Production of More Oil-Seeds and Pulses in 1979-80.

206—

*5256 Q.—Sri Ch. Vithal Reddy (Narsapur):—Will the Minister for Agriculture and Law be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact the Central Government has made suggestions to the State Government for producing more oil-seeds and pulses in 1979-80; if so, the particulars of those suggestions;

(b) the steps taken and to be taken by the State Government in pursuance of the suggestions made by the Central Government in the said directions; and

(c) the particulars of increase in the production of oil seeds and pulses as suggested by the Central Government?

The Government of India made the following suggestions for increasing production of oil-seeds and pulses during 1979-80:

Oil-Seeds

(1) To identify the major causes for low yields like, poor plant population, improper irrigation and inadequate pest control etc. and to rectify the defects.

(2) Introduction of improved technology like inter cropping and mixed cropping under trainfed situations and introduction of other improved technology based on research work done by Agricultural Universities and All-India Co-ordinated Research Project of ICAR.

(3) Package Approach:

(i) By arranging supplies of quality seeds through State Seeds Corporation.

(ii) Regulating water management under Warabandi System in New Irrigated Command Areas.

(iii) Application of phosphatic fertilisers.

(iv) Application of Rhizobium Culture.
(4) Additional Area Approach:
To bring more and more areas under oil-seeds particularly Groundnut in the New Irrigated Command Project Areas.

(5) Supply of Credit and Subsidies:
To arrange for timely and quick supply of loans and subsidies particularly to Small and Marginal Farmers.

(6) Post Harvest Technology:
To arrange for assured marketing at a remunerative price and also for proper storage of surplus produce specially for insulating farmers from losses due to spot sales at low prices.

Pulses

I. (1) Package Approach:
The following package of practices have to be followed to increase the production of pulses.

(1) Use of improved varieties of seeds.
(2) Popularisation of application of Rhizobium culture.
(3) Popularisation of application of phosphatic fertilisers.
(4) Timely plant protection measures.

II. Area Approach:
Effective implementation of improved practices and management for coverage of areas under rainfed and irrigation conditions.

III. Additional Area Approach:
Bringing additional areas under pulses is an important means of production. Intercropping under irrigated and rainfed conditions are the two methods through which additional area programme could be pushed.

IV. Demonstrations:
Pulses demonstrations have to be organised in cultivators holdings to demonstrate the efficacy of adoption of package practices in increasing the yield per hectare.

V. Periodic training to Field Staff.

(b): Suitable measures have already been taken by the State Government for increased production of Oil-seeds in general and with particular reference to the suggestions made by Government of India and they are briefly given as follows:

I. Action Plan for Andhra Pradesh for 1979-80:
Oil-seeds crops occupy nearly 15% of the total cultivated area in State of which nearly 80% of area is under rainfed conditions.

Among the Oil-seeds crops, Groundnut and Caster are most important accounting for nearly 70% of the area and production in
State, and it is proposed to increase the area and per hectare yields by identifying the constraints for low yields and adopting suitable remedial measures as part of the strategy for increasing the production.

II. Major Constraints in Increasing Production:

(i) Non-availability of suitable short duration, high yielding drought resistant varieties.

(ii) Limitation of adequate and sustained seed production programme.

(iii) Lack of organisation marketing arrangements.

(iv) Instability in the localisation and water management programmes in Command areas.

III. Strategy for Increasing Area and Production of Oil-seeds (Groundnut and Caster) in the State:

(1) The following general measures to rectify the major causes for low yields have been undertaken in respect of all Oil-seed crops.

(a) To increase the plant population with the use of graded and good quality seed at higher seed rate per hectare has been recommended.

(b) To prevent losses due to pest and diseases, timely plant protection measures with pre-treatment of seed has been arranged.

(c) To avoid moisture stress for the crop, protective irrigation wherever feasible has been recommended.

(2) The following special programmes have been undertaken in respect of Groundnut and Castor crops which are major Oil-seeds crops in the state.

Groundnut:

(1) Improved Seed Production and Distribution:

In view of inadequate supply of Breeder Seed, it is proposed to take up further multiplication of Breeder Seed (A sort of recycling) received from Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University into Stage I and Stage II development before its release as Foundation Seed to the Andhra Pradesh State Seed Development Corporation for production of Certified Seed, starting from 1979-80. Thus it is proposed to cover 2-5% of normal areas with improved Seed every year.

