Matters Under Rule 329:

re: Agitation for Distribution of surplus Lands around Challapalli Sugars Limited of Krishna District.

re: Agitation for Distribution of surplus Land around Challapalli Sugars Limited of Krishna District.

M/s. Challapalli Sugars Limited filed a declaration of their holding for an extent of Acres 2,447.88 before the Land Reforms Tribunal Machilipatnam on 11-4-1975. While enquiry was in progress, M/s. Challapalli Sugars Limited, filed a Writ Petition in the High Court challenging the validity of the Act. The Writ Petition was dismissed on 4-12-1981. Subsequently the Land Reforms Tribunal, Machilipatnam disposed of the case on 19-11-1982 declaring that an Extent of land equivalent to 127.4033 standard holdings as surplus land liable to be surrendered, The Company filed an appeal before Land Reforms Appellate Tribunal which was dismissed on 2-7-1983. The Company filed Civil Revision Petition on the file of the High Court as against the order of the Appellate Tribunal. The High Court passed an interim order on 15-7-1983 that status-quo on that date should be maintained till the disposal of the Revision Petition. Both parties are restrained from inducting third parties into the land. The Collector, Krishna has been instructed that Law and Order should be maintained at any cost and no third party should be allowed to enter the lands.

The C.P.M. all Party Samithi gave a call to obstruct the lease holders from cultivating the land. The agitators obstructed the coolies from entering into the land situated at Nimmagadda, Lankathota, Talalapalli, Challapalli and Guppigadda assuming them to be third parties. The D.S.P. of Bandar registered some cases in Challapalli Police Station under Section for Criminal Trespass and mischief and they are under investigation. On 21-8-1983 at about 11:00 a.m. about thirty people trespassed into the fields of Challapalli Sugars Limited where transplantation was going on by coolies engaged by the factory. On a complaint given by the Supervisor of the Factory a case was registered for criminal trespass and rioting and 28 persons including 3 women belonging to Puttagadda, Chintalawada and Gantasala Villages.

re: Agitation for Distribution of surplus Land Around Challapalli Sugars Limited of Krishna District.

The petitioners state that during the month of July and August, they have been agitating in the area of Challapalli Sugars Limited for the distribution of surplus land. The agitation has caused a lot of inconvenience and has resulted in a lot of disputes. The petitioners request the court to intervene and resolve the matter.

The court orders the petitioners to submit a copy of the petition to the Challapalli Sugars Limited and to the District Collector. The court also orders the Challapalli Sugars Limited to consider the petition and to submit a report to the court within four weeks.

The petitioners are ordered to submit a copy of the report to the court within two weeks of its receipt by the Challapalli Sugars Limited.

The court also orders the Challapalli Sugars Limited to ensure that the distribution of surplus land is carried out in a fair and transparent manner.

Matters Under Rule 329
re: Agitation for Distribution of surplus Land Around Challapalli Sugar Limited of Krishna District.

The District Collector should see that the Status quo is maintained. If the people organised a political party or sought to be present... by the Police, the Police at the same time must take the steps to see that the Landlord does not allow his own people to enter into the land so as to enable them to acquire vested ranks.

Note:

Suggestion: The Police should take steps to ensure that the land is not given to outsiders. The Police must also ensure that the Landlord does not allow his own people to enter the land to prevent them from acquiring vested rights.

---

Point 10:

At 10-30 a.m. the Police must ensure that the land is free from outsiders. The Police should be vigilant to prevent any unauthorized entry.

Point 11:

The Police should ensure that the Landlord does not allow his own people to enter the land.

Point 12:

The Police should ensure that the land is not given to outsiders.

Suggestion:

The Police should take strict measures to prevent outsiders from entering the land. The Police should also ensure that the Landlord does not allow his own people to enter the land.

---

Note:

The Police should ensure that the land is not given to outsiders. The Police must also ensure that the Landlord does not allow his own people to enter the land to prevent them from acquiring vested rights.

