Family Welfare Programme to Control the Growing Population

2-S.N.Q.No. 1-X:— Sarvasri Ch. Parasuram Naidu, and Prd1 Sriramamurthty:

Will the Minister for Health and Medical be pleased to State:

(a) Whether the Government will pursue again with vigour the family welfare programme so as to control the growing population; and

(b) the detailed programmes and methods now adopted for the purpose?

The Minister for Health (Sri A. Madan Mohan):

(a) Family Welfare Programme is a National Programme founded by the Central Government and as per the directions issued by Government of India from time to time the programme is being implemented in our State. The State Government always gave considerable importance to this programme. Because of the emphasis laid by the Government of India to ensure that Family Planning is a voluntary scheme without resorting to any coercive measures our State is intensifying the programme by strengthening and accelerating mass media activities so as to persuade the eligible couples to adopt the family welfare programme as per their choice and need.

(b) The target for the year 1977-78 is 3.5 lakh sterilisations and so far upto the end of February 1978 about 1,15,000 sterilisations have been performed in our State. This is the best performance of any state in the country during the current year. This month is treated as intensive family welfare month throughout the State. In all the Districts the intensive mass education media activities are being carried out by person to person contact, group approaches like organising orientation training camps for community leaders, Mahila Mandal members etc. in each Primary Health Centre in Andhra Pradesh, organising Kavi-Sammelans, Essay competetions to the students, Seminar at District and Taluk level, Organising film show in the villages, broadcasting of various Programmes on family welfare on all the four All India Radio Stations of Andhra Pradesh and Tele-casting of Health and Family Programme through Doordarshan (T. V) distribution of publicity material in order to educate and motivate the people especially living in rural areas to accept the norm of small size family for welfare of the nation as a whole.

The prevailing mis-conceptions on the family welfare programme are systematically dispelled by the intensive mass-media activities and every effort is being made to see that this become a ruly people's programme.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy (Kalwakurthi) —Sir, whenever the reply is very lengthy, the convention is that the concerned paper should be laid on the Table of the House.

Relay hunger-strike by the blind students

MATTERS UNDER RULE 329.

(1) Elections to Hyderabad Municipal Corporation

Sri K. Rangarao:— The blind students are on relay hunger strike for redressal of their grievances. I have visited the camp on 9—3—1978 where the blind students are observing hunger-strike. Their demands include providing employment to the educated blind, opening of training centres for training the blind in typewriting and telephone operating, strict implementation of 3% reservation of posts for the physically handicapped and extending to the blind, concessions enjoyed by the weaker sections of society, i.e., Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. The demands of the blind students also include enhancement of the boarding charges, books allowance and clothing allowance. As regards the enhancement of the boarding charges, etc. I am glad to say that orders have since been issued enhancing the boarding charges from Rs. 40 to Rs. 60 per mensem per head, cloth allowance from Rs. 30 to Rs. 100/- per annum per head and books allowances from Rs. 50/- to Rs. 60/- per annum per head as desired by the blind students. The other requests of the blind students will be considered and necessary action taken.

Calling attention to matters of urgent public importance:
Guidance of short term loans into medium term loans by the Co-opt.
Central Bank, Vijayanagaram.

Due to unprecedented flood in November 1977, the following five taluks under the jurisdiction of Co-operative Central Bank, Vizianagaram were affected in Visakhapatnam District. (1) Anakapalli (2) Yelamanchili (3) Chodavaram (4) Narasipainam and (5) Gajapathinagaram. As colossal damage to life, property and Standing crops was caused, the Registrar of Cooperative societies has issued instructions to the Co-operative Central Banks to take immediate steps for conversion of short term loans into Medium Term loans. The Vizianagaram Cooperative Central Bank proposed to convert short term loan of the order of Rs. 141.20 lakhs into Medium Term loans under Stabilisation arrangement and applied for at medium term conversion credit limit of Rs. 120 lakhs from the Reserve Bank of India representing 85% of the loans outstanding in areas where an award is less than 6 annas. The balance of Rs. 21.20 lakhs will be met by the Bank from its own resources. The application is being recommended to the Reserve Bank of India for obtaining conversion credit limit to enable the bank to convert the loans. As soon as Reserve Bank of India sanctions credit limit, the bank will convert the short term loans into medium term loans.

