Sri A. Madan Mohan:—From January to November, how many houses have been constructed so far from January, how many under construction and what are the further proposals before the Government?

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—To be more specific, from the advent of Telugu Desam till today, how many houses have been constructed, how many are under construction and what are the proposals for further construction?

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—Am I to presume that the entire one lakh and odd houses are under construction and the construction is in progress? The Minister might think again and answer because it becomes a question of privilege. I am giving another opportunity.

Subject:—LAQ No. 2345 (starred) given notice by Sri G. Muddu Krishna, MLA, regarding Establishment of Regional Film Censor Board at Hyderabad.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter No. 1724/I&PR/A2/83-1, dated 5th August, 1983 on the above subject and to say that a proposal to set up more regional offices of the Central Board of Film Certification has been included in the sixth five year plan 1980-85. Under this plan scheme, two regional offices have already been opened at Bangalore and Trivendram. However, certification of films has not started in these offices. During the sixth plan period it is further proposed to open one more centre at Delhi. The Government of India is also considering the opening of an office of the Central Board of Film Certification at Hyderabad, though no final decision in this regard has been taken so far.

Your faithfully,

Calling Attention to Matters of Urgent Public Importance:

re: Denial of Admissions to Harijan and Girijan Students in the Hostels in Gudur Division, Nellore District.

14th September, 1983.

We note that in the past, 363 students were admitted, 10 less than the number required. However, 42 students were admitted due to the intervention of political leaders. As a result, the number of students in the hostel was increased from 58 to 100. We request that the matter be investigated and appropriate action be taken.

Sri A. Madan Mohan—Sir, I can quite understand the anxiety and the agitated members of h' Treasury Benches. Naturally, because of their overwhelming affection for their leader, they might be reacting in a fashion what they are doing— but one thing they should also know. If it was just a matter of N. T. Rama Rao, in his personal capacity, natural any Member has no reason to discuss. Here Mr. N. T. Rama Rao is not Mr. N. T. Rama Rao but N. T. Rama Rao is the fountain head of the administration. He is the head of the Government. He is the Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh and it is he, who has got to keep the administration in order. So, in the entire body and apparatus of the administration, wherever something goes wrong, it is but natural and it is but necessary for the opposition to pin-point to see that particular body which is suffering from the ailment is rectified and cured and he is well within his parliamentary decency in describing about what he has felt.

If this Government has got guts, come on, I can prove.

(Interruptions).

(The entire Treasury Benches shouted 'No' 'No' Several Members stood shouting)

In the interests of the fair-play and justice, the Speaker has to give him the opportunity. Mr. Rajasekhara Reddy is the Member who is taking the responsibility. The Hon'ble Member is saying that he is taking the responsibility to prove the allegation.

I only request the Hon'ble Speaker to let the allegation go on record. Let the Minister who has just entered say anything to this.

Let them take the responsibility in the interests of justice and fair play, which the Chief Minister is talking day in and day out.

I only recall one point sir, even in the Assembly also, standing from the same place, the Chief Minister said "If you point out anything against any Minister, I will drag him before the public and I will make him answerable to the people". Here is a Member alleging and let the Chief Minister accept it in its true spirit and order an enquiry. That would be a good precedent also, Sir.
Provided that the Speaker may at any time prohibit any member from making such allegation if he is of the opinion that such allegation is derogatory to the dignity of the House or that no public interest is served by making such allegation.}

68—10
Sri A. Madan Mohan:—The Hon’ble Member from the Telugu D’sam, while quoting Rule 315 has conveniently forgotten the proviso. It reads like this: "Provided that the Speaker may at any time prohibit any member from making such allegation if he is of the opinion that such allegation is derogatory to the dignity of the House or that no public interest is served by making such allegation.”

