fully supports the resolution of the Government of Andhra Pradesh placing the entire resources of the State in men, money and material at the disposal of the Government of India and pledges its wholehearted support to the Government of India in the stand they have taken against the Chinese Government”

3. “This House heartily approves the decision taken by the Government regarding free education to the children of the fighting men at the front and also offer of land to them or their families”

4. “This House records its profound appreciation and tribute to the valiant officers and men of our defence forces who are fighting the enemy against heavy odds and extends to them the greeting and good wishes of the people of the State”
5 "This House pays its respectful homage to the gallant officers and Jawans who have laid down their lives in defending the integrity and honour of our country."

6 "This House notes with appreciation the spontaneous response of the people of the State who have rallied in support of the Government of India and our gallant armed forces in their massive effort to throw out the invader and calls upon every individual in the State, whatever be his position in life, to do his duty and offer every sacrifice in this hour of crisis and trial and to continue to do so however long and hard the struggle may be."

The Resolution was adopted, all Members of the House standing.

Mr Speaker  The House will meet at 8–30 a m tomorrow

1–30 p m  The House then adjourned till Half Past Eight of the Clock on Friday, 7th December, 1962
