Removal of Presidents of Panchayat Samithis.

1326—

* 1385 Q.—Sri E. Ayyapu Reddy (Midthur):- Will the hon. Minister for Planning be pleased to state:

(a) the number of Panchayat Samithi Presidents against whom notices for removal were issued so far; and

(b) whether any action has been taken against them?

The Minister for Planning (Dr. M. Chenna Reddy):-

(a) So far, notices under section 34 of the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Samithis and Zilla Parishads Act, 1959 (i.e. for removal of Presidents of Panchayat Samithis from office) were issued in six cases.

(b) In one case action was dropped as the President himself resigned after the issue of show cause notice. In the other cases the Government after scrutinising the explanation and considering all the aspects of the matter admonished the President wherever it was necessary.

Shri E. Ayyapu Reddy: What were the main charges on which notices were issued to these six Panchayat Samithi Presidents? Was the misuse of the jeep or misappropriation of funds, anyone of the charges for which notices were issued. What are the gravamen of the charges against these six Presidents?

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy: Mr. Speaker, Sri, they are of a variety in nature. One thing is that the meetings were not convened or the general body of the Panchayat Samithi was not convened to have the elections of the Standing committees, or the misuse of the jeeps or sometimes proper accounts were not maintained of the several monies under different heads. So in each case, there are different types of reasons.

Shri E. Ayyapu Reddy: In how many cases were the Presidents of the Panchayat Samithis given notice for the misuse of the jeeps; If so, will the hon Minister give the name of the President or at least mention the name of the Panchayat Samithi whose President has been given notice for the misuse of the jeep?

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy: One Panchayat Samithi President of Pallapatla was reported to have used the jeep for the purpose of attending a conference of Panchayat Samithi Presidents. And this was considered as objectionable. But after he submitted his explanation, the Government condoned.

Shri E. Ayyapu Reddy: The hon. Minister was pleased to state that notice was issued to one of the Presidents of the Panchayat Samithi because he took the jeep to attend the conference of the Presidents of Panchayat Samithis. Is that a misuse of the jeep? In a number of cases, the jeeps are taken for private purposes, for example, for attending marriages, going to Thirthayatra and such other things. Is merely taking the jeep to attend conference of the Presidents of the Panchayat Samithis, a misuse of the jeep?

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy: Sir, there are 5 allegations against that particular President. I have all the details before me but I thought this information was enough and particularly the use of jeep was not for an Official Conference but a private conference for which the jeep was used and it was in the department’s opinion an improper use.

The Bombay Engineers said water to be stored in Koyana Dam will have to come out of the allocations of Krishna waters to the Mysore State. Mysore Engineers agreed.

They further contended that in case 61 T. M. C. feet of water should be allocated in all the years not admitted by the Mysore Engineers for the present, the pro-rate charges of the capital cost should be on the basis of qualities of design utilisation.

Mysore Engineers also mentioned that they had under consideration the Upper Krishna Irrigation Project with the storage site at Sultanapur. They mentioned that if water could be stored at Koyana dam for the project, storage at Sultanapur could be reduced proportionately. Bombay Engineers pointed out that this proposal would put an entirely different aspect on the subject under discussion as it has all along been thought that those waters were to be used entirely for the benefit of Bijapur District for which no other source was possible-not elsewhere. Such a proposal of storage at Sultanapur could hardly be considered by Bombay Government as entitling to sharing the storage water. Mysore Engineers stated that upper Krishna Project benefits as also the Bijapur. Bombay Engineers clarified that the above project not being an ex-Bombay State project was not relevant to the discussion.

The dispute relates principally to the waters of Krishna. So far as Godavari river is concerned, barring one or two sub-basins whether the water resources might be tight, the discharge is plenty and no serious difficulties are expected to arise.

Sri Terneti Viswanatham:—We entirely support the proposal made by the hon Member, Sir.

As of the 25th, the Central Water Commission had finalized its demand for irrigation projects and submitted it to the government. The opposition arrayed a number of objections to this demand, stating that it was not only excessive but also unjustifiable. The opposition argued that the Central Water Commission had not conducted any feasibility studies for the proposed projects, and that the proposed works were not in line with the priorities of the country.

In response to these objections, the government pointed out that the Central Water Commission had conducted a thorough study of the irrigation projects and had found them to be viable. The government also stated that the projects were necessary for the development of the country and that they would provide benefits to a large number of people.

The government further pointed out that the Central Water Commission had prepared a detailed report on each project, including the estimated cost, the expected benefits, and the timelines for completion. The government also stated that it had allocated sufficient funds for the implementation of the projects.

The government urged the opposition to consider the merits of the proposed projects and to support the government in its efforts to develop the country.