The test before the Speaker is two fold. One is whether this allegation is derogatory to the dignity of the House. It is not the question of dignity of the House. The second aspect is whether any public interest is involved in this, or not. When once it is considered that it is in the public interest, then the Member should be allowed to make the allegation. The proviso the rule had r c’s t c’s:—that if two ingredients were satisfied, namely the allegation should not be derogatory to the House and also that it should serve some public interest, then an allegation could be made. If the Speaker is satisfied with the ingredients, he should have no option except to allow to make such allegation. If the presumption of the Members from the Treasury Benches is that no such thing can be brought before this House, we have to shut our mouths as pointed out by my f.i.d Mr. Omkar. Let the Chief Minister say because it is their Government, this House will only act to the dictates and terms given by them and the Opposition Members.
have to shut their mouths; well, the job becomes very easy and there need not be any business, transaction and there need not be any allegations and counter allegations. Sometimes some wild allegations are hurled. Certainly we have to bear with them with stresses and strains. We are living in a system. Mr. Speaker, Sir, before giving a ruling all these aspects may be kept in view. It should help in growth of parliamentary democracy. Added to this, when the Hon'ble Member is from the responsible Opposition, a former Minister, a sitting Member of this House, a former Deputy Leader of the House and the present head of an Organisation, a Party, which is having its wings all over the country, with all the responsibility when he makes such an allegation and when he owns the responsibility, I do not think there should be any discussion further, Sir. I am sure the Hon'ble Speaker will keep all these factors in consideration before you give ruling in this august House. It is going to be a part of History. I would like you, Sir, to come down in History. I call upon you, Sir, to really show your honesty and the conduct in a most befitting fashion to which everybody should appreciate. Because of their majority, they would like to shut the voice of the opposition. Probably, the opposition has no other alternative except to resort to what has been provided in the Constitution. I do not say this just to warn anybody, since there is no other option, just to express our resentment, to express our feelings, if you want to scuffle the throat and the voice of the opposition, we will have no other alternative except to resort to extra Constitutional methods. I have told yesterday also, about this and particularly, I hope, this Government will not allow or force us to resort to such measures.

Mr. Speaker:—Suppose, the allegation, for which the Member is owning the responsibility, proves to be false, what is the course to be followed?

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—If it is found to be false, we will have to think ways and means as to what should be done. I am telling you there are some privilege motions. We give notice of privilege. Prima facie if it is established, it is a matter of privilege; the Committee Consisting of Members of the Privilege Committee, after due deliberations and after giving due thought, finally draw the inference, whether there is any privilege involved in it or not. What is that we do here? What is that we propose to do in future? If it is just causing some thing for the Government, I cannot say any things. We sat in those Benches for continuously 35 years. We swallowed the allegations concocted stories, allegations, most unpardonable and indecent things, we have seen casting aspersions and also making character assassinations. But we are quiet. The system is like that. As long as you are in public life, you are within the system. Naturally, it is the greater responsibility. More particularly, for those who adorn the office the responsibility is more and you have got to accept the responsibility. You have to own the responsibility. As a Senior Member of the House you know if any mistake is committed by an Asst. Director, or the Director the Minister has to own the responsibility. Because of their sincerity, for no effort of your own, well you enjoy the credit too. So you have to accept the responsibility if there is anything, that is what I would like to add.

12-00 noon

Mr. Speaker:— Before making such an allegation, the Member must take the permission of the Speaker.

Sr. A. Madan Mohan:— Supposing, I am making a specific allegation then, naturally, I will have to adopt a different course. That course would be that I will give a notice and I will seek prior permission and with the permission of the Speaker, I will certainly raise that for discussion. But this is different. He is discussing on General Administration Department Demand. During that he has raised it. Please go through the earlier debates when Mr. Tenneti Viswanadham and other stalwarts were participating in the debates. While I was sitting as a school going boy, I have listened to their inspiring speeches. We have heard Vavilala Gopalakrishnayya, Puchhalapalli Sundaraiah, Vemulapalli Srikrishna and many other stalwarts. When we were in Government, when they made several the Government had the humility to listen to them and tried to refute them when the opportunity arose but had never tried to shut them out. It is not an isolated incident. If it is an isolated incident, I would agree with the Hon'ble Speaker that he should naturally take the prior permission. But here, in the course of discussion on the Demand, he is trying to pin-point the inefficiency of the administration. He is mentioning to the Chief Minister about one of his colleague's incident which has brought to his notice. He is narrating in the course of his speech. He is owning the responsibility and prepared to prove it.

Mr. Speaker:— If he owns the responsibility, let him make the allegation and the Minister concerned will give explanation. We will see the result.
Annual Financial Statement (Budget) 14th September, 1983 for 1983-84:

Demands for Grants.