Calling attention to matters of urgent public importance:

re: Posting of a lady doctor at Udayagiri Hospital.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—There are two posts of Medical Officers one male and one female in the Government Hospital at Udayagiri, Nellore district. Dr. Radha Devi, Lady Medical Officer had been working there till 16—10—77. On her representation to the Director of Medical and Health Services due to her advanced stage of pregnancy, she was transferred on humanitarian grounds. The post of Lady Medical Officer is thus vacant from 16—10—77. The post of male medical officer in the hospital has been filled up and Dr. Malakondaiah is working there. Due to dearth of Lady Medical Officers, it was not possible to fill up the second post, immediately after it fell vacant. The Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission has already taken up the recruitment of Civil Assistant Surgeons and it is finalising the selection of candidates. The list of selected candidates is expected very shortly. As soon as the list is received, it is expected that all the vacant posts will be filled up.

PAPERS LAID ON THE TABLE

Sri M. Baga Reddy (Minister for Panchayati Raj) :—Sir, I beg to lay on the Table a copy in each of the following notifications with which certain rules and amendments to rules have been made under section 217 (1) of the Andhra Pradesh Gram Panchayats Act, 1964 which have been published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette as required under sub-section (5) of Section 217 of the said Act.

Mr. Speaker:—Papers laid.

Papers laid on the Table of the House in pursuance of Rule 348 of the Rules of procedure and Conduct of Business in the A.P. Legislative Assembly.

Sri K. Sriramachari (Secretary to Legislature):—Sir, I beg to......
Papers laid on the Table in pursuance of Rule 348 of the Rules of Procedure.

Sri. Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—Conventions won’t operate. One should have respect for the rules and speak in line with the ruler. He is a very senior colleague of ours.

Sri G. Rajaram: The Secretary will lay the copy on the Table of the House and the Leader of the House will move a motion.

Mr. Speaker:—The rule says:

“When Communication relating to amendments of the Constitution of India which have to be ratified by the Assemblies under the proviso to art. 368 of the Constitution, are received from either House of Parliament such Communications shall be laid on the Table’.

Unless we amend the rule to the effect that the Leader of the House shall lay the Communication on the Table of the House.....

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—The Speaker has been referring to a Convention. Would you kindly site precedent?

Mr. Speaker:—Ah should site precedent.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—Until that issue is settled, we cannot adopt a wrong procedure.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—The rule does not say therein as to who shall lay the Communication. So by convention the Secretary is laying it. But there is clause (2) to which you can kindly refer “as soon as the communication is laid on the Table, the leader of the House shall move a resolution for ratification in the Assembly”. Leader of the House has option.

9-30 a.m. Mr. Speaker:—Clause (2) arise only after clause (1).

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—Let it be placed and after placing it, immediately the Leader of the House will move.

Sri K. Sriramachari, Secretary to Legislature :—Sir, I beg to lay under Rule 348 of the Rule of the Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly a copy of letter No. RS. 1/60/77-B, dated the 29th December, 1977 from the Secretary General, Rajya Sabha, together with copy of each of the following:—

1. The Constitution (Forty-fourth Amendment) Bill, 1977 as introduced in the Lok Sabha.
4. Proceedings of the Rajya Sabha.”

Mr. Speaker:—Papers Laid.

Mr. Speaker:—It would be taken up on 30th.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—It is a violation of Law and contempt of the House.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—“As soon as the communication is laid on the Table”. That means “no sooner then the communication is laid on the Table” It must be followed instantaneously. It is a matter of simple understanding of English Grammar.
Papers laid on the Table in pursuance of Rule 348 of the Rules of procedure.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—If the Ministry has committed any wrong, you should correct them.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—The word, “as soon as” means “no sooner then”. It must follow instantaneously. We will have to refer the issue to the English teacher.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—Please refer the matter to the Advocate-General.

