Dr. Md. Vizarath Rasool Khan (Asifnagar):—Sir, T. Anjaiah was a great leader and in his death, the nation has lost a great leader and particularly the people of Andhra Pradesh. He was a soft spoken man with pleasing attitude.

As Chief Minister, he had evinced keen interest in the development of the old city and he has established the Quli Qutub Shah Development Authority. He had started the road widening programme in the city.

I had lot of affection for him as he was my M.P. Now I request the Government to fulfill his wish by paying more attention to old city problems.

I convey my heartfelt condolences to the members of the bereaved family.
