re: Death of Dr. Bajendra Prasad, former President of India

Issued on 1st March 1963
Mr. Speaker: — Hon. Members, I heartily associate myself with the sentiments expressed by the Leader of the House and the other Leaders of the Opposition Parties. Rajen Babu, a great and good soul has passed away from the land of the dying to the land of the living. After Mahathmaji's death, this is the greatest calamity that has fallen to our country. It is my good fortune of first having darshan of Rajen Babu in the year 1934 when he visited Nandyal where I was practising as a lawyer and the speech of Rajen Babu which I heard in the Victoria Reading Room at Nandyal, carrying the message of the Congress, is still ringing in my ears. It is only after hearing the speech of Rajen Babu I joined the Congress and continued to remain a Congressman. Perhaps there are very few great leaders in our country who not only preach but practise the preachings and the ideals of Mahathmaji. Rajen Babu has always been trying to practise Gandhiji's ideals and I feel Rajen Babu was an embodiment of not only saintly disposition but peace, love, truth and non-violence. I consider his demise not only a loss to this country but a great loss to the world at a time when the world is torn asunder by hatred and jealousy and the world itself is threatened with complete extermination. It is a great misfortune that leaders like Rajen Babu who could have contributed towards the peace of the world are passing away one after the other. As the Leader of the House has expressed, if we could only try in our own way to tread in the footsteps of Rajen Babu and great leaders like Mahathmaji we would at least to some extent contribute towards the peace of our Country.

I had the good fortune, when Rajen Babu was here for recouping his health, to sit by his side for nearly 15 to 20 minutes. On three or four occasions I was sitting by his side and speaking to him; he made me feel that I was perhaps one of his own kith and kin and at the same time I had an impression that he was a great man and a very great soul and I was really moved by what he was telling. It is really unfortunate that he should have suddenly passed away from our midst and created a big void in our country.
It is a loss, as I said, not only to this country but to the entire world. I only pray that his soul may rest in eternal peace and bliss.

Now I would request the hon. Members to stand for a minute in memory of the departed soul.

(All members stood in silence for a minute).

Mr. Speaker :— The question is:

"That this House places on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, former President of India and conveys its deep sense of sympathy to the members of the bereaved family."

The Resolution was adopted nem con, all members standing.

[ 9-30 A. M. :— The House then adjourned till Half past Eight of the clock on Saturday the 2nd
March, 1963.]
