re: Non-Purchase of Tobacco by the I.L.T.D. Co. & other Companies from Tobacco growers of Kurnool District.

26. 23rd June, 1978

re: Non-Purchase of Tobacco by the I.L.T.D. Co. & other Companies from Tobacco growers of Kurnool District.

According to Rule 329, the companies are required to purchase tobacco from the growers in the Kurnool District. However, the companies have not purchased the tobacco as per the agreement. Therefore, the growers have approached the authorities to take necessary action.

26. The matter is referred to the Chief Administrative Officer for immediate action.
Matter Under Rule 329:

23rd June, 1978

re: Non-purchase of Tobacco by the I.L.T.D. Co. and other Companies from the Tobacco growers of Kurnool Dist.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to convey the following information and express concern regarding the non-purchase of tobacco by the I.L.T.D. Co. and other companies from the tobacco growers of Kurnool District.

On 19th June, the demand for the purchase of tobacco at 80% of the market price was made. The growers had consistently demanded the purchase of tobacco at 19% of the market price. The growers were disappointed with the non-purchase of tobacco at the agreed price.

As per the agreement, the growers were to receive 80% of the market price. However, due to the non-purchase, the growers are experiencing financial difficulties. The growers have been forced to sell their tobacco at lower prices.

I urge the companies to fulfill their obligations and purchase the tobacco at the agreed price to support the growers.

Yours sincerely,

Assignment of banjar lands and surplus lands (under land ceiling Act) to poor people.

5—30 p.m.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy (Kalva Kurthy):—Mr. Deputy Speaker Sir
At the very outset I must complement Sri Nallapureddi Srinivasul Reddy on his bold and happy motion. I am sure, the party to which Mr. Srinivasul Reddy has the honour or the dishonour to belong—I have added the word 'honour' for your satisfaction, for my satisfaction dishonour' to belong—would, I hope take this chance and agree to this motion.

For the last 30 years we have been promising the things that are contained in this Motion. In our State for more than a decade a special crash programme has been on for assignment of Banjar Lands to the landless poor. But still in almost all the villages there is considerable Land to be assigned to the landless poor. There were also a number of people who have pattas for the last more than one decade but who have not been able to take possession of the land. But these poor People, because they have pattas have been paying the land revenue and filling the coffers of the Government without being able to till their lands. It is a matter of shame that our Government’s machinery should have failed to accomplish this primary task.

Sir, in a number of villages, I am stating this from my own intimate Personal experience, land owners have also been in possession of banjar land. The Government does not have any idea as to what extent of land pattas in a particular village to be assigned to the landless poor. Therefore, there is need for a certain limit of time, otherwise we will never be able to teach the target. Three months’ time for the Government which has been doing this business for the last 30 years should not be availning the action to participate in the so called land possession week or fortnight announcement by the Government. I am not saying this in a very partisan spirit but with all the sense of truth at my command. I can say that my experience of Fortnight or week were not pleasant, because pattas which have been prepared years back were being distributed during that period. When we went to the villages, we saw that there was “conflict between the old poor possessors and the new assignees. Let me in this connection draw the attention of the Government to the implementation of the Land Ceiling Act.

Sir, we have been implementing this Act with a lot of pamper but what is the result? My own experience was there is considerable and that has been assigned to the poor, as a consequence of implementation of the Land Ceiling Act, was distributed. The Tribunals and the Tahsil Offices have erred in accepting a major portion of surplus land. The Act categorically lays down that no land which is encumbered should be accepted as surplus land. But if we look at the field, we will find that a major component of the so-called surplus land is in fact encumbered land. It is in the possession of other people than the declarant or it is a land in the possession of the poor man but assigned to some other poor man or it is in the nature of the tenancy land. The Act clearly says if patiadar of some other land, tenancy land, for example, cannot be accepted as surplus land. Such lands have been accepted and they have been assigned to the poor people and wherever there were tenancy lands, our revenue people do not lack any resourcefulness. They have been able to manage to get such tenancy land assigned to the tenants even if they were not eligible. If they are not eligible, these tenants were thrown to the winds and those lands were assigned to some other people. In the villages new battle is arising between the old possessors and the new poor assignees. This battle, I think, must go on in the villages because that is the only way the Congress (I) can hope to get their votes in the rural areas. Therefore, there is a need to enquire into the way the Land Ceiling Act was implemented. I therefore urge upon the Government, if the Government is sincere at all, to appoint a House Committee to review the implementation of Land Ceiling Act. The people should be told as to the price the Government paid in terms of cash for the implementation of the Ceiling Act and for the land it secured. We are told, day in and day out, that so many lakhs of surplus land has been acquired and assigned. But the Government has not taken care to tell us as to what part of the land is inam land and as to what part of the land is tenancy land and as how much part of the land is encumbered land and how much of it is uncultivable and submergible. So long as the Government not prompt about these things, we cannot be clear about the fruits or the results of the Land Ceiling Act.

