re: Election of Speaker.

The Election of Speaker (Mr. V. G. Krishnaiah): The late Mr. V. G. Krishnaiah, who had served the country with distinction, passed away on January 4, 1983.

The meeting was convened at 11:00 a.m. under the chairmanship of Mr. T. N. Rao, the Deputy Speaker. The meeting proceeded to the election of Mr. V. G. Krishnaiah as the new Speaker. The election was conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure, and Mr. Krishnaiah was duly elected as the new Speaker.

The new Speaker addressed the assembly, expressing his gratitude for the confidence placed in him. He assured the members of his commitment to serve the country with dedication and integrity.
Election of Speaker.

18th January, 1983.

The Speaker, after taking Members to the floor, asked the Treasurer and Controller, [hereinafter referred to as the Treasury], to present the following items:

The Treasurer and Controller presented the aforementioned items to the Members. The Members then proceeded to discuss the items presented.
Sri P. Ramachandra Reddy (Sangareddy):—Mr, Speaker Sir, on this auspicious occasion when you are elected as Speaker unanimously I extend my hearty congratulations and also promise to cooperate. In this House, I being an Independent Member and the Independents are the weakest people in the House, I hope from to-day when you cease to be a Member of any political party, you are the only leader and protector. This Chair was occupied continuously by eminent advocates and lawyers. When this community hall was converted into Assembly in Old Hyderabad State, Kasinath Vaidya who occupied this Chair was an eminent lawyer and subsequently after the formation of Andhra Pradesh Kaleswara Rao, B.V. Subba Reddy, R. Dasaradharama Reddy were all lawyers except Pidathala Ranga Reddy. It is a proud privilege to the professional community. I being a lawyer feel doubly happy. This Chair is being occupied by an eminent lawyer like you. I hope the legal knowledge you are having will help you in discharging your duties. In this House a large number of legislators are from Telugu Desam. Next to them is Congress (I). National Parties are having less number. I have no doubt that you will treat everybody and protect our rightful rights. I hope you will discharge your duties without fear or favour and I hope God would give you energy and strength to discharge your duties. Once again I request you to show some special concession to us as we are the weakest in this House.

I once again congratulate you and extend my co-operation. Traditionally Andhra Pradesh Legislature has always been keeping up the decorum, decency compared to other States. We must show an example to other State Assemblies. Inspite of excitements on important public issues we will maintain decorum and decency. I once again congratulate you and I promise we will co-operate with you.

Sri P. Ashok Gajapathi Raju (Vijayanagaram):—I would like to bring to your notice that Sri Venkiah Naidu himself, the hon. Member, during the last Presidential election wear a badge and the Speaker has given a ruling that any member can wear a badge.

Sri M. P. Patil (Karimnagar):—Mr. Speaker, whereas we may consider that he (Mr. Venkiah Naidu) technologically can carry a badge, we do not think that a badge can be worn as a cloak by an hon. Member. The Speaker has given a ruling that any member can wear a badge. We do not think any member can wear a badge.

Sri K. Harinarayana Rao (Vizianagaram):—Mr. Speaker, whereas the Speaker has given a ruling that any member can wear a badge, we do not think that a badge can be worn as a cloak by an hon. Member. The Speaker has given a ruling that any member can wear a badge. We do not think any member can wear a badge.

Election of Speaker.

(1) In view of the request of the members of the 12th Lok Sabha for a change of Speaker, the following resolution was moved and adopted:

(2) Shri. V. P. Singh, Member, Lok Sabha, is elected Speaker of the 12th Lok Sabha.

(3) The proposed change of Speaker was moved by Shri. V. P. Singh, Member, Lok Sabha, and seconded by Dr. Manmohan Singh, Minister of Finance.

(4) The resolve was passed by a voice vote.
Election of Speaker. 18th January, 1983.

The President (Mr. Ch. Subrahmanya):—Mr. Speaker, Messrs. members, there is no difficulty in this business. As the last Speaker has stated, it is not a new procedure. The rule is in the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution, and it says that the Speaker shall be elected by the members of the House. This rule provides that in the absence of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker shall act. So, if not the Speaker, then the Deputy Speaker shall act. In the absence of both, the House may elect a member to act as Speaker. This is a new procedure, but there is nothing novel in it. As the last Speaker has stated, it was followed in the previous Assembly. There was a similar situation, and the House elected the Deputy Speaker to act as Speaker. Therefore, there is nothing new in it. So, the House is requested to elect Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya, the Deputy Speaker, to act as Speaker.

Mr. E. R. Jenner (Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya):—Mr. Speaker, the rule is there in the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution. It has always been followed. It is not a new thing. The House-elect the Deputy Speaker to act as Speaker in the absence of the Speaker. It has been followed in the previous Assembly. I am being asked to act as Speaker. I have no objection to acting as Speaker. I am ready to act as Speaker. I am ready to accept the responsibilities. I am ready to act as Speaker.

Mr. S. B. Ray (Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya):—Mr. Speaker, I have no objection to acting as Speaker. I am ready to act as Speaker.

Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya (Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya):—Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I accept the responsibilities.

The President (Mr. Ch. Subrahmanya):—The House-elects Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya, the Deputy Speaker, to act as Speaker.

Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya (Mr. Chidambaram Subrahmanya):—Thank you, Mr. Speaker.
Sri M. Verkaiah Naidu:—We are all beside him. Don't worry.