Reflexions on the Speaker in the Legislative Council.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—Sir, I wish to draw the attention of the House to a very grave issue. The House and the Deputy Speaker may be aware of the reflections cast on our speaker in the Legislative Council. We all know the members in this House should not cast reflections on the members of that House, more particularly the Chairman of that House. The same is mutatis mutandis true of the other House. I do not know members in the Legislative Council were allowed to make allegations on the Speaker in the House. While nobody knows the merits of the case—I am not at the moment concerned with the facts and merits of the case—if such allegations are allowed to be levelled against the Speaker, it is a grave and delicate thing and I think nobody can be safe. I am only concerned with the dignity of the Speaker and primarily with the maintenance of high traditions of parliamentary democracy and this matter was allowed to be referred to, not once but more than once. I do not know whether those proceedings were eventually expunged; even if they are expunged since they were allowed to go on record they found their way to the press and the mischief was done. It is for us the members of the House to express our resentment against the manner in which the person of the Speaker was allowed to be trifled with in the other House and since the other House could raise this issue, the matter has been intermittently figuring in the press causing harassment to all of us. Therefore I am of the considered view that you should convey our profound and strong sense of resentment against what has happened in the House. There is need to defend the dignity of the Speaker and also the need to see that people in high places are not allowed to be placed under such malicious charges. Nobody knows the facts but the Speaker has certain privileges and certain advantages and they cannot be allowed to be raided in a surreptitious fashion.
ReSexions on the Speaker in the Legislative Council.

Even if you allow 29½ members I have no objection. Keeping in mind that it is the sensitive issue only, I am requesting.
Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—I think there is a need for me to clarify my whole problem. I did not say that any proceedings should be instituted against any of the members of the Legislative Council. The Press has reported what has been transpired. I merely said that the House should take note of this propriety and must convey our sense of resentment. Though this House is competent to do having regard to the delicate situation, nothing more is warranted. I said what Mr. Venkaiah Naidu had said.
Sri A. Madan Mohan (Siddipet) :—Sir It is really unfortunate that without proper basis a thing has figured. None of us is really in agreement with such a situation. We all share the concern of this House. My party will share the feelings of other members of the Opposition. In fact we have to maintain the dignity and decorum of the House. Just on mere anonymous letters and the allegations, one has to move, particularly one will not have any protection. Apart from not having protection he will not be able to really protect the Chair, which has to conduct the proceedings. Irrespective of the merits, because there is nothing for us to establish, it is better we talk less about such things. As far as the Council is concerned, I would request Mr. Jaipal Reddy and others who have expressed their concern to withdraw the demand though made in a lighter way to avoid any confrontation in both the Houses, because these two Houses are the wings of Legislature. They have got to function in Reflexions on the Speaker in the Legislative Council.

27th August, 1983.

Harmony. Sometimes when tempers typically play, it is difficult to find with equal mental equilibrium. I don't know under what circumstances this matter was raised. For one thing, I would like to share the feelings of the House. I know about what has happened in the Legislative Council. The adverse remarks made against the Speaker on 18th and 23rd were expunged from the proceedings by the Hon. Chairman and the same was announced by the Chairman on 26th August. Now that they have expunged the proceedings, they have thought that this is not a correct approach and that has been realised by the Upper House. It is better if we don't convey any further feelings or resentments from this House, for the harmonious functioning of both the Houses. I request the members to whoever party they belong, who have appealed through you to convey the feelings may kindly withdraw and that portion to do so may kindly be expunged. Henceforth, we will try to see that such irresponsible allegations are not taken note of.

Sri S. Jaipal Reddy:—I am happy to learn that the proceedings were expunged. Naturally, the members of the Legislative Council are elders and have realised the lapse that was allowed to be committed. But as I mentioned earlier, the expunction followed publication and wide publicity was given in the Press. Therefore the mischief was more than half done. Through our feelings we should not institute any proceedings, and we did not seek any confrontation. We merely gave our expressions, to our feelings. Let our feelings as expressed be placed on record so that the office of Speaker is salvaged, because he has suffered considerable erosion. This is my submission.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—Mr. Deputy Speaker, Sir. I have made this fervent appeal to my colleagues here to allow both the Houses function in harmony. I once again appeal to them not to make any reference or insist upon conveyance of the feelings by placing them on record, because they have done that job. In spite of this if the hon. members insist upon this being kept on record, I have no other alternative but to say that my party, while sharing the feelings of this House and the members who have expressed their concern to to keep the dignity of House, will not be a party to the concern expressed and asked this House to convey to the other House.

for 1983-84:

7. In pursuance of the Government's continued efforts towards the welfare and uplift of these segments of the society, efforts are being made to improve the quality of services in these areas. The demands presented for these purposes include:

- Social Welfare:
  - Assistance for education, medical care, and rehabilitation of physically challenged persons.
  - Support for the aged and the disabled.

- Tribal Welfare:
  - Development of tribal areas through education, health, and economic growth.
  - Promotion of cultural and social activities.

- Women Welfare:
  - Programs for women's empowerment, health care, and education.
  - Support for women's rights and legal awareness.

- Child Welfare:
  - Initiatives for child education, nutrition, and health care.
  - Protection of children's rights and welfare.

The demands are based on the rationale of enhancing the quality of life and ensuring equal opportunities for all segments of the society. The budget allocations are designed to align with the Government's priorities and objectives towards social development and welfare.