Mr. Speaker:—When he owns the responsibility, he knows the consequences.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—I would like to remind the Hon’ble Minister that when he was a Member of the Legislative Assembly, much more, in the Treasury Benches, he had decided to read a letter written by a Contractor and tried to throw challenges on his own party Members. Does he forget about it?

Mr. Speaker:—Mr. Rajasekhar Reddy, you do not read the letter. You can make your allegation.

Dr. Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy:—Yes Sir.

Mr. Speaker:—The House has got every right to move a privilege motion against the Member, if he makes a false allegation. There is every right to move a privilege motion.

Mr. Speaker:—I will give a chance for his explanation.

Dr. Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy:—Sir, you have asked me not to read out the letter. I am making the allegation.

Mr. Speaker:—Let him reply. You can refute, I will give you chance to explain if it is false.
Mr, Speaker:— You see the results, when it becomes a false statement, who is responsible for it?

Sri M. Venkaiah Naidu:—Sir, He must find out a way and on the question put by the Speaker, I have got a submission to the Hon' ble Speaker and 'o the House also. There was an earlier Ruling by the Hon'ble Speaker i.e. Shri B.V. Subba Reddy......

(SRI N. Venkata Ratnam:— Sir, that rule would not apply to the Members. There, it is written "a person" not "a Member." Under Rule 305,—it is conditional matter i.e., unless a notice is given to the Speaker, no charge can be made- that is a conditional provision. I am referring to Rule 304-2 i.e. a Member shall not make a personal charge against the Member. Sir, you please refer to it.

Mr. Speaker;—No question of responsibility, no question of baseless allegation or baseful allegation. It is a clear Rule—that no charge shall be made against a Member.

(SIR) SR. J. R. Reddy:— I was wondering if the Sri B.V. Subba Reddy had made any ruling. Sir, you please refer to it.

Suppose a member of the Council is a Minister here, what is the position Sir? According to 305, This will apply to 'out-siders. "I would like to tell the members one thing. It will be certain not proper make allegations against persons who are not in the House. "Members not in the House." It will be unfair to make allegations in the absence of a Minister who is not here to answer the allegations, you are making......"
Annual Financial Statement (Budget) 14th September, 1983
for 1983-84:

Demands for Grants.

I know, what is going to happen. Now the Minister may say that it is false and he may say that it is true. But then, the House comes into the picture. And then, we can proceed further. If immediately follows, the Minister has to go and the Chief Minister has to take the responsibility for keeping such corrupt people if it is proved.
Sri M. Venkaiah Naidu: —Sir, then, you have to put the question to the Member who made the allegation. You have to question that Member, but without hearing him how can you come to the conclusion?

Sri D. Narayana Swamy (Anantapur): —Sir, please understand the Section. What the rule says is: the intention of the Rule is to give caution to the Hon’ble Speaker to see that no false allegations are made. If there is time for him; if he has previous knowledge, he must speak with the Hon’ble Speaker about it, enlighten him on the truth of it then the Hon’ble Speaker will allow. Suppose suddenly a man comes and tells him “now I have come to know the truth about it”, he can raise it. It is under that proviso, you can allow it. But in this case, he had to say previously. He has got every duty to come and speak with you, otherwise, it is discourtesy to the Speaker and to the House. He must come and sit with you, give sufficient time to you, afterwards, you allow it. You should understand the Rule. It is a privilege of the House. Any false statement made, one cannot go scot-free. Let him make a statement outside. There is sufficient time, to get a belief that these people are corrupt. Let him make a statement outside the House. Why not? If he is bold enough, let him make it. That is the method. To inform like that suddenly it is absurd.

Sri M. Venkaiah Naidu: —Sir, I have to put the question to the Member who made the allegation. You have to question that Member, but without hearing him how can you come to the conclusion?
Annual Financial statement (Budget) 14th September, 1983. 333
for 1983-84:

Demands for Grants

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—Sir, after hearing everybody you gave the Ruling and you have permitted the Hon'ble Member to speak. Now are we to reopen? Yesterday, in the evening, although much to our discomfiture and probably to your discomfiture, in order to facilitate the transaction of the business, you said on certain occasions you would give your Ruling—but did we question that? It was not to our liking, but we have not questioned your authority. Now you have permitted the member and they are reopening. If they want to reopen it and if you want to allow them to reopen it, I have no objection. I am prepared to deliberate and discuss not only for hours but days together on this to convince my point.

