Rajah: Still, it is under enquiry by the House Committee. That House Committee is considering this report also. Taking this report of Nathajaran into consideration the House Committee will present their final report. The House Committee Chairman.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: On the same subject, same issue, it is not a conclusive one. House Committee report will be a conclusive one.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It is not final on the subject.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagara Rao: This is a public document.
I request the Hon'ble Deputy Speaker to direct him to place it in your chamber at least, only in your chamber. It will be a very neat and fair thing.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— Let us take a perfect decision after considering the rule position. Whether the public document is to be shown to us, how can that be prevented by the Hon'ble Deputy Speaker? It is a strange thing.
Mr. Deputy Speaker:—In the meanwhile I will consider the rule position and give my ruling on the next working day.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagara Rao:—There is no necessity for considering the rule position. It is a separate issue. We demanded the Government to place the document on the Table of the House. Government readily accepted to show the document to us. There ends the matter.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:—No heavens are falling in the meanwhile. Before the next working day, nothing will happen.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagara Rao:—But that is not the subject here. When Government wants to produce certain document, how can it be prevented by the Hon’ble Deputy Speaker?
Sri D.K. Samarasimha Reddy:- Sir, yesterday when this issue was raised, taking it from you as a direction, I gave a commitment to this House that I will place it on the Table of the House. Now I am ready to place it unless and until you specifically ask me not to submit it. I am ready with the report, Sir.

Sri Nallapareddi Sreenivasul Reddi:- When the matter is before the House Committee, we should not try to influence... the House Committee. You have appointed the House Committee. As the matter is before the House Committee, we should not discuss. As the House Committee is still in the final stages of finalising the report. As a Member of the House Committee I am telling, in another few days we may submit the report to the Hon'ble Speaker.
At this stage, I am not telling anything about the details. At this juncture I do not know what provoked or what initiated or what it is... I do not see any reason for this. Let the Government dispute it. You verify it. Definitely we want to see how they are going to commit suicide? How the Congress Party is hanged till death. The Natarajan's Committee report is in my hands. How can you prevent, Sir?

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— How did you get it?

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— I do not know. It has come to me in post. Let the Government dispute it. You verify it.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— We do not bother who will be the Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— It has come to my house, Sir. You appoint a House Committee over it as to how it reached my House. You have to explain the possession of the document.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— You take enquiry. You take action against the persons responsible. The binding book with all certified copies, with all signatures of officers, the entire book is in my hands. It is a public document. No body can suppress it. I have got a right to take the certified copy of it. I request the Hon'ble Speaker to permit me to place this before you. Please compare it with your report and tell the people.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:- By lawful means you cannot get it. It came to your hands by unlawful means.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:- I would not have placed it. But the Ruling Party Members have provoked me to produce this. How you want to curb? How you want to suppress the reports of the I.A.S. Officers. It is the report of the 1990.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:- Obviously you got the report by unlawful means. You cannot be proud of it.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:- No. I am very sorry. It is not that I obtained. I got it. I am entitled for it.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:- Repeatedly I was telling you that I am interested because I want to hit when the iron is hot.
Mr. Deputy Speaker:— That I agree.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— The report is in my hands. How can you dispute it. It is an unlawful report. It is very bad. I am ashamed to say that word. Please excuse me. It is very bad. It is an unlawful report. Please excuse me. That is my main reason. These people are not able to function. There is no Council of Ministers. There is no responsibility.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— I am expressing my doubt.

Sri Ch. Vidyasagar Rao:— It cannot go into the record. There is no basis. I remove that from the record. I expunge it from the record.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:— It cannot go into the record. There is no basis. I expunge it from the record.
Mr. Deputy Speaker:— What is the proof?

I am not bothered about it. I am a cheerful man. Who has revealed the report? Who has given copy of the report to the Opposition. Is it not a breach of privilege when the matter is before the House Committee. Is it not a breach of privilege.

As Members of the Committee we demanded the Government to place copies of Natarajan Committee report to the Members of the Committee only. If at all given, that is the property of the House Committee and not the property of the M.L.A.

Expunged as ordered by the Chair.
He said it has come in the post with all signatures and it has reached him. He knows about it. Whatever it is, it is going to be placed before the House when the House Committee finalises the report.
Anybody can take this report. This is a public document.

Government has failed to Table the report.

Sri Nallapareddi Sreenivasul Reddi:- Hon'ble Member has placed the report on the Table of the Speaker, it has not become the property of the House.

Mr. Deputy Speaker:- It has been handedover to me.

Sri Nallapareddi Sreenivasul Reddi:- Are you allowing it to be placed on the Table of the Hon'ble Speaker?

(Interruptions)
It cannot be done. How can you allow? You should not have allowed. Pray, can you? Please, won’t you?

Sri Nallapareddi Sreenuvasul Reddi:—Within the four walls of the House has placed the report on the Table of the Hon’ble Speaker.

(Interruptions)

It is the cabinet which has to decide whether to accept the commission report or not. It is the cabinet which has to decide whether to accept the commission report or not. It is the cabinet which has to decide whether to accept the commission report or not.

We are in the middle. Matarajan Committee report also is under the purview of the House Committee. I request the Hon’ble Speaker not to allow such discussion here. It is under the purview of the Committee. So there is no business to the Member to raise the issue of breach of privilege....

(Interruptions)

Please let me come to the conclusion. I may have proceeded without the leave of the House, and I have acted on it. I may have acted so on the feeling that this is a privilege of the House and the privileges are to be safeguarded. If I am wrong, what is to be done? If I am right, what is to be done?

Mohanath Reddy said:- Please come to the conclusion.

I may have acted so on the feeling that this is a privilege of the House and the privileges are to be safeguarded. If I am wrong, what is to be done? If I am right, what is to be done?

The report will be under my custody. It will not be disclosed to anybody. The report can be submitted to the House, and the report can be submitted to the House.

Mr. Vidyasagar:— I have to dispute. He is personally known to us. We respect Hon’ble Ramachandra Reddy Garu. Definitely we do not want to humiliate him. In no way we have got personal grudge against him. Why are you keeping quiet? To whom we are going to request? We approached the President of India. We approached Sri P.V. Narasimha Rao Garu.
Mr. Deputy Speaker.— I will post your notice to Monday if you desire. As a matter of fact, yesterday I was misled by your party.

Shri. Ch. V.
