Condolence Motion re: demise of Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao.

SRI A. MADAN MOHAN:— Mr. Deputy Speaker, Sir, while sharing the sentiments of this House and also agreeing with the Leader of the House and the Leader of the Opposition about the Resolution that has been moved in respect of Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao, I may say that if we have to pay tributes, there were so many parts of life, where we have to confine ourselves in actually expressing our tributes either for him or for any personality. But it is really unfortunate that even on occasions like this, people would like to express or to give vent or make up and express their opinion for consolidation of integration. It is really unfortunate. As my colleague said, the Fazil Ali Commission Report is sufficient for this. If we never take this opportunity to try for political capitalisation, it is really unfortunate that the Leader of the House has not paid real tributes to him.

It is really painful that the Government has not even cared to give state honours to eminent personalities like Madapati Hanumantha Rao. Some of these people try to shed crocodile tears and try to take advantage of any after his life. It is not a pity on people but for the people themselves. If we don't discharge duties actually in such situations, it would be unfortunate. It is exactly the conduct in our political life and public life that is making the people think of us. It should inspire the objective. Our political life and conduct of public life should not mean something else and this is the occasion where it feels necessary to express my views. Why should we drag ourselves to the great man who had lost his life for small political considerations and try to take advantage of this political issue. I may again say that this House will take note of the sentiments. I know him right from my childhood. Let us take lessons from him. Let us take some of the teachings of his teaching. He was one of those who always believed in seeing what he had meant or otherwise thought. So if we think that he had not paid, in other words, I think that he had not paid for this, it is to me again the same reason why we will say that in our public life, not only to hypocrisy, but at the same time in this democratic set up, let us be very positive and objective. This and the thinking, I am sure, is going to really reflect his soul in peace. In our daily conduct and in our political conduct this type of thinking would greatly enrich us. I once again share the sentiments of this House and pay my respectful condolences to his family and relatives. Thank you.

Condolence Motion re: demise of Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao.

We, the members of the House of Assembly, deeply grieve the untimely demise of our Dear Leader, Honorable Member of the House, Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao. His untimely death has caused great sorrow to all of us.

We recall with deepest respect the services rendered by him to the State and the people. He was a great leader, a statesman, and a devoted public servant.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and the people of the State. We pray that the soul of our beloved leader may rest in peace.

Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao, a great leader, a statesman, and a devoted public servant, will always remain in our hearts.
Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER : I rise to associate myself with the sentiments expressed by members on the demise of Shri Madapati Hanumantharao Pantulu.

I had the good fortune of association with him from the very beginning in the field of educational, social, political and religious institutions. He was a leader of thought and achievement. His works have been excellent for the uplift of mankind and advancement of the Telugu speaking people but also for the cause of Maharastrians, Kannadigas, Muslims and Christians who lived in the former Hyderabad and made us feel that he was the torch bearer for all of us. Dr. Keskar had established a school known as Excelsior School here in which there were two media-Marathi and Telugu. Sri Madapati Hanumantha Rao Pantulu was the Secretary of the Institution and Raja Bahadur Venktarama Reddy was the President and I was an Executive Member. I know what sentiments he had then. He wanted to see that Maharastrians also got equal opportunities in the former Hyderabad State. In any educational conference, if any resolutions were to be moved, Sri Lakshmanarao Garu, who was the pilot in those days for the movement of free and compulsory education, used to give us the lead along with Sri Madapati Hanumantharao Pantulu. Sri Madapati Hanumantharao and Sri Lakshmanarao Garu could not be separated. 3oth of them together worked for humanity at large and for the inhabitants of the former Hyderabad State in particular. He was a man born great and made himself great. He belongs to the galaxy of leaders and great people who are born great. They will be ever green in our memory. He was a man of dynamic nature - socially, politically and educationally. In the history of tomorrow, when it is written, Sri Madapati Hanumantharao's name will find a prominent place.

As has been stated by the Leader of the House, he has lived a full life. Let us follow his example of service to humanity, service to mankind and let us cherish his memory by working for the institutions which he has created and served.

With these sentiments I join all the members in their prayer that his soul may rest in peace and may God give the bereaved members of his family the strength to bear the loss.

I would request you to stand in silence for two minutes in memory of the late Sri Madapati Hanumantharao Pantulu.

The Question is—