Mr. Speaker:—Whatever is said earlier, Rule 305 is for seeking the permission of the speaker and all that. But under the Rule 304(2), "A member shall not make a personal charge against any member". That comes in the way. That is why if every member is going on making allegations each other, than what will be the fate of the House? So this Rule is realistic. A Member, while speaking shall not make a personal charge against a member. So, under this Rule I am not permitting any member to make any personal charge against any member. So, I request Sri Raja Sekhara Reddy to withdraw his allegations otherwise I am going expunge them.

(Interruptions)

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—Sir, I say that this is not a personal charge. this is a charge against the Minister in his position and as a Minister in discharge of his due duties, in his capacity as a Transport Minister. This is my stetement. I would like to have the answer from the Speaker. That is not a personal charge. This is a charge against the Minister and that too in due discharge of his duties as a Minister for Transport. So, it cannot be construed as personal charge.

(Interruptions)

Mr. Speaker:—Let us adopt some procedure, to be followed in future also. What should be the course? Suppose any member Sri N. Venkataratnam:—If it is a point of order, that could be allowed. But the Speaker has given a decision on a point of order, and that has become final. Unless it is a fresh point of order, it cannot be raised.

Mr. Speaker:—It is open to me.

Mr. Speaker:—I am asking Sri Rajasekhara Reddy, supposing it turns to be false, what is to follow?

Sri Ahmed Shareef (Pargi):—That question does not arise.

Mr. Speaker:—Only when he said it is the responsibility. Let him say. He said he owns the responsibility. So, I am asking.

Sri Y.S. Rajasekhara Reddy:—I am ready to own the responsibility of my allegation. I am ready to accept any sort of challenge in this regard....resignation, getting out of political life or any sort of admonition. Come.

Dr Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy:—An Enquiry Commission be appointed.

The next course open is the process. He was fair enough to take the responsibility and then accepted the challenge. The action to be taken is two things he said, resignation of membership or retirement from public life. As far as we are concerned the next course left is Leader of the House in consultation with the Speaker must decide about the course of action to arrive at the truth because it is a serious allegation. Let the Minister accept the responsibility. Now it is good, he had accepted the responsibility. (Interruptions )

Mr. Speaker:—The course is left to the House.
Mr. Speaker:—All right, the matter is over.

(Interruptions)

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—Are you shirking from the responsibility? Is it that your moral fibre is so high?

Sri M. Venkaiah Naidu:—Other course is judicial enquiry . . . . Let one member say.

Sri V. Laxminarayana Rao (Kodad):—If I start making allegations as allowed here on other 293 members to-morrow and take conveniently five years to enquire, what is the image? I make a challenge and say that I will resign and for five years this enquiry would go on . . . .

Mr. Speaker:—I cannot help it. When there is an allegation against the Government, it is for the Member to own it.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—No Member, No responsible Member in order to taste the time of the House would take such a great responsibility and run the great risk of his political career. This should be borne in mind. After thoughtful consideration and due thought of what would be the consequences, it has been done by no less than a head of my organisation and political party and no less a person than a former Minister and no less a person than a Deputy Leader of Opposition until recently.

Mr. Speaker :- Why do you worry?

(interruptions)

Sri V. Lakshminarayana Rao :- Why not I say when they are making an allegation.
Sri N T Rama Rao—I leave it to your discretion.

Mr. Speaker:—Matter is over.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—The Constitution of the House Committee on such vital issue where it concerns everybody. I don't think you should take a decision. The Speaker's decision will be the 50:50. The matter should be considered by the House Committee. I hope you will do justice and you will be able to do this very objectively, impersonally and dispassionately.

Mr. Speaker:—So, you are agreeable to Venkaiah Naidu's suggestion.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—We have raised our immediate objection. It is not agreeable to us. So, ultimately if the Speaker has to take a decision that the constitution of the House Committee as suggested by the Leader of the House is the only way, then we have no other option. In that situation we are saying this aspect also should be kept in view.

Mr. Speaker:—Don't reopen this matter. It is closed.

Mr. Speaker:—I know you have got a brute majority. You don't want the House to proceed.

(Interruption)
Mr. Speaker:— Matter is over.