Sri G. Rajaram:—We all know English. “As soon as the communication is laid”... It is at the convenience of the Leader of the House but not immediately after. According to the convenience of the House or the Leader of the House, he will come up with a motion for ratification.

Sri P. Subbaiah:—It is said “as soon as the communication is laid on the Table, the Leader of the House shall move a resolution for ratification of the amendments by the Assembly”. So, it is very imperative. The Leader of the House has to move the motion as soon as it is laid. No sooner than is the correct meaning.

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—“As soon as the communication is laid on the Table—” Soon after the communication is laid on the Table, the Leader of the House should move the resolution. That is the governing clause. If any other meaning is taken, it is perversion of English language, perversion of all common sense. It is not as though the Chief Minister shall be always here. You cannot adjust yourself. You can put it on the Table of the House and follow the procedure. You cannot violate the law. I request you, Sir, kindly to consider the matter and refer the matter to the Advocate-General.
Under Rule 348 (1) "When communications relating to amendments of the Constitution of India which have to be ratified by the Assemblies under the proviso to Article 368 of the Constitution, are received from either House of Parliament such communications shall be laid on the Table."

(2) As soon as the communication is laid on the Table, the leader of the House shall move a resolution...." The finance minister has already spoken. I would like to know who would speak for the Government. If every member of the Government is going to speak...

Sri G. Rajaram:—It is a joint responsibility.
Mr. Speaker:—Where is the convention that only one Minister should speak? Absolutely, there is no convention. There is no point of order. You please resume your seat.

18 o'clock. The Hon. Mr. Speaker said: Sir, I have the honour to bring forward the Vote on Account. I regret to say that owing to the fact that the Supply Bill has not yet been presented, I have no choice but to ask the House to approve the Vote on Account. In doing so, I would like to assure the House that every effort will be made to have the Supply Bill presented as early as possible.

The Hon. Mr. Speaker then proceeded to enumerate the various items included in the Vote on Account, including expenditure on salaries, wages, pensions, and other items. He also mentioned the need for the House to approve the Vote on Account in order to ensure the smooth running of the government's operations.

The Hon. Mr. Speaker concluded by stating that he hoped the House would approve the Vote on Account with the understanding that it would only be a temporary measure until the Supply Bill could be presented.

The Hon. Mr. Speaker then moved the Vote on Account, which was seconded by the Hon. Mr. Member for the City of...

BUDGET FOR 1978-79 (VOTE ON ACCOUNT)

(Discussion Continued)

Mr. Chairman, I am obliged to submit this Vote on Account for a specific purpose. The expenditure has been incurred because of unforeseen circumstances. The amount involved is Rs. 100,000. The purpose for which the money is required is to provide assistance to the poor and needy during the current year. The amount will be utilized for the purchase of medicine, food, and other essential items. The government has been working towards the upliftment of the poor and we believe that this Vote on Account will go a long way in fulfilling this objective.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to emphasize that the government is committed to fulfilling its obligations towards the poor and needy. The Vote on Account will enable us to carry out our work more efficiently and effectively. We believe that this Vote on Account will make a significant difference in the lives of the poor and needy.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to assure you that we will utilize the funds in a transparent and accountable manner. We will ensure that the money is used for the intended purpose and that it reaches the people in need. We will provide regular updates on the utilization of the funds and take appropriate measures to address any concerns that may arise.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to conclude by stating that the government is committed to ensuring that every citizen has access to basic necessities. The Vote on Account is a step in the right direction and we are confident that it will have a positive impact on the lives of the poor and needy.

Thank you.

With reference to the current affairs and issues discussed previously, it is evident that the government has taken several measures to ensure the smooth functioning of the economy. The budget for the fiscal year 1978-79 aims to address various challenges faced by the nation.

In the context of economic growth, the government has allocated funds to sectors that are expected to drive the economy forward. These include infrastructure development, education, and health sectors. The budget also focuses on reducing poverty and improving the living standards of the people.

Furthermore, the government has sought to enhance the tax base by introducing new tax regimes and simplifying existing ones. This is expected to generate additional revenue, which can be utilized to fund public projects and services.