Sir, we have been giving house-sites to poor people, and harijans particularly. All the parties in the country have been swearing against untouchability. But we have created a new kind of untouchability by acquiring house-sites for the Harijans outside the village. If backward classes in that village are given the house-sites they are necessarily given somewhere else. Even the Backward Classes and the Harijans are not given together. In the name of eradication of untouchability we are introducing a new and more perpetual forms of untouchability. Therefore, there is a need also... for the people to know as to the efforts made on the front of acquisition of house-sites.

This year, the Government is supposed to have made separate provision for acquisition of house-sites to the backward classes. The provision has been so meagre that the needs have been not even marginally made. It has allowed a kind of heart burning between harijans on the one hand and the Backward Classes on the other in the villages. Therefore, there is need to introduce such financial provision for the acquisition of house-sites for backward classes as to cover all the villages and this has to be taken up on a war-footing. I am not sure that this Government is very sincere about it because if this job is done, they do not have any job for them to do.

This job should be of eternal nature so that they keep on saying that they will do this. Apart from that, one of this particular programme is completed, they do not know what programmes should be taken up. Therefore, I am afraid, Mr. Deputy Speaker Sir, the present Congress (I) Government has developed a vested interest in the perpetual process of assignment of banzar lands, surplus lands to the land less poor and house-sites to the harijans, tribals and the backward classes. This process must be put an end to.

I complement Mr. N. Srinivasul Reddy because he has the moral courage to press his own Government on the commitment which they had given to the people. He also had the good sense to impress upon them a sense of urgency involved and I only hope that the Government would translate the spirit behind this motion and would allow this motion to be passed unanimously and the Government would also agree with the appointment of a House Committee to review the progress made in the matter of implementation of Land Ceiling Act—assignment of banzar land to the land less poor and distribution of house-sites to the Harijans, Tribals and Backward Classes.

