Condolence Motions: 19th January, 1974

re: Demise of Sri C. Rajagopalachari,
Ex-Governor General of India.

Sri. CH. Parasurama Naidu (Parvathipuram):- Chairman Sir, Rajaji is a real Rajarshi. His name brings to our memory the entire name of the Ghandian Congress, the Congress of the glorious struggle of Independence, of attaining freedom from slavery lying dominated by the foreigners. His was a role that was a standing inspiration for generation to come. He is one for intellect, for thinking, for exposition and for all qualities that a man is to deserve. His is a composite personality that is unparalleled in the recent history of India. He is a man who could stand up to any opposition any debate. any issue; really one whom the nation has lost and can never be filled up. It is a very rare example of incarnation of great personalities in the sub-continent of India. It was in the year 1924 he had his historic role in the development of the Congress. That was the period that no changers and pro-changers were ranged against each other very sharply as to whether they should enter the Parliament or be outside and fight the foreign-domination. Rajaji and Ghandhiji these types of persons were all no-changers and not to enter. Why? There was Motilal Nehru, a Constitutional Lawyer and C. R. Das, the man whose eloquence was famous for all its expression and exposition.
In 1924, in the Congress Session the debate was going on as to who should be the person for answering these greatmen, these gaints and intellectuals. Mahathmaji suggested Rajaji for the purpose. Rajaji, with his luster, exposition, clarity of thought, simplicity of style, terse language, was chosen for the purpose of answering these stalwarts on the opposition side and single-handed he managed with the thumping majority and no-changers had won and that was one of the critical periods of the Congress. It was his role in the Congress and it was with his courage of conviction, and in those days when our masses had been enslaved with his devotion to the poor, he stood as a guiding luminary.

In the year 1942 when the whole Nation was in struggle fighting with the foreigners and when the war was going on, this man had the courage to differ from Mahathmaji and other stalwarts of the Congress, and take the stand of offering a sort of compromise to the Britishers. That was the very unpopular step. But he took the courage into his hands and did it. All those who differed from the initial stand were converted ultimately. Ultimately he won and the people were converted. He took the most unpopular cause of the question of partition of India. Nobody was in favour of the partition of India. It was he who came forward with the solution and everybody had to ultimately accept it. No doubt, nobody was willing for it but still everybody had to accept it. That was his greatness. He is the man who is always a fearless thinker and till the last day he was like that. Even when he set up the Swathanthra Party, his courage of conviction had to be really admitted.

When the Congress was in power and Panditji was at the height of his glory, he differed from him. He was 82 when he established the Swathanthra Party. 82nd year is an year of rest, is an year when a man requires rest. When he thought something he thought of putting it into practice, whether it was wrong or right. But still he had the courage of doing it. He carried on his struggle till the last moment. His thoughts were clear though he was old. I had the occasion to be him a number of times in the last stages. His voice was quite all right, and his voice did not falter. That is the great man we have lost. It is no doubt normally to say 'May his soul rest in peace'. India not say that. I say, "May his soul not rest in peace but always guide us from above" and I bow to him.
re: Demise of Sri C. Rajagopalachari,
Ex-Governor General of India.

Sri C. Rajagopalachari (January 5, 1877 - April 21, 1974) was an Indian politician and freedom fighter who was the first Indian to serve as the Governor-General of India. He was a key figure in the Indian independence movement and played a significant role in the drafting of the Indian constitution. Rajagopalachari was also a member of the Indian National Congress and served as its president three times.

In this motion, the speaker pays tribute to Rajagopalachari's contributions to Indian politics and his role as the first Indian Governor-General. The speaker highlights his dedication to the cause of independence and his commitment to upholding the values of democracy and justice. The motion also expresses the loss felt by the Indian people at the news of Rajagopalachari's demise.

The motion concludes by emphasizing the importance of remembering Rajagopalachari's legacy and the role he played in shaping modern India. It encourages the Indian people to continue his work and to uphold the principles that he stood for throughout his lifetime.

Sri K. Subbarao (Proddatur):- Mr. Speaker Sir; This House has to be really proud to place on record its deep sense of sorrow at the demise of Sri Chakravarthi Rajagopalachari, popularly known as C.R. He was born at Salem, graduated from Bangalore. He was an eminent lawyer at the bar. He plunged into the freedom struggle at the call of the Father of the Nation; a world renowned intellect with deep insight, broad vision. He is popularly known everywhere all over the world. He is really a genius of the highest order and acknowledged by the greatest philosophers of the world. He is an erudite scholar in both Sanskrit and Tamil and he has brought great works of the Indian philosophy Indian epics and gave the greatest Upanishads to the common man in the simplest language possible. He is really known to each and everybody, not only in our country but all over the world. Really he is a man of broad vision. Whatever he predicts his prophecies have come true after a few years. That is his intellect. Even in his 90th year he had a sharp intellect. He was very clear on serious problems, not only of our country but of the world. He is always revered by his great contemporaries even by the great Mahatma (Father of the Nation). Such was the greatness of Rajagopalachari. It is a great loss not only to our country but to the entire world. I associate myself with the sentiments expressed by our Chief Minister.

Condolence Motions: 19th January, 1974

Dear Member of Parliament,

I write to express my deepest condolences to the family of Sri D. Anjaneyulu Naidu, M.L.A., who passed away recently. His demise has shocked and saddened the entire nation.

Sri D. Anjaneyulu Naidu was a devoted MLA who served the people of his constituency with dedication and integrity. His contributions to the legislative assembly were immense, and he always fought for the rights of the common man.

His family and friends are deeply bereaved, and our thoughts are with them during this trying time. May the memories of his noble deeds bring solace to his loved ones.

Yours sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Your Position]
Sri H. Satyanarayana (Adoni) :- Mr. Speaker, Sir, I join the Chief Minister and other Members and agree with the sentiments that have been expressed by the other Hon. Members of this house. Of the several people on the list, I know only 2 or 3 people about whom I would like to speak.

First and foremost, of Mr. Kalluri Subbarao, I can say in one sentence—he was really a leader of leaders. Perhaps most of his friends who are here were swept off our feet only due to Mr. Subbarao’s oratory. In these days, in the years 1930 to 1932 and also in the latter years when I was in the college I had the opportunity to hear him. Probably his speeches were responsible, as my friend Mr. Ayyappa Reddy has said, for his friends to get into this vortex of politics. Mr. Kalluri Subbarao was not only a great orator in Telugu, but he was equally great in Kannada also; many people may not know this. Whenever we met, we used to speak in Kannada. He had also a sense of humour; while he could laugh at others, the greatest thing was that he could laugh at himself; most of our politicians lack this, but in Mr. Subbarao I found that He was not only a leader of Rayalaseema but he was a leader of the entire Andhra Pradesh, if not India. I pray God that his soul may rest in peace.

The other gentleman is Mr. D. Rama swamy. It may be very strange to say that I know him because he comes from Visakhatapatnam district and I from Kurnool; but we met in strange circumstances in Alipuram Jail in 1942. He was exceptionally a good man, a spiritual man. It was he who used to recite slokas of Geetha and all of us used to repeat them. Probably it was his influence that made most of us some sort of spiritual people and the strange thing is he could even influence my friend, Com. A.S.K. Iyengar who used to say "See, this old man is also influencing me." His sauve manners and fine courtesies we cannot forget. His care for dress was meticulous and we used to call him "Prince Charming" of Alipuram jail. Such was his nature and I pray God—"Let their souls be in peace".
