Sri E. Ayyapu Reddy (Panyam)—Sir, Shri Vasudev Naik was a old Veteran and we have seen passing away of one Veteran after the other, it is a sad note to lose a Veteran like him. His services as an accomplished Legislator, and as a distinguished Presiding Officer have been so far appreciated. I would like to refer to one of the prominent aspects of his career relating to the social services. He was also a great social builder. He was not merely an individual but an institution. He was the main spirit on the move who was behind the Vivek Vardhini College and a number of institutions sprung up around them. I also had the fortune of being a member of the House when he was the Deputy Speaker of the House and I join in the condolence motion, moved by the Chief Minister.

Shri S. Jaipal Reddy (Kalwakurthi):—Mr. Speaker Sir, The services of Sri Vasudev Krishnaji Naik as a flaming freedom fighter, as an accomplished Legislator, and as a distinguished Presiding Officer have been so far appreciated. I would like to refer to one of the prominent aspects of his career relating to the social services. He was also a great social builder. He was not merely an individual but an institution—He was the main spirit on the move who was behind the Vivek Vardhini College and a number of institutions sprung up around them. I also had the fortune of being a member of the House when he was the Deputy Speaker of the House and I join with the condolence motion, moved by the Chief Minister.