The cost of production of Breeder Seed by Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University will be met from the funds under the Centrally Sponsored Schemes, while the cost of production of Stage-I and Stage III Seed will be met from the State Seed Production Schemes.
However it is found quite essential and expedient to strengthen the Breeder Seed production set-up in Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University to cater to the requirements of the Department and to sustain the production trends in the State.

(2) Package Approach:

By organising intensive and special campaign for package approach it is proposed to cover 4,16,000 hectares under Groundnut with special staff available under the two Centrally Sponsored Schemes operating in four districts of the State, while the programme will be implemented by normal staff in other districts.

(3) Additional Area Approach:

With the strict implementation of localisation and water regulation system in the Command Areas of State it is proposed to extend groundnut cultivation (Irrigated) from 2,00,000 hectares during 1978-79, to 3,13,000 hectares during 1979-80 depending on the area development and conditions suitable for light irrigation required for a successful crop of Rabi/Summer Groundnut.

(4) Introduction of Improved Technology:

The following improved package of practices are recommended for successful groundnut crop:

(i) Poor yields due to poor quality seed and wide spacing is proposed to be rectified by insisting on use of better quality and graded seed with optimum spacing and higher seed rate to maintain optimum population.

(ii) Seed treatment with Captan, Thiram and Rhizobium culture for improving crop growth.

(iii) Application of phosphatic fertilisers (Super Phosphate in light soils and D.A.P. in heavy Soils).

(iv) Timely plant protection measures.

(v) Adoption of mixed crop under rainfed conditions.

(5) Improved Irrigation System:

As there is great potential for increasing the area and production Groundnut substantially under irrigation project areas, special efforts are being made to regulate the water supply system (Wara-bandi system) for efficient use of land and water for successful cropping of Rabi/Summer Groundnut.

6. Pest Proofing:

Pest surveillance with timely plant protection measures specially on Area Basis, is considered an important strategy for pest proofing of Groundnut Crop.
The services of Plant Protection Staff of Department and assistance of Agro-Industries Corporation and other agencies are being made use of as a scientific approach for the pest problems duly organising intensive pest control campaigns at times of pest outbreaks.

7. Supply of Credit and Subsidies:

The farmers raising Groundnut crop are also eligible to get loans on priority basis particularly in irrigation Command Areas. Adequate arrangements are being made to meet the Credit requirements regarding subsidies made available to the farmers the various subsidies provided particularly to the small and marginal farmers under the Centrally Sponsored the small and marginal farmers under the Centrally Sponsored and State Sponsored Schemes like D.P.A.P., S.F.D.A. and I.R.D. programmes, are made use of for the oil-seeds schemes as well.

8. Application of Chemical and Microbial Fertilisers:

The efficiency and importance of chemical fertilisers particularly the phosphatic fertilisers and use of Rhizobium culture to groundnut crop have been constantly taught farmers through wide publicity and through Training Centres in State with a view to achieve enhanced yields at optimum expenditure.

9. Post Harvest Technology:

Assured market at remunerative prices for groundnut is always posting a major problem in the State due to frequent fluctuations in market. Efforts are made to remedy the situation by means of purchase and storage on Government account to the extent feasible and duly taking advantage of the Rural Development Storage Schemes.

Advance announcement of support price of Rs. 250 per quintal of groundnut would enthuse the farmers to go for Groundnut production in preference to other more remunerative crops.

CASTOR

1. Improved Seed Production and Seed Distribution:

With a view to maintain purity to each variety by keeping the required isolation distances the techniques of single variety seed villages are being organised in the important Castor growing districts of State.

Due to high degree of cross pollination in Castor crop and inadequate supply of Breeders Seed from Andhra Pradesh Agricultural University, the coverage of even 10% of normal area with improved seed has been a difficult task for the Department therefore it is proposed to take up a sort of recycling by multiplication of Breeders Seed into Stage I and Stage II Castor Seed in the State Farms starting from 1979-80 thereof achieving at least 10% of increase in area and production every year and with the help of State Seed Corporation.

2. Additional Area Approach and Package Approach:

Arrangements are made for extending Castor cultivation to the New Areas whenever possible, and also for intensive adoption of the improved package of practice as follows:
Oral Answers to Questions. 7th March, 1980. 517

(i) Use of good quality and graded seed with heavy seed rate to maintain optimum population.
(ii) Seed treatment with fungicides.
(iii) Application of phosphatic fertilisers.
(iv) Timely plant protection measures.
(v) Mixed cropping under rainfed conditions.

