THE HOUSE REASSEMBLED AT 11.18 a.m.

(Frontal Speaker in the Chair)
SRI A. MADAN MOHAN:— Sir, I am on my legs. Before actually the proceedings are initiated to-day, we made an appeal to the Hon'ble Speaker yesterday to provide proper protection and safety to the Members of the House, so that the deliberations and discussions can go through in a very peaceful manner. Yesterday, the British Broadcasting Corporation made an announcement saying—"what all happened here, in this House, it is Congress-I which was responsible". It is such a mischief unfounded, baseless, deliberate, wilful, intentional type of saying and that is going on against this country by some of the powers-that-be and I request the Hon'ble Speaker to order for the arrest of the Correspondent who has made such a mischievous correspondence. That is going on
