Oral Answers to Questions 8th March, 1966, 343

Who is to be included in the instructions for the disclosure of assets and liabilities of close relatives?

The explanation is that the instructions for the disclosure of assets and liabilities of close relatives include brother, brother-in-law, sister, sister-in-law, son, son-in-law, daughter, daughter-in-law, father, grandfather, son, grandson, etc. However, the question asks about the communication table.

The minister and his family say, wife, son, daughter like that.

The list all embracing means the minister and his family say, wife, son, daughter like that.

But anyway if the hon. Member wants I will place a copy of the instructions on the Table of the House.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy:—I have already answered the question.

(b) Details of the gallant deeds performed by the concerned police officers:

(1) Sri Mohammed Jaffer, P.C. No. 4313, Hyderabad City.—On 4th July, 1963. Constable Mohammad Jaffer was on points duty at 'Taj “T”' junction, Abid Road in Hyderabad City. At about 0910 hours a car driver disobeyed the traffic signal and proceeded towards the main road and stopped. When asked to reverse the vehicle, the driver reversed his vehicle in a careless manner and dashed against another vehicle. When Constable Mohammed Jaffer approached the offending driver, he smelt liquor and grew suspicious. Suddenly, the car driver tried to speed away. In order to stop the vehicle he slung desperately to the front door of the car. The driver then drove the car away at a very high speed disobeying all traffic signals. Undeterred by the speed of the car and at great personal risk, constable Mohammed Jaffer hung to the car. The driver turned left towards Chapel Road and then right towards the Public Garden. He then hit the constable on his face and hands and with the help of the other persons in the car succeeded in dislodging constable Mohammed Jaffer and sped away. Constable Mohammed Jaffer fell on the road and sustained multiple injuries. In the meantime the car was chased by some members of the public and a police jeep. Finally one of the chasing cars and the police jeep managed to stop the fleeing car and recovered from it 3 bottles of brandy and 300 bottles of tincture with a high alcoholic content.

In his desperate bid to stop the offending car driver, constable Mohammed Jaffer exhibited conspicuous gallantry, presence of mind and a high sense of devotion to duty at great personal risk.

(2) Sri M. Gopala Rao, Sub-Inspector of Police, Guntur district:—On the 17th November, 1964 a rowdy who had been convicted and fined for assaulting a Tahsildar forced his way into the chamber of the Judicial Magistrate, Tenali. He wiped out a wagger with a view to attacking the Magistrate. On seeing this, the Court peon and other persons present rushed out of the chamber shouting for help. On hearing the alarm, the Warder of the Sub-Jail went into the chamber, but the assailant kicked him and he fell down. The rowdy was then about to stab the Magistrate, when the Sub-Inspector, Mikkilineni Gopala Rao rushed into the chamber. Though unarmed, he tackled him and threw him to the ground and after a struggle succeeded in disarming him.

Sub-Inspector, Bikkilineni Gopal Rao exhibited conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in tackling the armed assailant and saved the life of the Magistrate at great risk to himself.

(3) Late D. Munuswamy, P.C. No. 450, Railway Police district, Vijayawada:—On the 9th March, 1964 at about midnight an insane person ran amuck at the Renigunta Railway station and attacked a ticket collector with a 6 inches knife. The knife fortunately struck the book in the hand of the ticket collector. The mad man then attacked a Railway Police Constable who was on duty at the passengers entrance. Constable, Munuswamy who had just been relieved from guard duty at the Railway station rushed up to the spot on hearing the commotion and saw the man raise his knife to stab the constable. Without regard for his own safety, constable Munuswamy sprang on him and grappled with him in attempt to wretch the knife, out of his hand. The madman however, stabbed constable Munuswamy in the chest and he succumbed to the injury soon after.
Oral Answers to Questions. 8th March, 1966.

Police Constable Munuswamy showed great courage in trying to apprehend an armed lunatic and sacrificed his life in saving the life of his comrade.

(4) to (6) Sri Kuralagunda Thimmarasu, Sub-Inspector of Police, Sri Kandula David, Station Officer, Tadpatri Fire Station, Sri Kayala Peddappa, Fireman No. 26, Tadpatri Fire Station:—

On the 2nd September, 1964, three women went to a piece of land in the middle of the river Pennar for agricultural operations. Soon after the river started rising and before the women could realise the danger, the water had risen to more than waist level where the women were standing and was much deeper in the channels between them and the banks. The women clutched some thorny shrubs and began to shout for help. On receipt of the information Sri Kandula David, Fire Station Officer, immediately rushed to the spot with a mobile tank unit and Shri Kuralagunda Thimmarasu, Sub-Inspector of Police also came with some constables. Sarvasri David, Thimmarasu and Fireman Kayala Peddappa plunged into the river with lifebouys to rescue the three helpless women. Undeterred by the strong current of the flood water, the three officers managed to reach the women. Sarvasri David and Thimmarasu first rescued two women while the Fireman remained behind to hold the third who was in a state of exhaustion. Then the two officers returned to rescue the third women. On their way back they also rescued two other persons who had been stranded by the flooded river.