Dr. Y.S. Rajasekhara Reddy:— The House Committee should consist of 50% from each side. If it delivers a judgment against them they said they would both get out of politics and resign from politics and the same thing holds good with me also. I am accepting the challenge provided the House Committee consists 50% of the members from each side.

Mr. Speaker:— You should not deviate.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:— He is provoking us.

Dr. Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy:— I can tell you, I will prove.

What is corruption? It is like a flowing stream from a hillock. From top to bottom it is there. It is not unparliamentary. It may be irrelevant. Many times our learned members pointed out. You cannot expunge.

Annual Financial Statement (Budg t) 14th September, 1983.

for 1983-84:

Demands for Grants.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—There is lot to be said about General Administration. I don't know where to start and where to end. Some of the things are highlighted by my valued colleague Dr. Rajasekhara Reddy. Of course there was a little commotion and controversy. It has really taken the valuable time of the House leaving us little time to say anything on this. In fact I am supposed to wind up the demand. With your permission only I am saying a few things. Ever since the advent of this Government transfers have become a frequent order of the day. It is not just confined to the lower rank of the officers, unfortunately it has touched the top officials too. With the frequent transfers from one department to the other, I don't know what is the political sagacity or sense of humour or sense of understanding about the administrative efficacy.

I.A.S. Officers who are very senior, who are very experienced—even they, unless they are allowed to remain in a particular department for a period of 2 1/2 to 3 years, will not come to know the grip of the problem. This has been our experience and naturally we cannot expect them to do wonders. This has been a very unfortunate situation in the present day administration. It is not only doing harm to the dispensation of justice but also becoming an impediment in the growth of developmental activities. One can’t expect a person to work for a couple of months and ultimately ask them to go to a different department and try to show the results. No experienced public man will resort to these types of frequent transfers. The Telugu Desam Party Leaders more particularly, the Chief Minister said…“During Congress-I Government the transfers have become the order of the day…” But I do not understand upto what extent he is justifying in doing that? May be, if he had really transferred officers after six months or one year—here and there, he can point out again against us. But today, it has become countless—right from the I.A.S. Officer, down to the Class IV employees. More so, it is done with an impulse, suiting to the whims and fancies of the Chief Minister or a particular Minister, rather than keeping the efficacy of the administration in view. So, this sort of situation is really discernable and one will not be able to appreciate this type of administration that is going on.