Thank you.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:— Mr. Deputy Speaker Sir, the very fact that when the debate on the subject has commenced the Chief Minister chose to be absent, is a measure of the unimportance to which the subject has been reduced. After all he had been here for so long a time when the other debate was going on. This is a subject of the backward classes, weaker sections and of millions of people for whom they have the greatest solicitude. They gave vote to them and made them sit on the Treasury Benches. When the subject is talked, is being debated our good friend, the Chief Minister, has chosen not to be present.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— I think the Chief Minister is busy with the Business Advisory Committee. I think it is equally important for us.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:— Anyway it is not for the Hon. Deputy Speaker to give explanation.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— This is not explanation on his behalf. It is information.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:— I differ from all other good friends who have spoken on the subject with great concern, with great solicitude for the poor. They have not realised that this problem is no more there. This problem has reached the proportions of a bogeyman. This problem is a mere trumpeting of a long exhausted subject. Its political capital is exhausted, its electionary capacity has been exhausted. It has no more any substance in it. Why any good friend Mr. Srinivasul Reddy has chosen to bring forward this? Because, he was an erstwhile critic, a long confirmed bitter critic of the Government and by accident he is placed on the Treasury Benches. Therefore, he has helped the opposition in bringing forward this subject so as to expose the empty pretentions of this Government, empty claims of this Government of solicitude towards the weaker sections. Where is this problem Sir. This problem now lies in your records, in your survey errors. What all left is there a ‘Konda Dangu’, a saline land or some sort of useless forest land. Onething is still there. What is the Village Officers has secreted? I am glad that the Hon. Revenue Minister Mr. Janardhan Reddy has called for the statistics of lands which were secreted by these village officers. They have placed certain good land in the names of their relatives. That was not so far tackled. There is inability to tackle this entire problem. The history of this problem starts from the Brahmanada Reddy Ministry, and later P. V. Narasimha Rao’s two Ministries, Mr Vengal Rao’s Ministry and now Dr. Chenna Reddy’s Ministry is there. What all these Ministries have been doing? They have abjectly failed and their failure is a measure of the inefficiency of the successive Congress Governments in tackling this problem for which they have been professing they have the greatest solicitude and my good friend has placed three months time. I know, for the last so many years that this three months time was fixed for several times. I wish that his memory is recalled or his memory is exercised. These timetables are useless, because the problem is exhausting. The problem simply remains on the political stage, on the stage of bogus appearances. I want to make one thing clear. I certainly support this Resolution. I fall behind nobody in supporting this Resolution, because no political capital should be made against us on any allegation that they have the solicitude and we have not the solicitude for the weaker sections. I would like to know that this programme of giving this left over land, left over useless land, left over saline land is no more a problem of utility to the agricultural labourer, to the poor man. It is a programme of persons who does not know agriculture. Agriculture itself is not a paying proposition. My good friend, the Agriculture Minister knows that this paddy is not being sold. He is in search of purchases for paddy and agriculture is not such a lucrative profession, is not such a remunerative profession. We have been asking for remunerative prices for the agricultural commodities, for the agricultural produce and we are not getting. You know Sir, that any land, this saline land, this dung land, this forest piece of land, this poor man is asked to clear. This poor man has to clear it to bring it into cultivation, to make it profitable to make produce out of it. It takes 10 years for making any land of this type cultivable and what becomes of this poor man during all this time. The man who used to get a wage of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 a day and whose wife used to get Rs.3 to Rs.7 a day, sure and certain.
These people are now brought on to this land with the temptation that this land is likely to yield anything and all their labour becomes a waste.
They are unable to produce out of it. You say that you give some loan. That loan becomes a waste and a burden is added to it. A dead weight is tied around his neck and therefore please do not any more decieve or disappoint this poor man with the temptation of giving some land. I know well that any land which is being shown in the revenue records is simply a non-existing land. I know well when last time I was speaking in this Assembly during the budgot session I raised that in Srikakulam district the survey is full of errors. The Survey Commissioner had taken note of it. He had sent a circular and a communication to me also, asking for the list of survey errors in my district. I gave atleast a dozen as a sample. Lands which were under cultivation over six years ago upon which there were gardens. They were covered by sale deeds. In the sale deeds it had been described as wet land or as garden land. That land is shown by the Surveyor has a banjar. That poor man had the sale deed. The land was his from the ancestral times. He does not leave it. You give the patta to somebody. Both these people go to court, They exhaust themselves and it is a good fortune that the Government is showering upon these people by virtue of their great solicitude for the poor man. So, the survey errors have to be rectified, and if they are rectified there is very little land. Regarding the Ceiling Surplus, my good friend has said that within three months the distribution of house sites from the ceiling surplus is to be completed. It is impossible task. He knows full well. During the working of the Ceiling Act, instructions have been given by the Revenue Department to hold all land as surplus and that no family is joint, that no family is divided.
All sorts of absurd instructions have been given. Illegal, irregular instructions have been given by the Revenue Department. I wish the Revenue Minister examines those instructions, very faulty, very wrong and absurd decisions have been given. Naturally judges reverse it. And they go in for appeal. I am really surprised at the word ‘Bhookamandu Bhooswamy’ which had been used by so many of our friends, old phrases when the Communist Party was a revolutionary party and when Stalin was alive, when Lenin was running a revolution, but after the Ceilings Act, after your claim of enforcing the Ceilings Act, the great reforms Act, where is the question of a persons being ‘Bhooswamy’. You certainly enforce the Ceilings Act with all the rigour that is possible and with all the steps that you are capable of. Take away the surplus land and certainly distribute it to the poor and I will also support that Rs. 500/- shall be given to them for building the houses.
