CONDOLENCE MOTION
or:

1st March, 1937.

Mr. Speaker, — We shall strictly adhere to the conventions established in this House.

Ruling — Hon. Sir Mohammad Ali Khan Raza, Asst. Speaker, proposed the following as a motion:

"That this House places on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of His Field Marshal General Aiff. Haq, Nawab Sir Mir Osman Ali Khan Bahadur, the Nawab and 7th Regent of Hyderabad, in the house of the Nawab and 7th Regent of Hyderabad and his family in deep sense of sympathy to the bereaved family."
The Nizam took a personal interest in preserving the world famous Ajanta Basindwar, an achievement which ranks as one of the greatest in archeology.

He started one of the earliest slum clearance schemes and created the Improvement Board which transformed many slums into planned colonies, which enhanced the beauty of the City. In 1916, he established the Hyderabad Civil Service College for recruiting young men by competitive examination to serve the different services of the Government. The scheme also included the training of the officers of the police and the municipal service. In 1921, he took the momentous step of opening the University from the Pragati, and in 1923, he inaugurated the Road Transport and Railway system and became a pension in the direction. He took an active interest in all the activities and works of the Nizam,
In deep sorrow, I offer my condolences to his successor Nizam Mahbub Ali Bahadur, the new Nizam, and his son H.H. the Prince of Nasir, Mir Hinghat Ali Khan Bahadur, Anamjah, and Mir Shahjat Ali Khan Bahadur, Moolajjah, and his daughter Shohada Fatima and all members of his family.

Dr. Rajendra Prasad, President of India, has ordered that the offices of the H.H. the Nizam of Hyderabad be closed with due respect and dignity. The President has expressed his deep sorrow and has conveyed his condolences to the Nizam and his family.

The government of India has also ordered that the offices of the Nizam be closed with due respect and dignity. The government has expressed its deep sorrow and has conveyed its condolences to the Nizam and his family.

In his memory, India has lost a great Prince and a leader of the former rulers of the princely states.

As a mark of respect to the departed Nizam, the President has decided to keep the offices closed for three days from 31st January 1967 and three mourning days were observed throughout the State of Andhra Pradesh.

I offer my condolences to his successor Nizam Mahbub Ali Bahadur, the new Nizam, and his son H.H. the Prince of Nasir, Mir Hinghat Ali Khan Bahadur, Anamjah, and Mir Shahjat Ali Khan Bahadur, Moolajjah, and his daughter Shohada Fatima and all members of his family.

Sir M. R. Ajsequent—Mr. Speaker, Sir, the time is said to be a creature of circumstances, so also leadership is surely a product of circumstance. If some men of forebears were always put their faith in somebody else and depended on his leadership, guidance and help, people had only faith in the knowledge and if the king was a good ruler, people would be happy; if the king was not, people were unhappy. So, when we follow the same line of leadership we should always remember this fact. Now, the circumstances have changed. This is the time of the British substrata and there is a need for us to make a change of leadership. We should have the courage to do so. In the past, we should have taken care of our circumstances. If we had done it, the Nizam might not have been a king. If we had done it, the Nizam might not have been a king. Once we take care of our circumstances, we should have the courage to do so. In the past, the Nizam might not have been a king. Once we take care of our circumstances, we should have the courage to do so. In the past, the Nizam might not have been a king. Once we take care of our circumstances, we should have the courage to do so. In the past, the Nizam might not have been a king. Sir,

As the result of a recent advice to His Majesty by the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, it has been decided to propose a new Prime Minister for the United Kingdom. In accordance with the advice given by the Prime Minister, I have been approached by the new Prime Minister, Sir (later Viscount) Hope, and have accepted the position of Prime Minister of the United Kingdom.

I ambboxd that the new Prime Minister will be able to bring about a new era of progress and prosperity for the United Kingdom.

PS: In the meantime, I have been informed by the new Prime Minister that he will be unable to travel to the United Kingdom immediately due to mechanical and financial problems. He has therefore asked me to act as Acting Prime Minister until he is able to take office.

The new Prime Minister has also expressed his gratitude to the old Prime Minister for his invaluable service to the nation.

Yours sincerely,