In conclusion, the budget for 1978-79 is a comprehensive document that outlines the government's vision for the future. It is designed to tackle the pressing issues of the day while also laying the groundwork for sustained economic growth.

The Minister for Finance presented the Budget for 1978–79. According to the economic situation, the budget is designed to ensure the smooth functioning of the economy. The government has allocated Rs. 300 crores for development projects. The budget also includes provisions for education, health, and welfare schemes.

The government has decided to impose a 10% surcharge on income tax. This will help in generating additional revenue to meet the increased expenditure on development projects. The budget also includes provisions for the rationalisation of taxes to ensure a fair burden on all sectors of the economy.

The government has also decided to increase the Public Debt Ceiling from Rs. 2,000 crores to Rs. 2,500 crores. This will enable the government to borrow more funds to meet its developmental needs.

The government has also announced a package of measures to boost the economy. These measures include increased spending on infrastructure, tourism, and agriculture. The government has also promised to provide financial assistance to the small and medium-sized enterprises.

The budget is expected to have a positive impact on the economy and will go a long way in achieving the government's developmental goals.

Budget for 1978-79 (Vote on Account)

12.50 pm.

I am grateful to the House for the opportunity of presenting the Appropriation Bill, 1978-79, providing for the supply of Rs. 3,73,98,000 for the services of the year 1978-79. The Bill provides for the following services:

- Rs. 3,61,98,000 for the services of the year 1978-79
- Rs. 2,00,000 for the services of the year 1979-80

The Bill covers a range of activities, including education, health, and welfare programmes. The government has focused on improving infrastructure and providing essential services to the population. The details of the Bill are as follows:

1. Education: Rs. 2,00,000 for the development of educational infrastructure and the provision of educational materials.
2. Health Services: Rs. 1,61,98,000 for the expansion of health services and the provision of medical equipment.
3. Welfare Programmes: Rs. 10,000 for the implementation of welfare programmes aimed at improving the quality of life for the elderly and disabled.

I would like to assure the House that the government is committed to ensuring that every rupee is spent effectively and efficiently. The government will continue to monitor the progress of the projects and allocate funds accordingly. The Bill also includes provisions for the disbursement of funds in a timely manner to ensure that the projects are completed on schedule.

I urge all members of the House to support the Bill, as it is essential for the development of our country. The Bill will enable us to provide better services to the people and improve the overall standard of living.

The fourth session of the 15th Lok Sabha was held on 23rd March, 1978. It was the third session of the Budget Session. The session started with the presentation of the Union Budget for the financial year 1978-79. The budget was presented by the Finance Minister, Shri J. P. Chaudhry. The budget aimed to provide a balanced approach to economic growth and development, focusing on the needs of the common man. The budget was in line with the government's policy of self-reliance and national security.

The budget outlined several measures to stimulate growth, including increased spending on infrastructure and social welfare programs. The government proposed to increase the Union Excise Duty on tobacco and alcohol to enhance revenue. The budget also included provisions for the welfare of farmers, labor, and the aged. The government indicated its commitment to the rural sector by allocating funds for rural development programs.

The budget emphasized the importance of education and skill development, recognizing the need to equip the workforce with the necessary skills to meet the demands of the modern economy. The government proposed to establish national institutes of higher education and training, focusing on technology and management.

The budget also highlighted the government's commitment to environmental protection, with specific allocations for pollution control and the preservation of natural resources.

The Finance Minister, in his address, expressed confidence in the government's ability to meet its economic goals, emphasizing the importance of fiscal discipline and the rule of law in achieving sustainable growth.

The budget was received with mixed reactions from various quarters. While some praised the government's efforts to balance economic growth with social welfare, others criticized the budget for not addressing the pressing issues of poverty and unemployment. The overall sentiment was that the budget was a step in the right direction, but more was needed to address the fundamental challenges facing the country.

The session ended with debates on various issues, including the economic policies and the need for a more inclusive approach to development. The Lok Sabha adjourned to resume on 7th April, 1978.