I would really like to narrate the innumerable incidences where Government has indulged into these whimsical actions but because of the little time at my disposal and at the disposal of the House, I would only like to narrate a few, to high-light the incidence. Our Chief Secretaries have been transferred one after the other. Well, there is an accusation against the Congress-I Government—to say that within a period of 5 years, three Chief Ministers have been shifted. Well, Sir. that was our internal problem—that was our domestical problem and that was our political understanding. May be for various reasons we had shifted. But, now I would like to ask the Head of the State, that is this Chief Minister—as to what prompted him, what warranted him to change the Chief Secretaries consequentially three Chief Secretaries.
It is nothing but trying to find a scape-goat for the lapses, for the omissions and commissions done by his Government and done by the Chief Minister. Well, Sir, for example if I made a mistake, because I enjoy certain privileges and prerogatives in my capacity as the Chief Minister, I would try to hold somebody as a scapegoat and that is what we have been successfully hearing in trying to find the three Chief Secretaries as scape-goats. You have transferred the Director General of Police. Sir, these are the very prestigious positions where the entire administration balances its life. If he has really asked the view as to where the spinal card of the administration is—the spinal card of the administration is certainly the Chief Secretary, the D.G.P. and the Chief Justice so on and so forth. If you are to resort to changing them too frequently and trying to find in them a scape-goat for the lapses, omissions and commissions either committed by you or your henchmen, or by your Party, well, then, you would not be able to keep the morale of the Administration. The morale of the administration to-day unfortunately is at the lowest step in Andhra Pradesh. I do not know what goes this Government can really think of taking the developmental activities! People in the rural areas may be, still infatuated with the image, in cernation and glamour of the Chief Minister—but I would like to remind the Chief Minister, in his own interest, that the image of the Telugu Desam Party as such, the image of the Telugu Desam Government as such, is at the lowest step, may be except the Chief Minister. That Chief Minister should know that as far as the well enlightened sections are concerned, as far as the intelligent sections are concerned, the intelligentsia is concerned, as far as the services are concerned ... they are thoroughly disillusioned. Now what remains is, the position that is left for you in the rural areas. Certainly I am prepared to concede on the point that still probably you will enjoy your charm in the rural areas—but you should also think that it would not last long, because they are not the persons who are feeling that they have been touched upon the growth of development and may be, it does not take much time for them to realise—and when once they realise, they will understand. They are more mature than you and I. They have the native intelligence of understanding the performance of the Government, performance of the individuals—and they also understand the errors. Sir, the err is human. Sometimes if you commit a mistake they become emotional. We do allow ourselves into certain tidal waves and certain problems. But the moment they realise they will again be emotional and in doing so, the intelligent electorate has certainly the native intelligence and native commonsense—and once they realise as to what is genuine and what is fraud—what is genuine and what is false—it does not take much time for them to change their opinions. So, these aspects have to be learnt. Sir, this was learnt out of mistakes. This was learnt out of our experiences. I expect—if they also voted for the growth of democracy really, and for the growth of Parliament democracy in this country. I hope they will be able to appreciate really in what is said by me. I will say two things about the witch hunt of officers. This is again a senior officer by name Sri Sundresham, a person really of sterling character, sterling qualities with many years of experience in the administration, who had known to officers both from plus and minus and I can certainly say that there is an officer, who has unnecessarily been sinned for no fault of him. He has been denied his opportunity and he has been sent to some position and I do not know if the efficiency and the experience of the good officers are to be shunted out like this, then, what is the
With the N.G.O.s' strike, may be it was your experience or may be that you have not been able to recover from your day dreaming and euphoria—that you tried it again in the name of the people, to mobilise the people, to mobilise your party, to spend lakhs and crores of rupees on the publicity stunt only to make and create a confrontation between the people and the services. Any Chief Minister, whoever he may be and any Government if it is civilised, it would never resort to this type of confrontation between one's segment of the society and the other segment of the society. He has to own the responsibility. It was the onerous responsibility of carrying every segment of society with it.... and this exactly speaks of maturity, wisdom and also the sensibility. It is unfortunate and I do concede and I give some grace to the Chief Minister. Because he was new to the public life, new to the politics—much more, new to the administrative set up. Well, he might have done that mistake at the instance of or advice of some of his people around him. It is very unfortunate but I am happy, soon he has realised that such type of advisers are not correct. But instead of taking action against those people who are responsible for tendering such an advice to you, why do you fine the officers as scapegoats? It does not speak good of the Chief Minister. I am only telling him because we are in no hurry. I would like to say Sir, party which has ruled the State for continuously 35 years— is not an indecent haste to get into power. Sir, you know as to what are the whims of the Administration and what are the whims and the responsibilities of the Chief Minister. My Party knows it. My party as hundred years of history! May be in the course of hundred years, I might have committed some omissions and commissions here and there and it might have become more handy....

Since then, we have worked hard to ensure that our budgetary allocations are adequate. Our budget for 1983-84 includes significant increases in grants for various sectors to support development programs. We are pleased to see that our efforts have resulted in positive outcomes.

We hope that our budget will continue to support the growth and development of our country. We look forward to the positive impact that our budget will have on our people and their livelihoods.

Thank you for your support and commitment to our budgetary process. We are confident that our budget will lead to a brighter future for our nation.

Sri A. Madan Mohan:—We might have committed thousands of mistakes out of the responsibilities we had. I would like you to test the performance of this Government. It is neither having plus account nor minus account. What are the notable changes made within these 8 months? What are the achievements?

When they have committed thousands of mistakes and exposed to people, punishments should be given.

Earlier, Government has committed thousands of mistakes and they were exposed to the public and the people have given their verdict. We have made a lot of mistakes. The Welfare of weaker sections and the people, it is only when the people are satisfied.

What all I want to say is that as far as the welfare of the people and weaker sections are concerned, the Government must do something and should go before the people. Only satisfaction is required. The people have given their verdict. And in such a case, it is the responsibility of the Government to do something. The history of my period for the last 5 years is before the public and people are real Judges.
I want to reiterate the same once again. Secondly, as informed by one of the Hon'ble Members, every thing is at standstill. Everything is at a standstill. I have already enlightened the House about the acute water problem earlier. Last year, certain bore-wells were drilled to solve the water problem.
