On the demise of Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan, National Leader.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy (Kalvakurthi):—Mr. Speaker Sir, the Indian dynamism beginning with Sri Raja Ram Mohan Roy, perhaps ending with Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan, presents a dazzling galaxy of illustrious personnel. Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan is now one of the most shining and mightiest members of the Indian political pantheon. Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan has a unique place not only in the history of modern India but in the history of the whole world. Two cardinal characteristics characterised his career. One is, ceaseless relentless quest for Truth, second is, intense love for humility. These two things have made him change his position a number of times. He underwent a number of ideological incarnations so to say. He was to begin with a Marxist revolutionary, then as the hero of the Quit India Movement a socialist pioneer, a Sarvodaya Leader and finally a total revolutionary. But whatever positions he took, he was totally committed to all of them. He, next only to Mahatma Gandhi, made greater contribution to Indian democracy not by adorning position of authority, in fact by sharing the state power. Of all the glorious phases of his chequered career, the last one was easily the most inspired. He will go down in his history as a great preserver in Indian democracy. If the life, career and message of Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan are to be measured in term of short-term material success, I am afraid, one may not be able to describe it as a shining success, but if the greatness of the person has to be judged in terms of inspiration, that he can provide to one generation to another for centuries an end, we must say Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan is the greatest Indian since Mahatma Gandhi and perhaps the greatest man since now. We saw who are members of the Janata Party. I may also take the liberty of speaking on behalf of those, who were members of Janata Party earlier, and were his faltering followers. It is not J.P. who failed in the country, it was we, who failed in Jaya Prakash Narayan. On this solemn occasion, when Indian horizon, is once again darkened by the clouds of authoritarian chains and forces, we must renew our dedication to the cause of Indian democracy. I do not want to say any controversial things on this occasion, but I can only say that the true memorial of J.P. the message of Lok Nayak, can only be an ideal in democracy where individual will enjoy liberty and

Con dolence Motions
On the demise of Sri Jayaprakash Narayan, National Leader.

On the 12th day of the month of Margazhi, the year 1980, Dr. S. V. Ranga Rao, Member of the Parliament, addressed the following motion of condolence:

Dr. S. V. Ranga Rao, Member of the Parliament:

We, the Members of Parliament, in the House of the People, bow our heads in deepest reverence to the memory of Sri Jayaprakash Narayan, the National Leader, who passed away on 8th February, 1980.

Sri Jayaprakash Narayan was born on 19th July, 1906, in a poor Brahmin family in the village of Pranpur, in the district of Aurangabad, in the province of Bihar. He received his education at the University of Allahabad, where he completed his B.A. and M.A. degrees in 1927 and 1929, respectively. He then went on to study law at the Allahabad University, where he received his LL.B. degree in 1931.

Sri Jayaprakash Narayan was a prominent leader of the Indian National Congress and a key figure in the struggle for Indian independence. He was a close associate of India's first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, and played a significant role in the formation of the Indian Constitution. He was a strong advocate of non-violence and was instrumental in the struggle against British rule in India.

Sri Jayaprakash Narayan was a man of uncompromising integrity and was known for his dedication to the cause of the people. He was a true leader who inspired millions with his commitment to justice and freedom.

Sri Jayaprakash Narayan's death is a loss that will be felt by all who knew him and by all who benefited from his leadership. He will be remembered as a great leader and a guiding light for the people of India.

We, the Members of Parliament, pay our respects to the memory of Sri Jayaprakash Narayan, the National Leader, and express our deepest sympathy to his family and friends.
On the demise of Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan, National Leader.

On the demise of Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan, National Leader.

(Mr. S. K. G.)—(Mr. S. K. G.):—

In the year 1946, a young and energetic leader of our party was initiated into political life. His name was Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan, who had the unique distinction of being our National Leader. His untimely death is a great loss to the country.

Sri Jaya Prakash Narayan was a man of great vision and determination. He had a clear understanding of the problems facing the country and he always worked towards finding solutions to these problems. His speeches were always thought-provoking and his ideas were always fresh and innovative.

He was a great statesman and his contributions to the country are unparalleled. He was a scholar, a personality, and a statesman. His death is a great loss to the country and to the Indian nation.

We express our deepest condolences to his family and to all his friends and associates. We also express our deep sense of loss to the Indian nation.

Condolence Motions:

Sri Ch. Parasurama Naidu (Parvathipuram):—Mr. Speaker, Sir, once in a time great men come down to earth to liberate humanity from the domination of evil and from the domination of so many unworthy forces. Jaya Prakash Narain is one of those great men that have come down to earth for the liberation of mankind from the many defects, that over took us. Coming from America after arduous studies, he was the one of the founders of the Congress Socialist Party. He was a votary of Nationalism and Socialism. He was a votary of attaining Independence for this country and then making this country a socialist country. He is a man whose ideology is next to nobody's. He is a man whose selflessness is incomparable. At a time after Independence was attained, when men were after jobs, when men were after offices and when men were doing anything and everything for the sake of attaining office, he, as a beacon light, kept himself far above all these attractions, all these allurements and was leading the nation towards what he thought, the idealistic society—Sarvodaya. Sarvodaya is a concept of entire humanity. He has taken up the ideal of elevating the entire humanity into brotherhood. Offices were at his disposal. Invitations were there—"you come and occupy". Along with him a galaxy of stars like Acharya Narendra Dev were there. At the feet of these men jobs were there; offices were there. What an example was set by Sri Jaya prakash Narayan" No, I am not after them. I do not touch them, but I will always be intensely in the midst of public activity. I do not touch office." That was his ideal. Ramavathara or any of the greatest idealists of this country have not given up the attractions for the job. Here is a man who has given up the attractions for the job. Let there be any controversial view of his ideas. That is immaterial for us today. He has sacrificed himself for the nation and for his ideals and dedicated himself to the service of the nation. Still his ideals burn in the hearts of so many men and it will live for all times. The nation's homage is certainly for him and I bow before him.