3. Pest proofing:

"Castor Semilooper" is a common and endemic pest on Castor in the State. In addition to the chemical control the Biological Control of Semilooper pest is widely adopted in the State. There are five Biological Control Laboratories functioning in State and it is proposed to establish twenty more such laboratories in VI Plan period.

4. Supply of Credit and Subsidies:

Farmers growing Castor Crop are also eligible for crop loans on priority basis and arrangements are being made to meet the requirements in each Castor growing districts. The various subsidies available under Centrally sponsored and State sponsored Schemes like DPAP., SFDA, and LRD programme etc. and also made use of particularly in favour of the small and marginal farmers.

5. Pest Harvest Technology:

Due to frequent fluctuations in the Market, the Castor growers are also affected at the harvesting time and hence advance announcement of a remunerative support price will go a long way in encouraging the Castor growers for sustained and increased production.

OTHER OIL-SEEDS CROPS

Arrangements are being made on similar lines for extension and intensive production of other oil-seeds crops of Sesamum, Safflower and Sunflower with similar additional area approach and package approach programmes.

PULSES

(1) Improved and short duration varieties are being supplied to farmers through A.P. Agricultural University and A.P. State Seed Development Corporation which are producing and multiplying them.

(2) 42000 Rhizobium packets are being supplied to farmers which are produced in 4 laboratories.

(3) 50 kgs. of phosphatic fertilisers are supplied per hectare of pulse-crop to get good yields. This is being advocated to farmers.

(4) Timely and suitable P.P. measures are being followed for the control of pests and diseases. Some incentives are also provided for this item of work.

Rs. 2,48,000 is provided as subsidy for P.P. Chemicals and Rs. 2,00,000 is provided as subsidy for P.P. Equipment.

(c) The result of various measures being implemented during 79-80 leased on the suggestions made by Central Government will be computed at the end of the year. However, and in spite of the unsavourable conditions in the major oilseeds growing districts presently reeling under the unprecedented drought situation in addition to the recent Cyclone damages it is hoped to retrieve and improve the position to a considerable extent with the implementation of the special Contingency plan formulated for Oilseeds programme where in it has been proposed to specially concentrate in an area of about 4,000 hectares under wells and tanks and about 10,000 hectares under major Irrigation Command Areas by way of special campaign for supply of quality seed, timely plant protection measures and fertilisers application on subsidy basis covering twelve districts.

PULSES

Area Approach:

It is proposed to cover 60,000 hectares under package approach to get an additional production of 20,000 tonnes during 1979-80.

Additional Area Approach:

It is proposed to cover an additional area of 30,000 hectares to produce an additional of 15,000 tonnes during 1979-80.

re: (3) Boycotting Examination by Girl Students of Osmania University as a protest against in-human Behaviour against them on the occasion of Holi Festival.

10 00 a.m

The Hon’ble Governor of Andhra Pradesh

Sir,

I have the honour to forward this report on the action taken in regard to the protest by the girl students of Osmania University against the inhuman treatment meted out to them on the occasion of the Holi Festival.

On 9th March, 1960, the students of Osmania University began a protest by not participating in the examination scheduled for that day. The examination was held at 10.00 a.m. The principal of the university informed me that the students had not reached the examination halls by that time.

I was informed that the students had gathered at the university campus and were shouting slogans such as “Down with Inhuman Treatment.” The principal had asked the police to ensure that the examinations were conducted smoothly.

At 10.00 a.m., the examiners were present in the examination hall, but the students were nowhere to be seen. The principal informed me that the students had concentrated in theSRC Hostel, which is located adjacent to the Examination Hall. The police had been instructed to ensure that the examinations were conducted without any interference.

Moreover, when the final batch entered into the ladies hostel, 4, 5 Sub-Inspectors also came to the Hostel. They did not do anything to obstruct the students from doing all obscene activities in the hostel.

I request you to take necessary action to ensure that the examinations are conducted smoothly.

Yours sincerely,

(3) Boycotting Examinations by Girl Students of Osmania University as a protest against In-human Behaviour of students against them on Holt Festival.

What the Warden was doing at that time. She was expected to reside infront of the Hostel only where she is having an official residence. She has failed utterly in discharging her responsibility. Police also failed in taking action or atleast approaching the University authorities also. It was the Warden's responsibility to ensure that the girls were safe. I am assuring the Chief Minister that we are o.k with the Government in this issue. When this matters brought to the notice of Vice-Chancellor and the Police, Police have arrested the people who helped the girls.

re: (4) Strike by the Workers of Singareni Collieries demanding regularisation of their Services.