During this operation Sri Kuralagunda Thimmarasu, Sri Kandula David and Sri Kayala Peddappa exhibited gallantry and devotion to duty of a high order.

Oral Answers to Questions. 8th March, 1966.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy: — "The answer has been approved by the Minister".

Sri Tenneti Viswanatham: — It is absolutely insufficient information.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy: — As I see, in my office for instance in the one laid on the Table of the House, it is said that contributions received through the Chief Minister, other Ministers and the Chief Secretary to Government in General Administration Department up to 18—11—1965 is Rs. 15.01 lakhs and odd. My office tells me that contributions received by my office is Rs. 19 lakhs. I shall give the exact figures in the next 2 or 3 days. This will give a misleading impression. The question has been approved by the Chief Minister.

Sri Tenneti Viswanatham: — The rules of the House require that any paper should bear the authentication of the Minister placing it.

National Defence Fund is collected without giving receipts. The Defence fund is collected
Mr. Deputy Speaker:—They have already given instructions. Let him make out a specific case that so and so collected so much amount.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy:—His question gives a misleading impression. I do not agree. If Mr. Rajgopal Naidu puts a question and brings it to my notice, I will certainly enquire.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy:—I do not think after Pakistani aggression, newspapers have collected anything. It may be after Chinese aggression in 1962.

Sri K. Brahmananda Reddy:—So many agencies had control over agencies after the Chinese aggression. So many agencies collect information.

Mr. K. A. R.:—It was handed over at a public meeting.

(b) how it was distributed?
The Minister for Finance, (Dr. M. Chenna Reddy):—(a) The actual quantity of stainless steel sheets allotted to the State for 1964-65 from barter imports was 77 (seventy-seven) tons. Apart from this, the Government of India placed at the disposal of the State Director of Industries and Commerce free foreign exchange to a tune of Rs. 19.88 lakhs out of which Rs. 8,91,750 was utilised for import of 162 tons of stainless steel sheets directly by the units concerned.

(b) The allocations referred to above were received in two half-yearly instalments and the distribution was also made on half-yearly basis. For April/September, 1964 period 70 units were allotted stainless steel sheets and for October, 1964/March, 1965 period 7 units received allotments.

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy:—The only report is that they have made a search in certain units, but the actual report with the details and the action taken by them is not made available to us.

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy:—Foreign exchange position is not very bad. Our position is bad. There is a big demand and the demand for foreign exchange in the allotment is much more than what we are really getting.

*Balance paid in cash.
According to the rules, no maximum amount of advance that could be made to agents was fixed. It was decided to advance an amount of Rs. 50,000 at a time and security for more than that amount was obtained. Second advance also was given after obtaining reports from the employees of the Board that first advance given to the agents had been utilised by the agents for the purchase of kapas. Necessary precaution was taken at the time of payment of further advance.

Sri Pillalamarri Venkateswarlu:—When was it advanced?

Dr. M. Channa Reddy:—In the month of May 1965. Subsequent to that, a decision was taken by the Khadi Board that the trading operations which the Khadi Commission was doing in our State be taken over in May 1965. Then, the Board has decided to appoint agents on behalf of the Board who possess good experience in cotton trade for the purchase of good variety of kapas in the season and to supply in the shape of lint after ginning to the Board’s production centre so that production work might not suffer and also the agents could purchase good variety of cotton in the season at cheaper rates. Accordingly, the Board appointed six agents who are dealers in cotton business, according to the list which is placed on the Table of the House.

Oral Answers to Questions.

...purchase... or... correct... security cannot be considered as a wrong thing... ordinary trading operations where personal monies are handled by individuals. This is also one of the methods that is employed in making purchases. Security cannot be the... one of the methods used. That may not be always the only method. I quite agree, Sir, and concede. This is one of the methods used. In one case, there is a big gap and the amount is due. So, I do not persuade myself to say that the whole system was wrong. There is some delay, that is... There is some delay... There is some delay... I will now ask the Khadi Board to expedite the matter.

