CONDOLENCE MOTION

DESMISE OF SRI A. C. SUBBA REDDY, HOME MINISTER

Mr. Speaker:— I request hon. Sri P. Thimma Reddy to move the Condolence Motion.

The Minister for Agriculture (Sri P. Thimma Reddy):— Sir, I beg to move the following motion:

"That this House places on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of Sri A. C. Subba Reddy, Minister for Home, and conveys its deep sense of sympathy to the members of the bereaved family."

Mr. Speaker:— Motion moved.

Sri P. Thimma Reddy:— Sir, the sixty year old Sri A. C. Subba Reddy was born on March 1st, 1907. Hailing from a patriotic family, Sri Reddy inherited all the nationalist fervour of the older generation. As long back as in 1937, in his thirties, Sri Subba Reddy joined the Congress and took a leading part in the freedom struggle, then sweeping the county under the banner of Gandhi.

Sri Subba Reddy has been closely associated with the municipal administration of Nellore town. He was the Chairman of the Nellore Municipality for nearly three decades between 1936 and 1960. Indeed a record period to be proud of. During the tenure of his office, the town witnessed many sweeping changes and better civic amenities. Between April 1957 and January 1960, he headed the T. T. D. Board.

Sri Reddy was elected to the Legislative Assembly in 1957. He took keen interest in the proceedings of the House and on problems pertaining to municipal administration. He always spoke on the floor of the House with authority and candour. When the 14-
Member Sanjivayya Ministry took office in January 1960 Sri Subba
Reddy became the Minister in charge of Large scale Industries,' Mines, Industrial Trust Fund, Commerce, Housing and Municipal Administration. During 1962 General Elections, Sri Subba Reddy was returned to the Assembly from Rapur Constituency, Nellore district. In the Sanjeeva Reddy Ministry, he held the P. W. D.
Portfolio. During the tenure of his office he imparted a new-found impetus to the implementation of cheep power and irrigation schemes specially minor irrigation schemes. In the Brahmananda Reddy Ministry, he retained the same portfolio and later Agriculture Ministry.
At the time the State was passing through drought conditions, he was instrumental in launching many relief measures in conjunction with the Revenue Department.

During the recent elections, Sri Reddy was again returned from Rapur Constituency, Nellore District.

re: Demise of Sri A.C. Subba Reddy, Home Minister.

Sri A.C. Subba Reddy, Home Minister, was known for his strong principles and his commitment to the people of Andhra Pradesh. His leadership was marked by a deep understanding of the region and its diverse needs.

As a Home Minister, he was instrumental in the development of High School education in the state. He was also a proponent of the struggle period, fighting against exploitation and feudalism. His efforts were aimed at providing education to the masses, particularly those from the rural areas.

Despite his short tenure, his contributions have left a lasting impact on the state. He will be remembered for his dedication to the people and his commitment to social justice.

May his memory remain a source of inspiration to all.

Sri K. Prabhakara Rao (Bapatla):—Mr. Speaker, Sir,—late Mr. A.C. Subba Reddy was a very big man—big in body, big in heart, and big in mind. There are two types of people in this world—those that can make a simple problem or a simple issue a complicated one. Those who can make a very complicated problem look very simple.

Sri A.C. Subba Reddy belongs to the second category. It was some time ago—two or three years back, when Mr. Sanjiva Reddy was addressing an audience, he remarked, "The problems are there, have been there for 20 years; they look big or they look small according to..."

Condolence Motion:
re: Demise of Sri A.C. Subba Reddy,

the stature of the people that tackle them.” Likewise what is the method, what is the way in which Mr. Subba Reddy made the problems look small. That is according to me – he brought to bear upon any problem a human touch; he is not concerned with the Acts or G. Os. or whatever technical objections there were, he always attacked a problem from a human angle: laws are created to bring the greatest good to the largest number of people and according to him, if any law, or if any G. O. comes in the way of serving that purpose, the G. O. must go, the law must go, but not the purpose. That is how he tackled all the problems that he confronted.

Another important feature in Mr. A. C. Subba Reddy was in dispensing justice, in doing favours, in helping everybody; he never showed any favouritism; a man known to him, well-known to him, or not known at all – everybody that came to him for any help – got help from Sri A. C. Subba Reddy in the same measure. There is no differentiation. When a congregation of 50 or 60 people were around him we never felt that he was showing a special favour to any particular individual. He is always a common man’s man; he is not a man specially reserved for any special occasion. As a matter of fact, while I was hearing the hon. Members that we are wishing that God may bless his soul with peace, I was just wondering whether it was necessary because our way of thinking says that those that die with unfulfilled wishes, with the desires still unfulfilled those souls will be restless even after death. But according to me he never had any wishes. He took things in his stride; he got into office with a smile, he left the office with a greater smile. So he led a selfless life; he never hankered for anything and if he had died, he died a full man.

Another thing I would like to submit before the House is that quality that endeared him to the common man; the common man found the fulness of his aspirations in Sri A. C. Subba Reddy. He was as a matter of fact, an incarnation of all that the common wanted and that being so, he was loved by everybody, by both the friends and enemies as well.

I entirely agree with all the sentiments that were said in this House, I request that the sympathy of this House be conveyed to the bereaved family.

Condolence Motion:

re: Demise of Sri A.C. Subba Reddy, Home Minister.

There is some kind of nobility magnanimity, grandeur in all that he did. In Central Jail and the Central Camp Jail, there was a sense of dignity and respect. A.C. Subba Reddy was a Home Minister, and his death is a great loss to the state. There is some kind of nobility magnanimity, grandeur in all that he did.
Condolence Motion: 21st September, 1967.

re: Demise of Sri A.C. Subba Reddy, Home Minister.

The question is:

"That this House places on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of Sri A. C. Subba Reddy, Minister for Home, and conveys its deep sense of sympathy to the members of the bereaved family."

The motion was adopted NEM CON all the members standing in silence for two minutes.

Mr. Speaker:—Today’s questions will be taken up tomorrow.
The House is adjourned as a mark of respect to the late Sri A. C. Subba Reddy.

(The House then adjourned till Half-Past-Eight of the Clock on Friday, the 22nd September 1967.)