In the report of the Labour Commissioner, it is stated that the strike was called off on 28th January, 1980. However, the workers have not been able to obtain regularisation of their services. The Commissioner has recommended the reconsideration of the matter.

We wish to ensure that in future such things do not recur. No issue should triple down to the lowest. This is an isolated issue.

I think, I should share with them through you on this Forum.

re: Removal of the restrictions imposed by the Government on “Food for Work” Programme.

An analysis of the situation shows that the Government has imposed restrictions on the “Food for Work” Programme. The restrictions were 80 rupees for 60 days in a month. The average wage was 60 rupees per day. This was a major obstacle to the programme. The Government has now removed the restrictions. However, the issue of the wage still remains.

In conclusion, the restrictions have been removed. The Government has taken the right decision. The programme will now be able to function effectively.

S. K. N. (Congress):

We support the Government in removing the restrictions. However, the wage issue still needs to be addressed. The average wage is 60 rupees per day, which is not sufficient.

In conclusion, the wage issue needs to be addressed.

We support the Government in removing the restrictions. The programme will now be able to function effectively.

re: Removal of the restrictions imposed by the Government on ‘Food for Work’ Programme.

Mr. Omkar is the Chairman of the Panchayat Samithi. He has to look after it. That is his responsibility. M.L.A. is only an advisory chairman. Whatever advice we give the B.D.O. may or may not take it. There are number of instances where the B.D.O.s have rejected the advice given by the Hon. Members. If the Member is ignorant of it, what can we do?

Half an hour Discussion, re: Removal of the restrictions imposed by the Government on "Food for Work" Programme.

1. Mr. G. N. Reddy (Member): The restrictions imposed by the Government on the "Food for Work" Programme are a welcome move. It will help unemployed and underemployed workers find work and earn a decent living. The programme has been beneficial in rural areas where there is a high rate of unemployment. It will also help in the development of infrastructure and create employment opportunities. The programme will also help in poverty alleviation and improving the standard of living of the people.

2. Mr. H. S. Rao (Member): The restrictions imposed by the Government on the "Food for Work" Programme are a positive step. It will help in the development of infrastructure and create employment opportunities. The programme will also help in poverty alleviation and improving the standard of living of the people. The restrictions imposed by the Government are necessary to ensure that the programme is implemented effectively and efficiently.

3. Mr. M. V. Narasimha Rao (Member): The restrictions imposed by the Government on the "Food for Work" Programme are a welcome move. Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu:—So, far as the Advisory Committee is concerned, it is a Committee constituted with sound and good powers. I think, the latest G. O. is not within the knowledge of our friends. It has been laid down that the Advisory Committee's advice is mandatory and binding on the B.D.O. except where it is contrary to the rules, in which case it will have to be referred to the Government. But the advice of the Advisory Committee is binding on the B.D.O. Where lies the lacuna I just submit. The distribution of food-for-work programme is done by the Collector unaided by any Advisory Committee. Therefore, a dictator distributes altogether totally ignoring the Samithis and much of which is done through the Revenue Officers and there, most of the Samithi's functioning in terms of food-for-work programme is suffering.

re: Steps to improve the living conditions of the Agricultural Labourers.

7th March, 1980.

Improving the living conditions of agricultural labourers requires a concerted effort. The resolution aims to address the dismal living conditions, often characterized by low wages, inadequate housing, and limited access to basic amenities. The need to improve their standard of living is urgent, as they form a significant portion of the workforce in rural areas. The resolution highlights the importance of providing them with better housing, better wages, and improved working conditions. It also calls for the establishment of a fund to support agricultural labourers in times of need. Through collective action and immediate implementation of these measures, it is envisaged that the living standards of agricultural labourers can be substantially improved.

12-40 p.m.

There are some issues that need to be addressed to improve the living conditions of agricultural labourers. In order to achieve this, we need to take some steps. The first step is to increase the wages of agricultural labourers. Currently, the wages are not enough to meet the basic needs of the labourers. We need to increase the wages by at least 200%. This will improve the standard of living of the labourers.

Next, we need to provide better housing facilities to the labourers. Many labourers are living in inadequate housing conditions. We need to provide proper housing facilities to them. This will improve their quality of life.

Furthermore, we need to ensure better access to education and health facilities. Many labourers are not accessing these facilities due to various reasons. We need to ensure that they have easy access to these facilities.

In conclusion, we need to take serious steps to improve the living conditions of agricultural labourers. This will not only improve their quality of life but also contribute to the overall development of the country.