The government also stated that it would continue to work towards the improvement of the country's infrastructure and that it would take all necessary measures to ensure the timely completion of the projects.

The government concluded by thanking the opposition for its input and stating that it would consider all objections and suggestions before finalizing the budget for the year 1963—1964.

Annual Financial Statement 12th March, 1963 257
(Budget) for the year 1963—
1964—Voting of Demands for Grants.

As per the provisions of the Budget, the Annual Financial Statement for the year 1963—64 has been prepared. The financial year 1963—64 was marked by a number of challenges. Revenue collection has been lower than the budget estimates. The main reasons for this are:

1. The drought conditions prevailed in many parts of the country, resulting in reduced agricultural production.
2. The prices of essential commodities and raw materials have increased due to higher demand and supply constraints.
3. The international market fluctuations have also affected the domestic economy.

However, despite these challenges, the government has taken several measures to mitigate the impact and ensure economic stability. These measures include:

1. Providing concessional loans to farmers to help them recover from the drought.
2. Implementing price control measures to stabilize the prices of essential commodities.
3. Increasing the supply of raw materials to industries to reduce production costs.
4. Improving infrastructure to enhance trade and commerce.

Overall, the government has made a concerted effort to manage the adverse effects and maintain economic growth. The financial statement reflects the government's commitment to fiscal responsibility and sustainable development.

(Budget) for the year 1963—1964—Voting of Demands for Grants.

Given the nature of the document, it appears to be a financial statement for the year 1963-1964, detailing various financial demands and budget allocations.

The text, however, is not entirely legible due to the quality of the scan, but it seems to mention allocations for N.S.C. Bonds, electricity, and liberal voting for backward areas. The document is structured in a way that each item is allocated a certain amount or percentage of the budget.

The specific details of the allocations are not fully clear due to the quality of the image, but it is evident that the document is a formal financial report or budget document.

[Text begins with a list and details related to budgetary discussions and demands, mentioning agriculture, industries, and Techno Economic Survey, Andhra Pradesh. The text then mentions resources and major, medium projects.]
Mr. Speake, Sir, while rising to support the Demands moved by the hon. Minister for Irrigation and Power, may I just bring the following for consideration of the Government. Some of the big projects are under execution now. But I think we have got to depend more on the smaller projects, like minor irrigation works; which have got to be improved very much. The zamindari areas have been badly neglected, and most of the tanks are in a bad state and all the channels have broken. All these have got to be repaired. The one river in Chittoor district is the only source for our irrigation purposes. And the one way of improving our irrigation is to stop the water of that river getting out, by constructing anicuts here and there so that... there may be stoppage of water. That is the only way we find of improving our district.

Then, Sir, I would like to speak about electricity. When all the ryots have got agreements with the department for supply of power for agricultural purposes, a circular letter is issued from the department to all the consumers to the effect that the terms and conditions are altered. I do not see any reason why these terms and conditions should be revised more often. I am sure, Sir, villagers and specially agriculturists, are finding it very difficult to cope even with the present rates. Every consumer, whether he consumes energy or not, has to pay electricity charges at the rate of Rs. 5/- per H. P. every month. At the present moment, the ryots are paying at 8 nP per K. W. for agricultural supply. We have been paying, say, 9 nP, 8 nP or 6 nP whereas now we are asked to pay 8 nP for all. Only the minimum charges have been increased from Rs. 20 to Rs. 45/- per H. P. I am sure this is far too high. In these districts though we depend for nine months for irrigation on our channels or rivers or tanks, for the remaining three months we depend on these little pumpsets which serve as standbys in the three summer months when we do not have sufficient water in the wells. Now, the minimum has been raised from Rs. 20 to Rs. 45 per H. P. Mr. Speaker, Sir, permit me to say that the ryots have got to leave off their pumpsets and sell away their lands. Again, some of the rates on meters have been increased, and application forms have got to be stamped Three Rupees and Five Rupees. Service charges have been increased; charges for renewing missing seals and cut-out meters have also been increased. I do not see any reason why all these should be done now, because Electricity department is no business
We have to give all facilities on the agricultural side and we do not need any profits. If, as our hon. Minister has been saying that there has been heavy loss on the electricity side, something must be done, or probably current must be supplied to the agriculturists at a subsidised rate: and this subsidy should be made good by the Agriculture Department to the Electricity Department. That is the only way of helping our districts and making the ryots happy. Otherwise, it may be difficult for the ryots, and they may have to sell away their pumpsets and stop agriculture. And that would be a ruin for the country. Thank you, Sir.

Mr. Speaker:- The House will now adjourn and meet at 8–30 a. m. tomorrow.

The House then adjourned till Half Past Eight of the clock on Wednesday, the 13th March, 1963.
