(Official Letterhead)
Sri D.K. Samara Simha Reddy:—Sir, under rule, 14, all the Opposition Leaders have also signed in that notice. That notice has been signed by everybody from the House, from the Opposition side mostly. It is against the Chief Minister. That is pertaining to making an announcement, making a policy decision in a public meeting when the House is in Session. Particularly, on that particular day, when the House is sitting here, he made a policy statement in a public meeting. He ought to have not done. He has committed a breach of Privilege. As a matter of fact, Sir, this matter was discussed here on the floor of the House. Everybody in the Opposition, requested the Hon'ble Chief Minister to make such a statement in the House itself, to which he inclined to make a statement. He categorically rejected to make a statement on the floor of the House. Having rejected on the floor of the House, if the Chief Minister makes a statement outside, in a public meeting, that too, on a day when the House is in Session, it is a clear Breach of Privilege. All of us have given a notice but nothing has been communicated to us, as to whether it was rejected or it has been done otherwise. I would like to know as to what the position is.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:—Sir, I am trying to draw your attention since five minutes. Please permit me to say.

Statement by Dr. Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy M. L. A.—on his observations made in the House on 11-8-1987.

Dr. Y. S. Rajasekhara Reddy:—To the Hon’ble Speaker. A. P. Legislative Assembly, Hyderabad.

Sir, this has reference of the proceedings of the House on 11-8-1987. Insp'ie of your expunging the utterances of Sri Vasantha Nageswara Rao, Minister for Legislative Affairs, an impression has been created through the Press that I used some filthy and unparliamentary language against you.

Sir, I may remind you here that in the entire proceedings of the House, I only took strong objection for the Members on our side not being given an opportunity and I exhorted that this amounts to sagging our right of expression. Subsequently, when you named me and asked the Ruling Party to move a motion to suspend me, I contested the proposed action to be not in accordance with the democratic traditions, as I had not resorted to any unparliamentary behaviour on the Floor of the House.

Unfortunately, the reporting of at least a certain section of the Press created an impression, that I used some filthy language in the House, because the Legislative Affairs Minister distorted the facts and said something filthy which was never said by me.

I request you here, to get the tapes hear them, check the records of the Assembly and if need be, to consult any expert of your choice and make through enquiry. If you satisfy yourself that I indulged in using some filthy language yesterday, as stated by the Legislative Affairs Ministers, I request you to treat this as my resignation to my Membership of the Assembly, or else you may please announce on the Floor of the House before this Session comes to an end that I never used any filthy language in the House, to make it clear to one and all, as to what the truth is. Sir,

Yours Sincerely,

Business of the House.

Short Discussion on drought situation in the State.

In 1987, the situation in the state was extremely challenging due to the drought. It is estimated that 50% of the irrigated area was affected, leading to a significant drop in the availability of water. The government, under the leadership of the Chief Minister, initiated several measures to mitigate the impact. These included the allocation of additional funds for water conservation and the distribution of relief materials to affected areas. However, the situation remained grim, and the drought persisted throughout the year. The government continued to monitor the situation closely, making necessary adjustments in policy and implementation strategies. Despite these efforts, the condition in some areas remained precarious, emphasizing the need for long-term solutions to address such challenges.

Short Discussion on drought situation in the State:

5-50 p.m.

(4th September 1987)

The problem of drought is very severe in this State. It has been a continuous struggle for the past six months. The situation is getting worse day by day. The rainfall has been very poor, and the crops have failed. The farmers are facing a lot of difficulties. They are not able to irrigate their fields due to the lack of water. The government is taking all necessary steps to mitigate the situation.

The situation is particularly severe in the eastern part of the State. The crops in this region have been completely destroyed. The farmers are losing their livelihoods.

The government has announced various schemes to help the affected farmers. They have been provided with seeds and fertilizers at a subsidized rate. The government has also provided financial assistance to the affected farmers.

However, the situation is still very critical. The government needs to take more effective steps to mitigate the situation. The affected farmers need to be provided with more assistance to help them recover from the losses.

Short Discussion on drought situation in the State.

6-30 p.m. (Mr. R. R. Sripada Sarma):—Mr. Chair, it seems from the reports that we are in a situation which is not normal. The recent heavy rainfall seems to have had some effect, but the drought situation is still very serious. The rainfall in the past few months has been very poor. The situation is critical in many parts of the State. The government is taking necessary steps to alleviate the situation. But we must remember that drought is a long-term problem and it cannot be solved overnight. We need a comprehensive approach to deal with it.

It is important to ensure that the water supply is not affected. We must also ensure that the crops are not damaged. The government is working hard to achieve this. We need to implement the various schemes that have been launched to alleviate the situation. The government is also providing financial assistance to the affected farmers.

Short Discussion on drought situation in the State:

The current drought situation in the State is critical. Various steps have been taken to address this crisis. The government has allocated funds to support the affected areas. However, the situation remains challenging, and more needs to be done. The state is currently facing water shortages, and efforts are being made to conserve water. The agriculture sector is also being affected, with crops facing water scarcity. The government has declared a drought relief package to aid those in need. The plight of the drought-affected population must be our priority, and we must continue to work towards a solution.

"Referring to the drought situation in the country, Mr. Gandhi claimed that the current drought was the worst in the century. Though the food stock was satisfactory, there was the problem of providing employment to the drought hit people, fodder to the cattle and supply of drinking water, Mr. Gandhi said. The drought was very serious in Gujarat because it has been affected for the fourth year in a row. The drought situation would be looked at from a National perspective because the entire country was reeling under the impact of drought. The Centre has received the Memorandum from the State Government and it would be discussed tomorrow at the Cabinet Sub-Committee meeting he assured. Gujarat would not be left behind in drought relief schemes by the Centre; the Prime Minister promised.

Later, addressing a mammoth rally of the Congress workers at the Cricket grounds at PORBANDAR, the Prime Minister said that Gujarat would get full assistance from the Centre to meet the unprecedented drought."

Short Discussion on drought situation in the State:

It is evident that the drought situation is alarming in the State. The rainfall has been extremely low, resulting in a decrease in the water levels in the rivers and reservoirs. According to the meteorological department, the rainfall figures for the current season are significantly lower than the average rainfall of the past years. This has led to a critical water crisis in the State, affecting the agricultural sectors and the domestic water supply.

The government has taken several measures to address the situation. They have declared a drought emergency in certain districts and have initiated measures to provide relief to the affected farmers. The state has also started importing water from neighboring states to meet the demand.

The situation is expected to remain critical in the coming months. It is advised to farmers to adopt water conservation techniques and to use alternative sources of water. The government is also working on long-term solutions to address the water crisis, including the construction of new reservoirs and the development of water harvesting systems.

In conclusion, the current drought situation in the State is serious and requires immediate attention from all stakeholders. The government and the people must work together to overcome this crisis and ensure the sustainability of the agricultural sector.
