ORAL ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS.

Reduction of Sales Tax on Tyres and Diesel

71—

*5210-Q.—Sri Ch. Jayarambabu (Guntur-II) :-Will the Minister for Commercial Taxes be pleased to state:

(a) whether Sales tax on tractors has been reduced; and

(b) if so, whether there is any proposal to reduce the tax on Lor.ry tyres and diesel oil also?

Minister for Commercial Taxes (Sri P. Ashok Gajapathi Raju):-

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No, Sir.

*An asterisk before the name indicates Confirmation by the Member.

Sri P. Ashok Gajapathi Raju:—Sir, in Andhra Pradesh the rate of tax on tyres and tubes is 9%; in Tamil Nadu, it is 9%; in Karnataka it is 10%; in Kerala it is 15% per cent; and my information is that in Maharashtra and Orissa it is still higher—in any case higher than in Andhra Pradesh. As far as sale of tyres and tubes is concerned, it has shown buoyancy in recent time.

In Andhra Pradesh the rate of tax on diesel oil is 11%; in Tamil Nadu it is 14%; in Karnataka it is 15%; in Kerala it is 20%; and even in Maharashtra it is more than Andhra Pradesh (though I do not have correct figures). Therefore, the apprehension expressed by honourable Member is not correct.

Sri P. Ashok Gajapathi Raju:—The comparative figures of taxes in other States I have already given. But, if somebody wants to go and purchase these articles in other States, nobody can stop; that is his fundamental right. In fact the rate of tax is almost same in Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu,

Transfer of Vacant Land within the Ceiling Limit

Under Section 26, a notice of sale is to be given to the Competent Authority. The Competent Authority has option to purchase the land on behalf of the Government. If option is not exercised within a period of 60 days, the land to whomsoever he likes. If the Government purchases the land, price will be paid within three months in accordance with the provisions of Land Acquisition Act.

Transfer of Vacant Land by the Surplus Holder:

The surplus holder shall not transfer any land unless the retainable land and surplus land is determined.

One surplus land is notified under Sec. 10 (1) the owner is entitled to sell the retainable area which is within the ceiling limit.

The restrictions recently imposed on the sale of retainable area until the surplus land is surrendered to the Government are being withdrawn.
Transfer of Urban Property.

Under Section 27 transfer of urban or unbanisable land with a building is prohibited without the previous permission of the Competent Authority.

The Supreme Court struck down Section 27 (1) to the extent of restrictions imposed on the transfer of Urban or unbanisable land within the ceiling limit.

If the holding of the surplus land is in excess of the ceiling limit consisting of some vacant land and some urban property, he is prevented from selling the land unless the protected area (building and appurtenant land thereto) and surplus vacant land is determined.

The question of removing restrictions recently imposed on the sale of protected land is under consideration.

In view of the large scale malpractices indulged by some of the surplus holders by obtaining faked house numbers and false receipts of payment of house-tax and selling them as holders of urban property within the ceiling limit, the registering officers have been asked to refer the case to the Special Officer and Competent Authority. The Special Officer and the Competent Authority should not take more than ten to fifteen days to send the reply. The revised instructions are proposed to be issued and in case the Special Officer and Competent Authority does not send a reply within a period of sixty days, the document shall be registered based on the declaration filed.

Sale of Agricultural Land:

Hitherto there was practice to issue 2 (0) certificates certifying that the lands are agricultural lands and which are outside the purview of the ceiling Act.

These certificates were issued in a large scale. As there was no statutory obligation to issue such certificates, the practice of issuing such certificates has been stopped.

The question of reviving the practice of issuing certificates, prescribing certain upper limits of the size of the holding so as to ensure such unit will be a viable unit for agriculture is under examination. A decision in this regard will be taken shortly.
Sr. Basheeruddin Babu Khan (Bodhan):—Sir, after the Supreme Court Judgement which has also issued guidelines for issuing permission for registration under Section 27 to protect areas of buildings, the Government has also justified and the Hon'ble Chief Minister stated that guidelines were given to the Competent Authority, where the Competent Authority is issuing such permission even after the reference made by the registering authority within time. For my own knowledge these guidelines are not being following over by the Competent Authority or by the Registering Authority.

9-20 a.m.

Sir, if you have any other questions, I am here to answer them.

Sri A. Dharma Rao: -Sir, about this amendment let me speak. In one way, they are abolishing and converting it into the Standing Committees. They are reserving power with the Government. Whenever they need it for the purpose of political exigencies, they will entrust these powers to these Standing Committee. Therefore, this will do more harm that the Regional Planning Board Committees.

Therefore, my submission is, in all fairness, the Government should accept for deletion of this clause.

Mr. Speaker:—After all, we are definitely having politically motivated convictions and you cannot say that "I must be away from that political tinge or conviction or whatever it is. Ultimately, what are the laws, that are made here, are with political determination. We have political convictions. Every one has Political convictions. Accordingly what we had told to the voters, now we are trying to put into practice by bringing these Bills and making them as Acts. Now to say that "politically motivated" (We cannot disassociate with political motivations) I think—it is not conected with this.

Mr. Speaker:—Now the Question is:

"That in clause 13 in the proposed sub-section 4 of section 69 of the Principal Act delete the words and also perform such other functions as the Government may by notification entrust to it from time to time."

(Pause)

The Amendment was negatived.

Sri A. Dharma Rao:—Sir, the Act should not suit the political exigencies.

Sri Ch. Rajeswara Rao:—Sir, as you have rightly put it, we cannot escape from politics. They are moving from particular political approach and we see it from a different political approach. This is politics.

Mr. Speaker:—The question is:

"That in sub-clause (4) of clause 13 delete the words and also perform such other functions as the Government may by notification entrust to it from time to time."

(Pause)

The Amendment was negatived.