...First point... misunderstanding... It was decided to advance an amount of Rs. 50,000 at a time and second advance and security for more than that amount was obtained. That is the first thing. Second advance was also given after obtaining reports from the employees of the Board that the first advance given to the agents had been utilised by the agents for the purchase of kapas...
Sir, the employees of the Khadi Board sometimes, in this case, or in any other case, have or have not given right report. That may be a fact. I am not trying to cover that, but the position is they have been utilised by the agents for the purchase of kapas. If some Regional Officer or somebody who is there has given reports that so and so has utilised this amount... extra amount... adopt... action... security... default... notice... security... legal adviser... consult... legal action... wrong case... delay... expedite...

Oral Answers to Questions.

Dr. M. Chenna Reddy — I thank the Leader of the Opposition, Sir, for having made a very lengthy speech. I was not able to understand it fully. I am not a lawyer and I do not know the material, which caused confusion. I think Chairman and members' employer's certificate should be utilized. It is not possible for me to go a step further and say that it is not desirable to utilize the certificate of members. It should not take 3 years to give the certificate. He ought to have got the certificate.

Mr. Deputy Speaker — He is not allowing me to answer. Shall I seek your protection, Sir?

Mr. Deputy Speaker — I shall furnish the information. That certificate itself is a utilization of the purchase. There is no doubt about that and that is being enquired and I have already submitted that.
Dr. M. Chenna Reddy:—At least from the records, it is obvious that they have not. I have already submitted that I shall write to the Khadi Board asking them to expedite.

Dr. A. Chenna Reddy:—I do not have these details, Sir, of what has been stated before the Estimates Committee at the moment. I shall only look into them and try to expedite.

The necessity for a new structure is indicated in our first report. The existing anicuts at Dowlaishwaram which were constructed 110 years ago cannot be depended upon for giving a suitable supply of water for irrigation to the millions of acres of land under its command. The remedial measures suggested could only minimise the risk of damage to the structure during the next few years. Therefore it is imperative that a new structure across Godavari should be constructed as soon as possible.

The inauguration of minor irrigation tanks would require Rs. 14,50,000 as a large portion of the submersion area. A surplus weir was proposed to be constructed, and a legal notice for the silt clearance was intended to be published. However, due to unforeseen circumstances, the process was delayed.

Serious consideration was given to the employees' demands, and a call for attention motion was made. The employees' grievances were taken seriously.

The clearance of silt in irrigation tanks would also be necessary for the smooth functioning of the irrigation system.
clearance has been obtained from the State Government. The same is indicated in our first report.

As indicated in our first report, I have given the entire report.

Sri Vavilala Copalakrishniah:—That is all report Sir.
Mr. Deputy Speaker:— We have originally scheduled to meet for 2 hours. Now, I have still 6 speakers and the concluding speech is also to be finished today. The reply will be somewhere tomorrow morning. If the House is prepared to extend time, I could give time for these speakers also: otherwise, I have to call for the concluding speech now. I think an extension of time by 30 to 40 minutes is required. If the members are prepared I could call the other speakers; otherwise, I have to request Mr. Ramachandra Reddy to conclude the debate.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— The hon. Member feels that it should be extended till 6.30 P.M. or so. That is all right.

Sri Tenneti Vasanatham:—Just I want to know one thing. I see from the agenda circulated here that the reply of the hon. Minister will be given tomorrow morning. The understanding yesterday when we agreed upon for the evening session was that the reply should be over and the voting should take place next day because many of the members would not be present. Now something has happened. I am told that the Chief Whip did not consult even the Leader of the Opposition in changing this. I suggest that you will have to say something about it to the Chief Whip.

Sri Tenneti Vasanatham:—It is the duty of the Chief Whip to find out what is happening and if he is not made aware of what is happening, it is much better he does not attend this House. On the other hand when once it has come to his knowledge that the change in the programme is likely to take place, it was only proper on his part to have consulted the opposition. That is what I said. But he says that 'I was not even consulted.' It is true. But when once he came to know about it, it was his duty to go and consult the opposition. That is one of the chief privileges of the Chief Whip and he should not lose his privilege. But I would request you to formulate some traditions in this matter, otherwise everything will be in a state of uncertainty.

Sri A. C. Subba Reddy:—Sir, it is noted for future guidance.

2. For the information of the House, I shall deal with the salient features pertaining to these demands, touching upon the progress made so far on Irrigation and Flood Control Schemes and on our programme for 1966-67.

3. The Third Five-Year Plan is coming to a close on 31st March, 1966. The Plan contains 62 major and medium schemes. Out of them, 41 are spill-over schemes, 18 new schemes and the remaining 3 are flood control schemes. In addition to the above schemes surveys and investigation of irrigation projects and Engineering Research Programme are included in the Plan. The following schemes, which have not been approved so far by the Planning Commission for inclusion in the Third Plan, have been proposed as new schemes in the Fourth Plan:

(1) Vamsadhara Project.
(2) Panasamandivada Project.
(3) Guntur Channel Scheme.
(4) Gandipalem Project.
(5) Kavali Canal.

5. The additional potential that would be created during the Third Plan comes to 4.08 lakh acres, while the anticipated additional utilisation would be 4.06 lakh acres.

6. The total outlay tentatively proposed for the Fourth Five-Year Plan is Rs. 75 crores. Due to paucity of funds in the context of the present national emergency only Rs. 50.5 lakhs have been provided for the year 1966-67 as against Rs. 700 lakhs originally proposed for the implementation of various schemes under major and medium irrigation and flood control. This has resulted in providing funds only for the spillover schemes of Third Plan during 1966-67.
7. The annual plan for 1966-67 consists of 25 major and medium irrigation and flood control schemes, besides survey and investigation of projects and engineering research in the category of spillover schemes and one new medium scheme (i.e.), Ukkachettivagu Project in Mahboobnagar district.

(1) Nagarjunasagar Project.
(2) Tungabhadra Project High Level Canal.
(3) Pochampad Project.

(6) Kaddam Project.

NAGARJUNASAGAR PROJECT

9. Work on the Nagarjunasagar Dam and Canals is proceeding briskly under the accelerated programmes of construction launched upon in the second half of 1964-65. Under this accelerated programme, it is proposed to construct the Dam to plus 495 spillway level and to complete the excavation of Right Main Canal up to mile 57 with branches and distributaries in blocks 1 to 10 and 11 (part) and the Left Main Canal upto mile 44 with branches and distributaries in blocks 1 to 6 by June 1966 in order to create irrigation potential for 5.79 lakhs acres.

10. In terms of total work-load as per project estimates, the progress made so far is 85 per cent of masonry and concrete for the dam, and 48 per cent of excavation of main canals. The tunnel works on either side have been completed. Work on the excavation of branches and distributaries is in good progress. Excavation of field channels also has been started.

11. The expenditure incurred on the project up to the end of January, 1966 during the year 1965-66 is Rs. 15.26 crores and that from the commencement is about Rs. 100 crores.

12. Although the provision made for Nagarjunasagar in the budget estimate 1965-66 was Rs. 18 crores, the revised estimate was framed for Rs. 20 crores with reference to the Central assistance, actually sanctioned by the Government of India.
13. Schemes for preparing the land to utilise the water from Nagarjunasagar Canals for irrigation have also been taken up simultaneously, with a view to achieving the early realisation of irrigation benefits. The Commissioner for the Development of Ayacut is in charge of those works. It is proposed to carry out the reclamation work speedily with the help of bulldozers, 21 numbers of which have been received from the U.S.S.R., and put on the field. Number 13 machines from U.S.S.R. and 14 numbers from the U.S.A. are expected shortly.

14. In order to provide financial assistance to the ryots in the ayacut area of Nagarjunasagar Project to make their lands fit for cultivation, by the time water is let out, the Andhra Pradesh Land Mortgage Bank has programmed to distribute an amount of Rs. 830.90 lakhs as long term loans against which a sum of Rs. 167 lakhs has been distributed so far and it is expected that a further sum of Rs. 159 lakhs will be distributed by the end of March 1966. The scheme for providing short term credit is also under examination.

15. As the annual plan for 1966-67 is considerably smaller than the plan for 1965-66, the State Government could provide only Rs. 8.20 crores for the Project for expenditure in 1966-67.

TUNGABHADRA HIGH LEVEL CANAL

16. The scheme was started during 1956-57 for creating an irrigation potential of 1.19 lakh acres and is in the final stages of completion. brisk progress has been made on all important components of the project and such of the balance works as remain, in order to create a potential of 1.10 lakh acres before the ensuing monsoon, will be completed by June, 1966.

17. Against the additional assistance of Rs. 198 lakhs sought from the Government of India for acceleration of the works, so far Rs. 160 lakhs have been released. The total expenditure proposed to be incurred by the end of the Third Five-Year Plan is Rs. 1,514.03 lakhs, while an amount of Rs. 198 lakhs has been provided for the year 1966-67 for completion of the remaining items of works in all respects in the Andhra and the Board areas.

The Expert Committee has recommended schemes costing about Rs. 21.5 crores to control the flood problems in and around the Collaur lake effectively. The schemes recommended by the Committee are mainly for improving Upputuru costing about Rs. 8 crores, for flood moderating reservoirs across Budameru, Tammileru and Yerrakalva costing about Rs. 5.72 crores and for improving the drains as per original standards including excavation of straight cuts, in both Krishna and Godavari Delta areas costing about Rs. 7 crores. The recommendations are under consideration of the Government of India.

25. Minor Irrigation Programme:

(1) As Honourable Members are aware, the minor irrigation works have gained accentuated importance during the Third Plan, and have attained a great tempo, which is likely to continue for many years to come. This can be gauged from the fact that at present over 3,800 works are under execution, over seven hundred schemes are at various stages of sanction and over two hundred and fifty schemes are under investigation.
During the first four years of the Third Five-Year Plan, an amount of Rs. 1,279.00 lakhs was spent on Minor Irrigation Programme. For the year 1965-66, the original allotment for minor irrigation works was Rs. 450.00 lakhs, which has been subsequently raised to Rs. 507.15 lakhs.

The progress achieved under Minor Irrigation programme is detailed below:

(i) Restoration works.—During the Third Five-Year Plan period, restoration of 3,735 tanks of all capacities up to P.W.D. standards has so far been completed benefiting an additional area of 79,700 acres and another 3,198 works are under execution, which, it is anticipated, will bring irrigation benefits to an additional area of 1.07 lakh acres, besides the existing ayacut.

(ii) New Minor Irrigation Schemes.—During the Third Five-Year Plan several new minor irrigation schemes, in addition to those that spilled over from the Second Five-Year Plan, were taken up. So far, 312 schemes have been completed in all respects, benefiting an additional ayacut of 81,705 acres. Further, 499 schemes with an ayacut of 2,27,458 acres, are in progress, under which a partial potential of 52,620 acres has already been created.

(iii) Drainage Works.—During the Third Five-Year Plan, 134 drainage works have so far been completed, which have relieved a total area of 3,71,475 acres from frequent submergence. Besides these, there are 75 schemes under execution which are designed to bring relief to an area of 3.37 lakh acres.

(4) Lift Irrigation Schemes.—Under the programme of emergent lift irrigation schemes, a tentative list of 184 schemes was sent to the Government of India, but later on, after detailed surveys, two lists of 109 and 30 schemes of each were sent up to them for approval. The Government of India gave approval to 79 schemes out of the first list of 109 schemes and released an amount of Rs. 44.00 lakhs for this programme. The total cost of these 79 schemes is Rs. 86,66 lakhs with an aggregate ayacut of about 41,000 acres proposed under them. Approval of the Government of India to the second list of 30 schemes is still awaited.
Each of the schemes from the approved list of 79 schemes was again scrutinised and 72 schemes, which could be easily completed and commissioned by June 1966, were selected and put on ground. Similarly, the second list of 54 schemes was also reviewed and 75 out of these 54 schemes were selected and put on ground. Thus, at present 54 irrigation schemes, all costing Rs. 98.50 lakhs with an aggregate area of 32,500 acres, have been taken up and 75 schemes will be completed before next monsoon season and the remaining one scheme by December, 1966. The balance of the 75 schemes are under re-examination and these as well as other new feasible schemes will be considered next year.

5. Acceleration of Minor Irrigation Work in Drought Affected Areas.—In view of the widespread drought conditions prevailing in the State due to the unprecedented failure of last monsoon, minor irrigation programme in the affected areas has been accelerated. An amount of Rs. 75 lakhs has been proposed for expenditure during the months of January, February and March, 1966 in these areas with a view to creating employment potential.

6. Basin-wise Master Plan.—In connection with the formulation of Fourth Five-Year Plan, great stress was laid on the preparation of the Master Plan for the irrigation basins with a view to knowing the water potential and irrigation potential in each and every minor sub-basin. As the work involved in collecting the basic data and preparation of integrated basin-wise water plan is very large and could not be entrusted to the existing staff, the Government have sanctioned additional staff of one sub-division for each district in the State and the staff is now attending to this item of work.

7. For the year 1966-67, the total provision made for Minor Irrigation Programme of P.W.D. is Rs. 4.00 crores.

26. The Honourable members are aware, irrigation has been given the highest priority in the Third Plan. As the Third Plan will be coming to a close, we can look back with satisfaction on our performance during the past five years in this sector. The prospect of realising benefits in the next few months from major projects, such as Nagarjunasagar and Tungabhadra High Level Canal, which have been under execution for several long years and over which we have invested substantial outlays, marks the beginning of the fulfilment of our cherished hopes. A sizeable addition to the irrigated area of the State will be made by these projects, as also by the medium and minor irrigation schemes. Andhra Pradesh, which has been playing such a significant role in providing foodgrains to other States, will be in a position to make further contribution to the overall food production in the country.

Minister for Irrigation and Agriculture
